WANT MANAGEMENT CHANGED

SERIOUS CHARGES TO BE FILED AGAINST OFFICIALS OF RAILROAD HOSPITAL.

For the past two days representatives of most of the local railroad organizations have been holding council among themselves, with the management of the Northern Pacific hospital in Missoula the chief topic of discussion.

The conference of the past two days was called at the instance of W. A. Walsh, local chairman of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, who is also chairman of a committee composed of all the local chairmen of the different railroad orders on the Rocky Mountain division, which has been selected for the purpose of supervising conditions at the hospital.

Chairman's Statement.

From a statement made yesterday by Chairman Walsh of the investigating committee it would appear that the administration of Dr. J. P. Aylen, who has been in charge of the affairs of the local Northern Pacific hospital since the resignation of Dr. Spottswood over a year ago, is not satisfactory to those supporting the institution and efforts have recently been made to have Dr. Aylen removed.

Nearly three months ago the higher officials connected with the beneficial association were appealed to by the local supervising committee in an effort to have the present management of the Missoula infirmary ousted.

At that time Dr. Walter Courtney of Brainerd came here to investigate the charges and decided that there was no ground for action.

The doctor stated that he was in possession of letters from the St. Paul trustees of the beneficial association commending him on the splendid showing being made at the Missoula institution and making special comment on the administration of the affairs of the local association.

When seen at the hospital yesterday Dr. Aylen said that as far as he was concerned there was no ground for the action and that he was prepared to satisfactorily answer all the charges that could be brought.

No Formal Complaint. N. H. Mason, general agent for the Northern Pacific at this place and a member of the general board of trustees of the Northern Pacific Beneficial association representing the station employes at this place, said yesterday that no complaint had ever been registered with him against the hospital department.

It is probable that Dr. Courtney of Brainerd will reach Missoula tomorrow and will confer jointly with the investigating committee and Dr. Aylen.

Warrant is Out. At a late hour last night a warrant was sworn out for Dr. Aylen's arrest. It will probably be served today.

DISTRESS SIGNALS ARE INTERCEPTED

Boston, March 11.—Indefinite signals, apparently from some steamer in distress, were picked up in fragmentary form by naval wireless stations at Charleston and Newport tonight, but on account of the many interruptions and the inability of messages could be distinguished to indicate either the name of the vessel or her whereabouts.

"A distress, notify life-saving stations—west—south—east," is the way the message was read at Newport.

The operators who heard the message agreed that the flashes from the receiver seemed to be from a stranger sending messages than an amateur would be likely to guess, so that they felt quite certain it was not an aerial hoax.

HEAVY SHEEP LOSSES.

Rock Springs, Wyo., March 11.—Enormous losses of sheep among the flocks of the Red Desert district are reported as a result of the deep snow and the inability of the sheep to get feed.

In some bands, it is said, the loss will amount to 50 per cent, and one flockmaster is reported to have lost 5,000 head in the last month.

BRAKEMAN IS KILLED AT RAVALLI

JOHN McCABE FALLS BETWEEN CARS WHILE SWITCHING AND DEATH ENSUES.

"While switching at Ravalli this evening brakeman John McCabe fell between the cars and was instantly killed."

The above is the text of a message received by the Northern Pacific officials at about 6:30 last night, and relates to the tragic death of a man well known in railroad circles in Missoula.

On receipt of the first advice of the accident, Coroner W. D. Kendrick was notified and left here for Ravalli on an extra at about 7:30 o'clock last night. The body, in charge of the coroner, reached Missoula at 2 o'clock this morning.

John McCabe resided at 238 North Second street.

McCabe's father lives at the town of Bailey, eight miles from Dubuque, Iowa. His sister, Miss Nemo McCabe, teaches at Orben Creek, near this city.
