CAUGHT ON THE RUN ABOUT TOWN

PEOPLE YOU KNOW AND SOME OF THE THINGS THEY DO AND SAY.

For the first time in his life, according to the best and most reliable testimony that can be dis-

DYNAMITE covered, Chief of Police Bill Smith was found himself with a box of dynamite on his hands and no place to put it.

It was an embarrassing situation, and the chief didn't know and doesn't know now what to do with the explosive.

He is used to handling dynamite, but he is shy on experience with dynamite. The result was that he was knocked completely off his perch yesterday when Fred Kreutzer of the street department brought to the police station at the city hall a box of dynamite with an assortment of caps, the whole having been found near the Cedar street bridge. The chief was warm in his commendation of the bravery of the street department in bringing up the stuff from its hiding place, so that it could do no harm, but he was just as loath in his denunciation of their lack of judgment in turning the explosive over to him. Police Judge Small refused to entertain a complaint against the dynamite, and the chief couldn't get it off his hands in that way; he tried to get the fire department to handle it, but Mr. May said he had no use for it in his City Clerk Kemp was emphatic in his refusal to have anything to do with the pasteboard sticks, and he threatened to call out the militia unless it was removed from his proximity in short order. City Treasurer Hatheway said he could use it in the collection of the occupation tax, but he didn't believe its use would be justified by law, so he passed it up. And that left the chief without a friend in the house. He was badly rattled as Sam Dawson, when he heard the burglars in his neighbor's store and forgot to shoot. "What did they want to bring it up here for?" he demanded. "What can I do with it? Why is it placed in my hands? I don't know anything about dynamite, and I refuse to have anything to do with it. You can't make me handle it. Take it away. Get it out of here. Hustle!" But there was not a hustle coming, and if there is anybody in town this morning who wants some dynamite the chief of police can supply the first caller who asks for it. There will be nothing left for the second man who calls. Come early and avoid the rush.

"There is nothing in our woodshed but pups," said John Hicklin yesterday morning. And from all accounts there was not. But there were seven of the finest Alshire youngsters that anybody ever saw, scrambling around there and a man who wanted anything else would be wanting too much. The little fellows are fine, and their owner is justly proud of them. There will be a formal christening soon, but the names have been practically decided upon already. They are Highland Lassie, Highland Mary, Bonnie Lassie, Tam O'Shanter, Bobby Burns, Jack and Scottie. The last bulletin from the Hicklin house last night was that all were doing well.

Ben Plummer was in the city yesterday and brought pleasant reports from Stevensville. "The valley is fine," said he. "The spring is a little late, and this morning some of the folks, but they are getting plenty of moisture, and that is more than enough to make up for the delay. There is not a thing wrong in the whole valley now. We are all satisfied and content and are looking forward to the best season that we have ever had. The indications are that the crop will be great; the acreage is bigger this year than it has ever been, and there is nothing that could be desired that we have not. We live in the best country on earth, and we are doing our best to make it a little better all the time."

Game Warden Avare came in from Butte yesterday noon and was joined at Bonita by Deputy AVARE is. Froman, who had been HERE NOW. Up Cramer creek to look at a dam. Mr.

Avare spent the afternoon here and went to Hamilton on the night train. While in the city Mr. Avare consulted with Deputies McCormick and Froman as to local conditions, and was interested in their reports of what they had been doing. The local wardens are busy; they have a long list of requests for their services and have been on the jump ever since they took office. Most of the work at present has to do with fish ladders in dams that are being constructed or have been finished.

Miss Romney, senator for Ravalli county, was a visitor in Missoula yesterday. He was busy

SENATOR all the time he was ROMNEY. here, and his presence in conference with Charles Cohen of Butte gave rise to the report that the two are going to locate in Missoula and engage in a newspaper. This report was not confirmed by either, and each of them returned to his home last night without saying whether it was correct or not.

The returns from the Methodist Sunday school Easter offering were announced yesterday. The collection was the largest ever made in the history of this Sunday school, and amounted to $434.44. The officers of the school were justly elated over the figures, and their expressed opinion last night was that they believed it would be a good thing if Easter came oftener or that its inspiration would last longer through the year. But the size of the offering is certainly justification for the pride which the officers feel in their work.

The last number in the university lecture course will be the appearance of Governor Johnson of Minnesota, who will

GOVERNOR Johnson, who will be in Missoula May 9.

This famous man will, of course, be accorded a reception that is worthy of his reputation. Dr. Elrod and Dr. Rowe of the university faculty are the business managers of the course, and they are kept busy with preparations for their closing number. "We want to make this the best of the season," said Dr. Elrod last night, "and we expect that the audience will be all that the presence of this famous man calls for. The course has been successful this year, and we have been much encouraged by the patronage. We are fortunate in being able to offer the public this last speaker; Governor Johnson is one of the great men of the country. I hope that he will have an audience that will fill the theater."

Ullie D. Richards surprised his Missoula friends yesterday by appearing in his midst again.

RICHARDS, who was cordially welcomed, came and had to answer about a thousand questions, most of which related to a mysterious black box that he carried. The box contained a model of a new cattle guard for railways in the manufacture of which Mr. Richards is affiliated, and he took pleasure in showing it and explaining how it worked. If you see Ullie coming today with the box, you need not be frightened; it is harmless.

Four Leaf Euchre Club.

The Four Leaf Euchre club was pleasantly entertained on Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Warren Wilcox at her home on University avenue. The fascinating game of "500" was played until half past three when an appetizing luncheon was served. After luncheon the card game was resumed until late in the afternoon. About twenty ladies were present.

Alumni "Sigs" Feast.

A happy crowd of college men enjoyed a banquet of the Missoula alumni chapter of the Sigma Chi fraternity at Ye Olde Inn last night; enjoyed the elaborate menu served and the remembrance of former days brought back for the women by the occasion. Among the banqueters were men who had graduated many years ago and men on whose diplomas the yellow of age had not yet begun its invasion, but—for the evening—all were of equal age and all enjoyed themselves to the utmost. The next meeting of the chapter will be held on the evening of May 13, when a convention with the chapter of the University of Montana, a banquet will be given at Ye Olde Inn in honor of the Sigma Chi expected to attend the interscholastic meet on Montana field.

Paul Madden, a young man who has been employed as night bell boy at the Florence hotel for some time past, was yesterday taken to St. Patrick's hospital, suffering from hernia. He was operated upon and will be on duty in a couple of weeks.

CRAZY MAN ARRESTED.

A Frenchman, who gave his name as Eli Zeren, and who claims to have been working in a railroad construction camp east of Missoula, was taken into custody at an early hour this morning by Patrolman Beeson, and is now at the city bastille.

The officer was called to the west yards by the operator, who said there was an insane man acting queerly about his shack, and went to the place on a switch engine, the ride being made necessary by the distance from town, the operator's office being located opposite the cemetery. The so-called crazy man was brought to town on the engine, and is probably in his right senses by this time. The officer thinks that too much "booze" put the man to the bad.

MISS CHAFIN WEDS HARRY L. BECK

MARRIAGE OF HAMILTON BELLE TO SPOKANE MAN IS SOCIETY EVENT.

Special to The Daily Missoulian.

Hamilton, April 14.—Miss Mary Elizabeth Chafin and Harry Leslie Beck were married here today at the Episcopal church, Rev. Walter Lennie Smith of Missoula conducting the ceremony. Mrs. S. D. Dudley of this city, the sister of the bride, was the matron of honor, while Misses Helen Hickey, Nora Harper, Nell Smith, Laura Goodrich, Myrtle Hawley and Mona Backus served as ushers. The bride was dressed in a beautiful gown of white embroidered chiffon and a veil with orange blossoms in her hair. On her head she wore a circlet of pearls centered with a diamond sunburst, and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. The matron of honor wore a gown of reseda green embroidered with pearls and carried Easter lilies. The ushers were gowned in white, with sashes of reseda green to match the gown of the matron of honor, and white Leghorn hats crowned with hyacinths. They also carried lilies. The church was decorated with asparagus ferns, potted plants and Easter lilies. Miss Clara Shannon played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The church was crowded with friends of the bride and groom, and after the ceremony delicious refreshments were served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Dudley, to about 20 of the intimate friends of the couple. Mrs. Beck is one of the most popular young women of Hamilton society, while the groom is a prominent business man of Spokane. Mr. and Mrs. Beck left tonight for Spokane, where they will make their home.

Knights to Dance.

One of the important events of the post-Lenten season is to be given this evening in Elsie hall under the auspices of Missoula chapter No. 1021, Knights of Columbus. The council has planned the ball carefully and it will be one of the most elaborate of the year. Dancing is to begin at 9 o'clock and music will be furnished by the Missoula Club orchestra.

Enjoyable Kensington.

Mrs. George Keith entertained a few of her friends on Tuesday afternoon at an enjoyable "Kensington" at her home on Spruce street. Needlework occupied the afternoon until 5 o'clock, when refreshments were served.

The seniors of the high school have begun active practice on their annual play, which is to be presented at the Harnois theater on May 4. They have secured Mrs. D. E. The University Glee club made its first appearance at yesterday's convocation, rendering several selections which were heartily enjoyed by the student body. The club has been practicing faithfully for the last two months under the direction of H. M. Burratt, and is now preparing a series of selections for interscholastic meet events.

In the absence of President Danilway, who is spending the week in the central part of the state inspecting high schools, Professor Aber presided at the convocation held yesterday. The usual number of announcements were made, and in addition to the selections of the glee club and orchestra, the musical organizations led the student body in singing several popular airs.

The University of Montana Alumni association held a meeting last night at the home of the president, Mrs. W. D. Harkings, on East Pine street. Nominations for officers for the ensuing year were made and other routine business transacted. Plans for the annual banquet of the association to be held during commencement week were discussed.

TONIGHT'S NEW BILL AT GRAND THEATER

Tonight's change of bill at the Grand brings to the notice of Missoula audiences two of the cleverest attractions that have been billed for this circuit. At the head of the list is Joe Page, the celebrated clay modeler, who is one of the European novelty performers brought to this country this season. His work is said to be remarkable, and he has evoked enthusiasm wherever he has appeared. Perhaps the most amusing and entertaining act that has been billed here this season is one that will be seen here for the first time tonight, the Sharrocks, comedy mindreaders, whose work is as mystifying as it is ridiculous. It has made one of the great hits this spring in western vaudeville circuits.

The Lyric.

"A Rose's Heart" is the name of a most marvellous picture displayed as the feature number of last evening's change of program at the Lyric. From a standpoint of clearness and beauty of subject it is perfect. "When Love Wills," "Parted, But United Again" and "The Woden Leg" are the names of other attractive pictures. E. Worth Crampton sang the illustrated song, "I'm Tired of Living Without You."

The Bijou.

The Bijou theater presented an entire change of program to its attenders last evening. The pictures shown combine drama, pathos and comedy in enjoyable fashion. "The Call of the Wind," a tale of the Indian as we know him and as he is known at Carlisle, was especially pleasing to those who saw it. "Too Much Dog Biscuit" and "A Cure For the Gout" are the laughter-provoking themes. The song, "She Waits By the Deep Blue Sea," was rendered by Ed Levasseur.

The Circus.
