

DEPOSED PRESIDENT IN FRANCE

CIPRIANO CASTRO LANDS AT ST. NAZAIRE AND MAY PROCEED TO PARIS.

St. Nazaire, France, April 23.—The steamer Versailles with Cipriano Castro, the deposed president of Venezuela, aboard, arrived here at daylight. Before Senor Castro left his cabin he sent for a newspaper correspondent and, sitting up in bed with a nightcap on his head, delivered a long and rambling harangue. His remarks were directed principally against the United States for "playing into the hands of his enemies in Venezuela and sending warships to follow his movements." He declared Venezuela was lost if the people submitted like slaves to foreign meddling. When asked regarding his future plans the deposed president said he had made none, as he considered himself a prisoner of war. When informed that the French government gave him full liberty he replied: "But I am not free if I desire to return to Fort De France and cannot. France should respect the rights of man proclaimed a century ago." In spite of his assertion that he did not know what he was going to do, it later became clear that Castro had planned to go to Paris. His baggage was taken ashore and placed on a train and he left at once for the capital. Passengers on the Versailles said that when Castro was brought on board the steamer at Fort De France he declared that if he had been allowed to make his way to Venezuela, he would soon have raised an army to overthrow his enemies.

SOUNDS A WARNING TO PUBLIC

STATE VETERINARIAN DOES NOT WANT MONTANA TO BECOME A DUMPING GROUND.

Helena, April 23.—M. E. Knowles, state veterinarian, is in receipt of advice concerning the slaughter of diseased animals in this state, and in connection therewith has issued a warning to Canadian settlers. "This is a matter which should be given the widest publicity," he said today. "The situation is this: The state of Montana permits shipments of horses and cattle through the state en route to Canada without requiring federal inspection prior thereto. In recent months, however, such shipments from Idaho, Wyoming, Oregon and Washington have been refused admittance at the Canadian line by inspectors and they have been turned back into this state. "The livestock sanitary board has had them slaughtered, and, of course, at the expense of the shippers. Today, I have advice of such treatment for four horses shipped from Idaho Falls. To prevent such treatment, shippers should first have their animals inspected by federal authorities or a recognized veterinarian for the Canadian laws are quite strict, and Montana cannot afford to become a dumping ground for diseased stock—either cattle or horses."

TWO TRAMPS KILLED.

NO HIGHER TARIFF IS WANTED

WOMEN SUPPORT DEMAND FOR NO INCREASE ON COTTON STOCKINGS.

New York, April 23.—Supporting the senate committee in calling for no higher tariff tax on cotton stockings which all Americans must buy, an army of 500,000 women is organized and waiting for final action at Washington in this city today. Headed by officers of the Federation of Women's clubs and the wives of many prominent New Yorkers, thousands of stenographers and shop girls are joining with the housewives and mothers of this town to uphold the recommendations of the senate that the duties on these stockings be not raised for the sole benefit of a few manufacturers. With the men of the labor and trade organizations here, these women declare that another trust in an every day necessity will be created, if congress should fail to accept the just judgment of its committee of senators. That the working men and women in every section of this country are commending the senate proposal to do away with the additional tariff tax on stockings which the house was led to put in the Payne bill, is shown by reports which have been today received at the headquarters of this movement here. In striking out the proposed increase in duty against cotton stockings where no higher tariff on the silk stockings of the wealthy was called for, the senate committee has saved the measure from becoming rank class legislation according to the consumers who are communicating to this city the sentiment of the people in their localities. Millions of constituents today stand ready to back up this decision if it is questioned further in congress or in conference committee, they declare. To enrich and give a monopoly to one single family of manufacturers of the kind of stockings that all Americans buy, would be the sole object of any move to shut out foreign competition. It is asserted by experts in the dry goods trade to whom the labor men and club women have appealed for information. From an annual output of $27,232,816 in 1900 domestic stocking manufacturers have extended their business till in 1908 they produced and sold over $55,000,000 worth of stockings, according to their own statement. While they could adjust themselves to meet the conditions which these manufacturers have tried to have congress impose, the dry goods retailers declare, it would be the $8,000,000 consumers of the United States who must constantly buy stockings who would be made to pay tribute to this trust. Instead of the stockings which everybody can now buy for a quarter, inferior goods must be bought under the higher tariff it is assured, or considerable advance in retail prices must be paid by the consumers. Constant vigilance must be kept up by the American army of consumers until the tariff bill is made law, it is declared; for the danger of another Payne joker against hosiery is imminent.

PLANS TO ESTABLISH A BIG PAPER MILL

Spokane, April 23.—W. H. Goodenough of Hamilton, Ohio, who recently sold a large paper plant at Appleton, Wis., announced at a meeting of the board of trustees of the Spokane Chamber of Commerce that he has come to Spokane to co-operate with C. B. Frie, hydraulic expert of the Chicago, Milwaukee & Puget Sound Railway company, in his efforts to establish a paper mill in this city. He said: "I believe with the co-operation of the chamber of commerce and the people of Spokane that the paper making industry can be made an important one in this part of the northwest. We shall build and operate a plant here. The people of Spokane are throwing away daily a large amount of material that could be used in paper making. This is a waste and should be stopped. "The paper mills of the east ship thousands of cars of paper annually to the Pacific coast, and there is no reason why we should not have some of this business. The resources are here; in fact, you have the best materials required to manufacture the finished product right here in Spokane. "Cottonwood, of which you have large quantities in your forests nearby, makes excellent paper, and in addition to this you have many other varieties of woods that can be used extensively in paper making."

Attempt to Secure Woman's Evidence. Mercer, Pa., April 23.—An attempt was made today by District Attorney J. M. Lininger to have Mrs. James H. Boyle testify before the grand jury. She was taken from the jail to the grand jury room. When her counsel, former Judge Miller, heard of it, he rushed to the room and instructed her to refuse to say a word. She followed his instructions. Mr. Lininger then went before Judge Williams and asked that the woman be committed for contempt. Judge Williams said it was too serious a matter to decide without having it fully argued, but ruled that neither Boyle nor his wife could be compelled to testify until he decided the question.
