CAUGHT ON THE RUN ABOUT TOWN

PEOPLE YOU KNOW AND SOME OF THE THINGS THEY DO AND SAY.

There has for a long time been considerable rivalry between Frank Simons and Dr. Oettinger as to the relative speed of their automobiles when handled by the owners.

The matter has been thoroughly discussed many times and there have been reams of paper and yards of lead pencils consumed in estimating the speed qualities of the machines, the calculations being based upon theoretical conditions. This discussion reached a climax about midnight Thursday, and it was decided that the matter could never be accurately determined without a practical test. As each of the disputants is busy and has his time well occupied, it was concluded that the matter could be settled right then as well as any time. Each man went for his machine and rolled out to the fair grounds for the race. It was a dash as a pocket and in some way each missed the other and returned to the city. Just before 1 o'clock yesterday morning they met in town again, and after reviewing the details of the long wanderings on the flat, determined to try it again. So out to the fairgrounds they went again, this time in company. The gasoline supply was carefully tested by each man, and each machine was found to be in perfect trim. The race had been started with glory as the stake, but by this time the purse had grown till it represented a lot of real money, which was deposited with Warren Shopp—who remained in town. There were five passengers in one of the cars and four in the other when the start was made from town, but there were not that many when the races started; there were eight men in the party who declined to participate in any race in the dark. The match was for one mile with a flying start; there was no jockeying and the cars were off at the first scoring, eight shivering men on the bleachers, watching four balls of light spin around the track. There was some disagreement as to which car won on account of the difficulty in distinguishing between the two in the darkness; but the majority of the judges decided in favor of the Simons car, and Mr. Simons was awarded the money. The general opinion was that it is a pretty busy town where there is not time in daylight to pull off speed contests.

UNIVERSITY MEN GIVE CLEVER ENTERTAINMENT

Of the program given last evening at the Harnois by the Iowa College Glee club there was not a feature that was not enjoyed. The audience was large and liberal with applause and the college men who gave the entertainment seemed to enjoy themselves as well as anybody else. The club proved itself a well trained organization and gave a finished concert. The soloists created a favorable impression and quartet and choruses alike brought out the traditional "hundreds of applause." The club appeared as the fifth number of the university lecture course.

FUNERAL OF LOIS MESSER.

The funeral of Lois V. Messer was held yesterday afternoon from the residence of her parents on East Cedar street. Rev. J. Maclean of the Presbyterian church, of which the deceased was a member, preached an eloquent and touching sermon. The floral offerings were many. After the services the body was shipped on the Bitter Root train to Corvallis, where interment will be made at 10 o'clock this morning.

REGISTRATION BOOKS ARE OPENED

THREE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX VOTERS GET NAMES ON BOOKS OF AGENTS.

Three hundred and thirty-six of Missoula's voting population took interest enough in the coming city election to register yesterday. In the four wards there was an ordinarily heavy registration—ordinarily heavy for the first day. The second ward holds the record for the largest number to register on the first day, 104, while the first ward claims the honor of having the oldest voter—to register yesterday, anyway. He is Rev. George Stewart, and he gave his age as 84. The fourth ward was second for registration honors, with a total of 81. The following gives the total registration for the first day on which the books were opened for this year:

First ward.....	73
Second ward.....	104
Third ward.....	78
Fourth ward.....	81

Residents of the first ward should register at Gannon & McLeod's barn, where F. G. Bond is registry agent. E. J. McCassey is in charge of registration for the second ward, with office in the city hall, and Pope Catlin is registering third ward voters in the Mix store. The fourth ward registry office is at the bottling works on Railroad avenue, with Gilbert Byers in charge.

NEW FILMS AT GRAND.

New motion pictures will be shown at the Grand theater this afternoon and evening. The feature film of the new series is "Stirring Days in Old Virginia," a great war drama. Two matinee performances will be given, at 2:30 and 3:30.

LAUNDRY ROBBED.

Officer E. M. Carver has light arrested two men who are suspected of being the ones that broke into a Chinese laundry on West Main street early yesterday morning. They are said to have stolen about $20, which was in the pockets of a pair of trousers in the laundry. They were taken to the city jail.

WAITER IS ARRESTED.

J. McCloskey, a waiter at Ye Olde Inn, was arrested yesterday afternoon upon a warrant sworn out by Frank J. Pierce, proprietor of the well-known cafe. It is charged by Mr. Pierce that McCloskey appropriated to his own use $5 which was given him by guests of the cafe in payment of their check for a meal. McCloskey was caught at the depot, about to take a train east.
