HENRY N. SAVAGE.

At the Harnois theater tonight the people of Missoula will have an opportunity to hear the talk of a man who is in love with his work. Henry N. Savage, chief of the reclamation service, is an enthusiast; he is a government officer who is in the work because he believes in it and because he has the courage of his convictions.

HANCOCK'S ADAGE.

Winfield Scott Hancock was not elected to the presidency, but his name will be remembered as long as the tariff is an issue in this country. It was said at the time of his defeat for the highest office in the land that his comment on the tariff was what cost him the election, and since the present discussion of the question of import duties began, his historic remark has been frequently quoted.

IN LOS ANGELES.

The city of Los Angeles tonight concludes a municipal campaign which is remarkable in some of its features. Tomorrow's election will afford the first practical test of the "recall" system which has ever been made in America.

taken of this right by the opponents of Mayor Harper.

Petitions for the ouster of the mayor were opened at various places in the business district of the city. Committees canvassed the electorate, working up sentiment, public meetings were held by both sides, and the excitement reached fever heat.

The anti-Harper faction named ex-Supervisor George Alexander as their candidate for mayor. Thus the campaign began and daily it became more spirited until, totally unexpected, Mayor Harper added to the political turmoil by withdrawing from the race.

No Missoula man can afford to absent himself from the Harnois theater tonight. Mr. Savage's lecture will afford a thorough insight into the reclamation work.

The man who is buying wants the tariff slashed; the man who is selling wants it boosted; the task of congress in reconciling the two positions is not easy.

It appears that the bison reserve will not be a reserve without bison; there will be a good-sized herd ready to locate as soon as the land is inclosed.

Los Angeles has time to spend on a city election; in Missoula everybody appears to be too busy to pay any attention to the matter.

The Flathead reservation shares with the Seattle exposition the attention of westward-bound travelers and it's worth it.

Mr. Roosevelt carries with him the memory of a send-off which properly expressed his country's regard for him.

The old timer and the tenderfoot join in predicting a record-breaking production of dandelions this spring.

Mountain trout from Missoula would induce many a traveler to go by way of the Northern Pacific.

If you're going up into the air, either literally or figuratively, prepare for the worst before you start.

Missoula anglers deserve support in their endeavor to keep the local streams stocked with trout.

It begins to look as if Uncle Joe Cannon would manage to worry along with the new rules.

Here in the Bitter Root it is not easy to realize that Denver is snowbound and stormlocked.

In the hum of industry, we continue to listen for the sound of the electric railway.

The lap of spring is so very attractive that it is no wonder that winter wants to linger.

There is joy in the spring sunshine that overshadows the grief of housecleaning.

The city election fails to stir up as much enthusiasm as the March weather.

Don't let business entirely exclude consideration of municipal affairs.

Missoula makes good; hence her prosperity and her popularity.

Boost and boost fair. That's what counts.

Call for Republican City Convention.

At a meeting of the republican city central committee, held in the city of Missoula, March 15, 1909, it was ordered that the republican city convention be held at Missoula, March 31, 1909, in the court house, at 8 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the following offices:

YOUNG WHITLA IDENTIFIES SUSPECTS

as she put her hand upon his head and caressed him for an instant.

The boy then stepped back to his father and was asked several questions by the chief of police.

"Yes, I know her," he said. "She was the nurse who took care of me in Cleveland. She told me I was sick and in a hospital. I saw her a whole lot, for she was with me most of the time."

Locate House. The police today located the house in which the Whitla boy was held while in Cleveland. It is the "Granger," a downtown apartment house of the better order. The man and woman rented a suite on the second floor front. Willie said he spent considerable time at the front window, and noticed the names on the street cars which passed. He also said he read a sign across the street which he remembered. It was through the aid of the street car signs that the lair of the kidnapers was located. The kidnapers ate at a restaurant near by.

A brother of Boyle, the man under suspicion, telegraphed the police from Sharon tonight and requested that he be given an opportunity to see the woman being detained. Boyle said he would be here tomorrow.

MORRIS JENSEN RETURNS.

Morris Jensen, the young man taken to Plains recently at the suggestion of Sanders county authorities, has returned to Missoula. County Attorney Schultz wished a conference with Jensen, as he believed the latter could clear up some phases of the robbery of a Plains restaurant several years ago, to which crime the killing of Jack Halliday was incidental. Three men are held for the robbery, but nothing has as yet been found to definitely connect any of them with the murder. Jensen was in Missoula at the time of the crime. He may be a witness at the trial of the suspects in May.

TERRIAULT RETURNS.

Patrolman Therriault returned yesterday from Butte, where he left his son, Albert, who was accidentally shot in the eyes at the Gun club shoot last Sunday. The specialist who has charge of the case hopes to be able to save the left eye, but thinks that the other organ will be lost.

CALKINS PROMOTED.

Chicago, March 24.—R. M. Calkins, general freight agent at Butte for the Chicago, Milwaukee & Puget Sound railroad, has been appointed traffic manager. Headquarters will be at Seattle, where a complete traffic force will be organized.

UNIVERSITY BUNCH IS RETURNED VICTOR

The high school baseball team went down to defeat before a university aggregation yesterday on the south side grounds in the season's first work-out for either nine, the final score being 8 to 4. Neither team covered itself with any particular glory, the only feature of the game being the wrangling which went on throughout the contest over the decisions of the umpire. Montgomery, who was in the box for the rah-rah boys, pitched a good, steady game and held his opponents down to a few scattering hits, the four runs which they managed to tally being due to the poor support which he was accorded. Owsley and Stevens officiated for the high school and both of them pitched a good game, although at times it looked as though the failure of some of the varsity men to connect with the ball was due more to their own poor playing rather than to any brilliancy on the part of the pitcher. Connor was behind the bat for the winners and, with the exception of one bad moment, when he threw away a bunt and let in two men, he played a fairly good game of ball. He was replaced towards the end by Bishop, who put up his usual good game. Whiteman and Kiebe took turns at the receiving end of the high school battery and both did good work.

LOCAL SOCIETY

Park Addition Club. The Park Addition club was pleasantly entertained yesterday afternoon by Mesdames A. E. Pound and Deering at the home of the latter on the Rattlesnake. Several unusually interesting papers were read, among which were "Fads and Fancies in Cooking," by Mrs. Pound; "Sunny Side of House Cleaning," by Mrs. E. M. Taylor; a poem, "Sneezes That Never Came Up," by Mrs. L. L. Wright, and several piano selections by Mrs. Lucas. The program was followed by a general discussion on the best methods of house cleaning. Late in the afternoon a luncheon was served. About 20 ladies were present.

Sunshine Club.

The last meeting of the Sunshine club was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Murphy in South Missoula. Whist was played until 3:30, when prizes were awarded those holding the highest scores. The first prize, a souvenir spoon, was won by Mrs. James Maher; the second, a cup and saucer, by Mrs. W. H. Hutchinson; and the consolation by Mrs. George Peas. After a dainty luncheon had been served, a flower guessing contest was enjoyed by the guests. Mrs. Charles Lemley proved most skillful and was given the first prize, a jardiniere; Mrs. Belknap the second, a vase, and Mrs. Peas won the consolation. Just before they departed Mrs. Lemley took a photograph of the club members. Twelve ladies were present to enjoy Mrs. Murphy's hospitality.

Apron Shower.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Steve Edlins was pleasantly surprised by a number of friends, who tendered an apron shower at her home on Alder street. Mrs. Edlins was the recipient of many dainty aprons. Cards were played until a late hour, when a lunch was served.

Personals.

Miss Winnie Feiginer, who is attending school in Boston, will spend the Easter vacation in New York and Washington with friends. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boren and little daughter have returned after an extended eastern visit.

CASE POSTPONED.

The case of the state against Rufus Lloyd, which was to have been tried before Justice Small yesterday, was postponed until Saturday night. Lloyd is charged with assaulting Pat Sentor in the Club saloon last Saturday night.

Mrs. C. A. White and daughter, Mayme, left here yesterday for a visit in Spokane.

and interest. Taxes, he continued, never should be increased where possible to avoid it; cutting down appropriations, he said, where it could be done, without stinting the government in any of its proper functions, was the most efficient remedy for a deficiency. "But," he added, "our republican brethren seem utterly incapable of cutting down appropriations. We favor that remedy on the old Jeffersonian principle of economy in the public expense that labor may be lightly burdened."

REFRACTORY WITNESS GOES BACK TO JAIL

Los Angeles, March 24.—After an hour's questioning by the grand jury today, Joseph Durand, a witness who was sentenced to jail for refusing to answer the questions propounded by the foreman of the grand jury, was taken back to the county jail. It is presumed that he again refused on advice of his attorney to answer the questions. District Attorney Fredericks stated, however, that his only purpose now was to hold Durand in case he was wanted as a witness at some future time. From this it was inferred that Durand testified to some of the facts on which his evidence was desired.
