CAUGHT ON THE RUN ABOUT TOWN

PEOPLE YOU KNOW AND SOME OF THE THINGS THEY SAY AND DO.

"Tell everybody to come to the opening," was the message of Uncle Charlie Harnois left at The Missoulian office last night as he went home, tired and happy. "I want you to make this plain to them all, as there appears to be some who think they will be unable to attend unless they are in full dress. I don't want anybody to stay away on that account; patrons of the house will be welcome in any attire and the man whose dress suit is not pressed may wear any other coat that he has; there will be no attention paid to him on account of what he wears. There is a welcome at the new theater for all of my friends and I want the seats well filled; dress suits will be all right and a street coat will be all right, too. There will be more or less of a society function to the opening performance, of course; that is true of every show that we give, but I don't want anybody to stay away on account of the clothing question. I hope that you will be able to correct any misapprehension that exists on this account and tell them all to come. There are a few seats left in the second balcony and in the gallery; these will be sold today for $2.50 and $1. If there are any who want to see the new house who have not already obtained their tickets, here is an opportunity for them to do so."

Uncle Dick Sutton came over yesterday to be the guest of Uncle Charlie Harnois during the days of the opening of the new theater. If there is anybody in the west who knows what a good theater is, that man is Uncle Dick. He went through the new Harnois theater yesterday afternoon and he saw it by lamplight last night. His opinion is valuable because he is a veteran and an expert. This is about what he said when he had completed his inspection: "Charlie, I have been hearing a lot about this theater from the show people who have come over from here to Butte while you have been building it. They have all told me that you were building a theater as if you were a millionaire and that it was a model. I'll tell you what it is: It's a dream. It is as nearly perfect as any house I ever saw. I had expected something pretty fine, but nothing like this. It is a wonder for arrangement and for beauty. You are to be congratulated and the people of Missoula, too, for the possession of such a house as this. I don't know where there is one that is more beautiful, anywhere, and I have seen a good many of them. You have spent a good deal of money on it, but you haven't wasted any; the house is correct from top to bottom and there is no show on the road that you cannot accommodate here. I am glad I came down for the opening."

we are getting some excellent advertising and there will be many people coming this way this summer. The railroads are making extensive preparations to handle the business and the new trains from Chicago to the coast will be the finest things that ever rolled on wheels. I saw two of them; on one of them I rode, I have never seen anything so elaborate and the people who travel this summer will ride in style."

"They are taking notice of Turah," said John M. Price yesterday afternoon, "and the inquiry for lots is more active than it has ever been. The location of these lots and the certainty that the Northern Pacific will build its terminal plant there for the new freight division makes the opportunity one which appeals to investors, especially as the number of lots is limited and they will not last long. The sale is starting in good shape."

"They're coming around to see about the Kennedy Creek proposition, all right," said James M. Rhoades yesterday afternoon. "The fact is that I consider this one of the best propositions in this section right now and it will get better all the time. The quality of the coal and its proximity to Missoula make the new field one which has great significance to the people of this city. The work of core drill exploration will be under way in a short time and all of our expectations will be fully verified, I am sure."

BRIDGE CONTRACT AWARDED

COMMISSIONERS OPEN BIDS FOR CONSTRUCTION OF RATTLE-SNAKE CROSSING.

The county commissioners met yesterday in regular session and transacted considerable important business during the day's session. Bids for the building of a new bridge across the Rattlesnake were opened and given consideration, the contract being awarded to J. F. Harrington, whose bid of $391.50 was the lowest. Mr. Harrington posted a bond of $2,000 to carry out his end of the contract.

The remainder of the bids as opened were: Burrill Bridge company, $1,777; O. E. Peppard, $1,150; J. G. Ambrose, $1,750; Schneider & West, $1,560; W. M. Wing, $1,287.

A contract was awarded to Stringham & Head for repairs on the Cyr bridge across the Missoula river. The contracting firm placed a bid of $40 for the work.

During the day the matter of discontinuance of the deputy sheriff at Taft was brought up and the clerk was ordered to notify the sheriff that the office would cease at the close of the present month.

Suffrage Situation Embarrassing

London, Feb. 24.—The suffrage situation has taken on an embarrassing aspect for the government owing to the high social position of many among 30 or more women arrested this evening, including Mrs. Pecklaw Lawrence, daughter of the late Lord, daughter of the former viceroy of India; Miss Stratford Dugdale, daughter of Commander Dugdale; Miss Daisy Solomon, daughter of the ex-premier of Cape Colony, and Mrs. Catherine Elizabeth Corbett, an aristocratic supporter of the suffrage movement.

Both sides were well prepared for tonight's attempt on the part of the suffragettes to force themselves on Premier Asquith, who yesterday had declined by letter to receive a deputation. The women held "parliament" at Caxton hall, and a number of them started on "danger duty" in solid phalanx, led by Mrs. Lawrence.

Adopt New Plan.

The police, abandoning former tactics of barring the approach to the house of commons, adopted the new plan of breaking up the procession close to Caxton hall. They permitted the suffragettes to proceed by couples. The women were thus not given much chance to create a disturbance. The police kept them continually on the move and none were allowed to enter parliament building. Finally several, including Mrs. Lawrence, were arrested.

Much excitement ensued and Miss Solomon volunteered to lead a second delegation to the house. This led to more exciting street scenes and more arrests. A third attempt was organized at the hall, but this time the destination of the deputation was Brooke's club, where the premier was dining. Near St. James palace a large body of police descended upon the procession, which was compelled to break ranks and several more arrests were made. Only two or three of the women reached the doors of the club, where they were intercepted by the police.

Earnest Speakers.

The speakers at the "parliament" were most earnest. Mrs. Parkhurst presided, and the meeting was in session throughout the evening, receiving messengers, who reported the progress of the deputations. Miss Christabel Parkhurst in an address said: "When I speak of stronger measures I speak in all earnestness. We value neither our liberty nor our lives unless the women of this country get a vote."

Jameson-Day Marriage.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olin O. Day, 315 South Third street, at 5:30 o'clock last evening occurred the marriage of their only daughter, Miss Mabel Day, to Mr. Harry I. Jameson. The parlor and dining room were profusely decorated with trailing vines and cut flowers and a large number of friends and relatives were present to witness the ceremony. Mrs. McDougal presided at the piano. Rev. Mr. Taft, who officiated, presided at the altar. After the marriage, the bride entered the arm of her father, otherwise unattended. The service was impressive and beautiful, the ring ceremony being used. Miss Day, always beautiful, looked charming in an Empire sheath gown of cream colored tulle, trimmed in old lace, and carrying a large bouquet of bride's roses. After the marriage, the guests, thirty or more in number, repaired to the dining room, where a delicious wedding dinner was served. Mrs. Jameson is one of the later acquisitions to Missoula society, the family having made their home here something less than a year ago, but is an accomplished and delightful young lady. Mr. Jameson has lived in the city longer and is well and favorably known, being an efficient machinist in the employ of the Northern Pacific. The young couple go immediately to housekeeping in a home furnished and made ready by the groom.

AXE IS USED FREELY AT HELENA

NUMEROUS BILLS ARE KILLED IN BOTH HOUSES OF THE LEGISLATURE.

Special to The Daily Missoulian.

Helena, Feb. 24.—The axe was freely used in both houses of the legislature today. This morning the house passed the Berkin slot machine bill by one vote. It was sent to the senate, and by unanimous vote its consideration was rejected. The senate killed four democratic primary measures, and it also put the quibus on the Donnan bill for the examination of plumbers.

The Berkin race track bill, which extends race meetings in first-class counties to 30 days, was favorably acted upon in committee of the whole in the house.

The Muffy miscegenation bill was received by the senate from the house this afternoon. The house amendment, which related to prohibited marriages outside of the state, was concurred in.

The history of the slot machine bill in the house today is interesting. Opponents to the bill in the house secured its passage. It was not with any thought of the result that they did this. The trouble was they gave up the fight a moment too soon, believing themselves vanquished.

After the roll had been called on the passage of the bill on third reading, but before Speaker McDowell had announced the result, Dr. C. W. Smith of Fergus, who led the fight against the bill last week, believing that the bill had been passed, arose and announced that he desired to change his vote to aye, seeking to do this so that he could later move a recommendation of the measure.

"The clerk will announce the vote," said Speaker McDowell.

"Twenty-nine ayes and 28 nos," called out Assistant Chief Clerk Ashby.

A look on consternation overspread the countenances of the members who had voted against the bill, as they realized that if Dr. Smith had not changed his vote the fight would have been won. Dr. Smith explained that those who had kept tally on the vote had made a mistake, and he believed the measure had passed, so he had changed his vote in order to secure a reconsideration.

A CROWN OF GLORY

As Well as a Mark of Beauty is Luxurious Hair.

It has been truly said that the crowning glory of our race is a luxuriant head of hair.

It used to be thought that this was one of the blessings which the gods bestow capriciously, and it is only recently that scientists have discovered that its beauty is dependent upon the absence of a minute germ which flourishes in the hair follicles, where it destroys the life of the hair.

To restore this life and kill the germs which cause the mischief is the mission of Newbro's Herpicide.

Herpicide surely kills the germs and is the best hair dressing on the market.

It contains no grease or oil, neither will it stain or dye.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00. Missoula Drug Co., special agents.
