

10 New Houses on Stephens Avenue,

In block 76, South Missoula; facing on Stevens avenue. I have all of block 90, the adjoining block, for sale at $100 per lot in part of the block, and $175 per lot for the lots facing on Stevens avenue; on terms of one-third cash, balance one and two years. The building of all these houses and the extension of the city water mains will double the value of these lots.

I have two choice lots in blocks 55 and 56, facing on Stevens avenue, that are also cheap. Twenty beautiful lots in block 80, including the four corners. Block 80 is only one block away from where these new houses will be built. These I am offering at $150 each, on terms. Call in and I will put you on the road to making money.

PROFOUND IMPRESSION CREATED BY SERVICE

The best attended meeting in the series of services being held in the Methodist church was that of last night, and the spirit of the meeting throughout was excellent. Dr. Jacob Mills, who is the preacher for this week, took for his topic "The Baptism of the Holy Ghost." Several passages of scriptures were read bearing on the theme, and then briefly but clearly the office work of the Spirit was set forth.

The speaker emphasized the importance and the need of the Holy Spirit in order that prayer might be acceptable and prevailing, also in the interpretation and understanding of the word of God, and as a preparation and endowment for service, showing by several concrete examples what men and women thus equipped had done and what many now were doing. The sermon created a fine impression. Services will be held this evening, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock; subject: "Will a Man Rob God?"

UNABLE TO SECURE JURORS

MANY VENIREMEN FAIL TO QUALIFY FOR MURDER TRIAL OF JOE BROWN.

Inability to secure a jury has resulted in a temporary postponement of the Joe Brown murder trial. Twice yesterday adjournments were taken in order to enable the sheriff to secure the names of additional veniremen. At 5 o'clock yesterday evening 11 names had been chosen, but the challenges of the state had not all been heard. Joe Brown is to be tried on a charge of having murdered Robert Gilruth on Sunday, March 1, during a quarrel between the two men, resulting from a feud of long standing. Brown, it is understood, will make a plea of self-defense, claiming that Gilruth attacked him with a hatchet.

During the proceedings yesterday Mrs. Gilruth, wife of the dead man, and her little child were present. John Gilruth, a brother of the man slain, and who will be the state's principal witness, was also in court. Mrs. Gilruth displayed deep emotion whenever the name of her husband was mentioned during the attempt to secure a jury, and on several occasions her sobs could be heard distinctly in the auditorium of the court room.

According to the evidence presented at the coroner's inquest, Robert Gilruth and his brother, John, were in the act of staking out a mining claim near the old Chickamao mine about six miles south of Lolo, when Brown approached. Brown owns a mining claim next to the one which was being staked out by the Gilruth brothers, and in an altercation which ensued between the Gilruths and Brown over the location of Brown's line, the latter is said to have reached for his revolver and was attacked by Robert Gilruth with a hatchet. Brown is said to have shot Robert Gilruth as he was seeking shelter in a nearby building. Brown, who two years ago was released from the penitentiary, where he had served five years for criminal assault on Mrs. Robert Gilruth, came to Missoula immediately after the attack and was arrested in the office of W. B. Parsons while having his wounds dressed.

An attempt will be made to finish empaneling the jury this morning.
