CAUGHT ON THE RUN ABOUT TOWN

PEOPLE YOU KNOW AND SOME OF THE THINGS THEY DO AND SAY.

J. O. Read yesterday made one of his periodical and altogether too frequent visits to Missoula. He was a pitiable sight; he is an excellent actor and he pretended that the weather down here was so chilly that it made him uncomfortable; he turned up his overcoat collar and was the picture of misery all day. To add to his discomfort, he came down here to see Charles Dallman, and he got here only to find that Dallman had gone up the valley on the freight in the morning, and they passed each other on the way. With no sunshine and without Dallman to warm things up for him, it is not to be wondered at that J. O. had a hard time in town. But the sun emerged after noon and J. O. thawed out a little. He consented to talk after he had had lunch and was really entertaining before he left. "Hamilton is better and busier than I ever saw it before," said he to a Missoulian reporter. "There are hundreds of people coming in; most of them are coming at the instance of the ditch company, and they are as fine a class of people as could be found anywhere in the world. The town is crowded most of the time, and we are having a hard time some nights to find places for them to sleep. But we are getting more room all the time; new buildings are being finished and the annex to the hotel will be completed in another week or two. The ditch company is planting some fine orchards and the way the work is being done is fine; it is gratifying to those who have been working for better planting. The selection of trees is good and they are being set out in the best possible manner. As an illustration and an object lesson for the valley, the work of the ditch company is a great benefit, but its splendid effect lies in the sort of people that it is bringing to the valley and the kind of orchards that it is developing."

As showing the estimate which was placed upon the worth of the late A. W. Burrell by those who knew him best in tribute. A business way, there is interest in a telegram which was received by O. E. Peppard from the Bridge Contractors' Association of the Pacific Coast. This telegram came as soon as the death of Mr. Burrell was known in San Francisco, and was as follows: "O. E. Peppard, Contractor, Missoula—Any courtesy you may show the Burrell family on account of the death of A. W. Burrell will be appreciated by the Bridge Contractors' Association of California. (Signed) Charles R. Ross." Mr. Peppard showed this message to a Missoulian man yesterday, saying, "I thought it would be interesting, as it shows the high regard in which Mr. Burrell was held by the men who had his business associates for many years."

The automobile race which was held at the fairgrounds last week between Frank Simons and Dr. Oettinger has not, it appears, settled the question of the superiority of one machine over the other, to the complete satisfaction of all concerned. The conditions of the race are familiar to the readers of The Missoulian. It was the fourth contest between the two, and was held in daylight, those which preceded it having been pulled off at midnight. Simons went from a standing start, while Oettinger had a flying go. The handicap was believed to be too great for Simons, as he was away behind at the finish. But there are those who think that the test was not a fair one, as it has been asserted since that Simons' battery had been short-changed or in some other way given the double cross. For his part, Oettinger declares that he is willing to run the race over again at any time, and there has been a forfeit posted for a repetition of the race as soon as the track is in condition. The event will attract considerable attention in automobile circles, and there will be a large audience. Those who are familiar with the two machines are divided in their opinion as to the merits of the choo-choos, and this will make the betting good. It is expected that the race will come off in a day or two if the sun will consent to dry up the track. It will occur as soon as possible, as neither of the contestants desires to have his money tied up any longer than is necessary.

There is a housewife on the south side who is inquiring for a house servant. Yesterday afternoon she made inquiry of one of her neighbors, and was met with the counter-query: "I thought you had a girl." "Well," was the reply, "I have one. But she is green. Yesterday I told her, as I have told her several times before, to be sure to sweep under the bathtub. She looked at me mournfully and said, 'Ma'am, I've tried and tried, but I can't lift that tub at all.' What, tell me, am I to do with a girl of that sort?"

Sid J. Coffee has completed a rearrangement of the store of his Missoula Drug company by which he gains considerable room and also secures an ideal arrangement for his prescription department. He has built a deck over the space which was formerly his office in the south end of the store. The deck is now used as an office, and the old space becomes an admirable shipping room. This room is now cut off from the store and this makes it possible to relocate the prescription room, which has been entirely enclosed in glass and fitted with the most approved system of shelving and other fixtures. It is dust-proof and is so

The new anglers' club is receiving constant acquisitions in membership cards, and there is much enthusiasm over the purpose of the organization. The club, in the first place, is on deck to co-operate with the game wardens in seeing to it that there is enforcement of the law governing fishing. Every member constitutes himself an ally of the wardens and it is believed that this arrangement will result in stopping the dynamiting of streams and other outrages against the sport of Isak Walton. The club is arranging to receive several hundred thousand fry this spring from the state hatchery at Anaconda and the Columbia gardens' hatchery for distribution in the local streams. There is unity of purpose amongst the members and enthusiasm over the prospects of restocking the streams, and the club will unquestionably prove a benefit to its members and to this part of the state. Already there are steps being taken in Ravalli county to form a club to act with the Missoula organization, and an invitation has been extended to the Sanders county fishermen to do the same.

SIGMA CHI ALUMNI WILL MEET

MISSOULA CHAPTER ANNOUNCES BANQUET TO MARK ITS INITIAL SESSION.

The first regular meeting of the Missoula alumni chapter of the Sigma Chi fraternity will be marked by a banquet, to be served at 9 o'clock this evening at Ye Olde Inn. A rather elaborate menu is to be enjoyed by the members of the chapter and an informal program of toasts will conclude the evening. This will be the first event of this nature to be given by the alumni Sigas of Missoula but it is understood that many more are to follow. The chapter was but recently organized.

Cosmos Club.
J. H. T. Ryman entertained the members of the Cosmos club in a most delightful manner on Monday evening. Mrs. C. A. Dunaway read a paper entitled "Reminiscences of Pompeii." The As-You-Like-It club was pleasantly entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. W. H. Bagby at her home at the Christian church parsonage. Mrs. L. A. Wicks read a very clever paper on "The Night Watch" by Rembrandt. "The Zouzouzes" read by Mrs. Sue Reinhard and discussed by the club members proved one of the most interesting papers of the year. Refreshments were served during the afternoon. Seventeen ladies were present.

SOUTH SIDE FIREMEN GIVE PLEASANT DANCE

The members of Missoula Volunteer Fire Company No. 2 were the hosts last night at an enjoyable and successful dance in the Elite hall. The affair was given as a benefit ball to raise funds with which to buy equipment for the south side station, and while the attendance was not all that could be desired, because of other attractions, a good crowd was present. The Missoula Club orchestra furnished the music and the floor could not have been better.

BANK CLOSES DOORS.
Oakland, Cal., April 13.—The Union National bank in this city closed its doors today. Special Bank Examiner Rorebeck has taken charge of the institution and will wind up its affairs. There is due to depositors the sum of $538,000, which amount the bank officials are confident will be paid in full. The failure will in no way affect the other banks in Oakland.

DEAD MAN IDENTIFIED.
Naples, April 12.—The young American who threw himself from a cliff at Torre Gaveta last Tuesday and was killed, has been identified as Ludwig Steinhilber of New York. A book found in the man's pocket contained the inscription, "I MacPherson Seattle."

A new organization of colored waiters and cooks has been formed in Boston.

PLAN FOR PUBLICITY DISCUSSED

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HOLDS INTERESTING BUSINESS SESSION.

There was an interesting meeting of the chamber of commerce last night, at which the chief feature was the receipt of the report of Dr. M. J. Elrod, who attended the publicity meeting at Helena as the representative of the chamber. Dr. Elrod's report was detailed and covered the work done at Helena in an appreciation that was interesting and that carried conviction of the beneficial character of the work that has been planned for the state publicity league. Professor Elrod announced that Secretary Erford had been selected at Helena as the Missoula county member of the executive committee of the state organization and that the plan adopted called for the selection of four men to act as a county board in connection with the state work. To act with Secretary Erford the chamber chose the following men: Chairman Curran of the county commissioners, Mayor-elect Logan, Dr. M. J. Elrod and A. L. Stone.

The committee appointed to interview the county commissioners relative to an appropriation for a county fair this year, the fair to be held in connection and to be a part of the annual apple show planned by the state horticultural society, reported that the commissioners had set aside $1,000 for this purpose and had named as an executive committee to handle the fund C. M. Allen, Peter Feddersohn, Peter Scheffer, R. M. Cobban and George Chirik. This report was received and the committee was discharged.

After a general discussion of the matter of local publicity work, it was decided to make an effort to raise a fund of $1,000 for the purpose of keeping Missoula properly advertised. This action was taken upon assurance being given that a number of business men had signified their willingness to participate in the formation of a fund for publicity purposes, this fund to be separate from the regular fund of the chamber, which is used for current expenses.

There was further discussion of the forthcoming interscholastic meet at the state university, which will open May 12. The committee already named to represent the chamber of commerce in co-operation with the university authorities was reminded of its duties.

The secretary read several communications, some of them relative to the publicity work of the chamber. One of those letters acknowledged receipt of a number of the Missoula booklets and complimented them highly, asking in conclusion for a couple of hundred of them.

On behalf of the Eagles, E. C. Mulrooney returned the $100 donation which the chamber of commerce made last year for the state convention of the Eagles, saying that it had not been needed and the lodge had decided to extend its thanks to the chamber and to hand back the money. This courteous action was accepted by the chamber.

GREAT EXCITEMENT

Special to The Daily Missoulian.
Hamilton, April 12.—It was only an unknown foreigner and, outside of being crazy, was all right. Still he managed to inaugurate a reign of terror that affected every prisoner in the Ravalli county jail and to create an alarm that involved half of the population of Hamilton. The foreigner had been locked up on general principles, and nothing much was thought of him until late this evening, when he awoke Sheriff Ward. A general alarm followed, the crazy man resisting all efforts to get him out of his dangerous position. Finally Mr. Bugs was clubbed into submission and removed to the lawn in front of the jail, where one-half of the crowd sat on him while the other half helped to put out the fire. There was little damage. Nothing is known about the cause of all the trouble, except that he is a foreigner and mighty crazy.

Notice.

"MARRYING MARY" TAKES WELL

FLORENCE GEAR IN CAHILLESQUE PLAY DELIGHTS MISSOULA AUDIENCE.

Once upon a time it was "Molly Moonshine" and Marie Cahill, now it is "Marrying Mary" and Florence Gear. At that there's not so much in the name of a show anyway and "Marrying Mary" and Florence Gear made just as much of a hit with a fair sized audience at the Barnols theater last evening as could "Molly Moonshine" and our friend with the embonpoint. There's a difference, it must be admitted, between the Gear woman and the Cahill person, but it isn't so great—not more than 50 pounds, anyway. "Marrying Mary" is a close call from visiting Missoula last year but the date was in early June and what happened about that time is still a painful memory. At that, it was for the best that the rains descended and the floods arrived ahead of schedule; Missoula saw a clever play in the more inspiring environment of a pretty theater.

Florence Gear's last appearance in Missoula is remembered with horror by her friends. "Cupid at Vassar" they called the vehicle Miss Gear affected last season and it was not at all fitted for her—or anybody else. In the Cahillesque—pipe the new word—play Miss Gear is at home, has plenty of opportunity to sing, dance and be altogether charming. She resembles our old friend Marie a great deal—in all but her voice. Miss Gear can sing. So can Marie Cahill, but not just the same way, you know. There's nothing so very great about "Marrying Mary," just a lot of comedy pieced together into an effective whole by interesting people and snappy songs, but the play went for Missoula's money. Yes, indeed.

HOTEL IS BURNING.

Asheville, N. C., April 14.—At 2 o'clock this morning fire broke out in the Kenilworth Inn, one of the most fashionable hotels in the south. The guests were aroused and as far as known all escaped safely. The fire was burning furiously at 3 a. m., and the destruction of the building seemed certain. The hotel was owned by Samuel M. Gazzam of Philadelphia, and cost $140,000.

A GOOD PROGRAM.

An interested audience heard the program given last evening by the Girls' English club of the Missoula county high school. "American Music" was the general subject of the program, special attention being paid to Composers MacDowell and Nevin. The program was successfully carried out as published yesterday morning.

STRIKE IS ENDED.

Port Hood, N. S., April 13.—The strike of coal miners at the Port Hood mines ended fruitlessly today, 350 miners who had been out for several weeks returning to work under conditions which were practically the same as those which existed previous to the strike.

EXPRESS OFFICIAL TELLS OF WRECK

E. S. AVERILL, WHO IS TO HAVE CHARGE OF LOCAL EXPRESS OFFICE, TALKS.

E. S. Averill, manager of the Continental Express company at Miles City, arrived in the city last night on No. 16 from the coast, where he has been spending the last 10 days. On his trip he visited Seattle, Tacoma, Ellensburg and other cities along the line, looking over the territory traversed by the Puget Sound road. The Wells-Fargo Express company, which will on May 1 take charge of the Continental Express company, will establish offices along the line of the Puget Sound road, and Mr. Averill will probably have charge of the Missoula end of the company, as has been announced previously.

Speaking of the wreck of No. 16 a few days ago at Bristol, Wash., Mr. Averill says that it was miraculous that only two lives, those of the engineer and fireman, were lost. The train, at the time of the accident, was running 40 miles an hour down hill along a curve. The engine, for some unknown cause, left the track, followed by the baggage car and a refrigerator car, and left the rest of the train standing on the track, although it was carried forward somewhat by its own momentum. A curious feature was the fact that the engine and wrecked cars left the rails and climbed the hill on the north, or uphill side, whereas, had they gone the other way, they would have gone into the river, which at that point flows at 12 or 14 miles an hour, and would have been covered within a short time with logs, which were floating in the stream. The refrigerator car was broken into kindling wood.
