MANY FRIENDS ATTEND ALFRED CAVE FUNERAL

of Alfred Cave, the old pioneer who died Wednesday afternoon after a long illness, were held yesterday afternoon at the residence on East Front street. The sermon, preached by Rev Mr. Noftsinger of the Baptist church of Butte, was unusually eloquent and sympathetic. He dwelt on the life and deeds of Alfred Cave and had and deeds of Airred Cave and had much to say on the rugged honesty and genial disposition of the dead pioneer. A large number of sympathizing friends were present to pay their last respects to the memory of their lost companion. Flowers covered the casket and the grave.

The pailbearers were all old time friends of the deceased; men who had known him for years and were anxious to perform this last service for him. They were J. B. Catlin, Andrew Logan, H. L. Wilkinson, J. C. Lehsou, George Kennett and W. B. Parsons.

Interment was in the Missoula Valley cemetery.

mother, who said the child had been missing for several days, and that she would not leave the place. It is not known what will be done with the child, but it is probable that she will be placed in the House of the Good Shepherd in Helena pending an investigation of the case by the police. The girl's father made an attempt to prevent the officer from taking the child to Helena, but he was persuaded by the local officials to drop his objections, and the girl went to Helena with Mr. Shope.

LARGE SALES FOR "A STUB-BORN CINDERELLA."

From the time the seat sale for "A Stubborn Cinderella," which is to ap-pear at the Harnois theater tonight pened yesterday morning until the ox office closed for the night, then box office closed for the night, there was a steady stream of people pouring into the office, and it required the combined efforts of both Uncle Charli-Harnois and his son to even begin to satisfy the demand for seats. Anothen, too, there were orders coming in all the time over the wire and through the mails and before the said brough the mails, and before the sal through the mails, and before the sale had been on two hours practically every seat in the first 10 rows on the ground floor and the first seven rows in the balcony was gone.

"I never saw anything like it," Mr. Harnois said yesterday, "I was on my feet every minute of the day, and at that there was always a crowd waiting, but they will get their money's worth, for there is no better show on the road than the one which we are going to put on tomorrow."

The arrangements for the Bitter Root special have all been made, and the train will start as scheduled at 6 p. m. from Hamilton, stopping at all points on the road where there are passengers for the trip. The train will all points on the road where there are passengers for the trip. The train will make its return trip shortly after the show is over, giving time, however, for a lunch at Ye Oide Inn after the play. This arrangement has caused a lot of orders for seats to come in from the valley towns, and a large crowd may be expected when the special comes in.

When conservative, level-headed business men and professional men pick me out as their tailor it's not a matter of sentiment, but of value

There are quite a bunch of young fellows who pay a fancy price to those traveling "expert measure takers" under the impression they're getting something "better."

It's the most unbustnesslike thing they ever did, for the clothes they get are mostly ready-mades in dis-guise—made over to conform to the measurements sent in.

It's these men that I want to get into my place I want to demonstrate to them that the name Joe Fitzgerald on the label is better from a quality stand-point than any name those fellows
