

East Spruce Street Home $2,750

I am offering this morning a nice little investment that will pay better than 10 per cent and is in line for a rapid increase in value, besides being a neat home. This is a five-room modern house, in good condition, on a 30x150-foot lot; good barn; located close in to Higgins avenue, on East Spruce street; rents for $25 per month. This is certainly a great, big bargain.

EXPERTS TAKE PART IN SHOOT

BOA AND HOLOHAN ARE PARTICIPANTS IN EVENT OF MISSOULA GUN CLUB.

The members of the Missoula Gun club held a shoot yesterday at the club grounds. The shoot was attended by two of the best shots in this neck of the woods, Boa of Salt Lake, and Holohan, of Twin Falls, Idaho. Both of these gentlemen were in good form and via some fast work. The first event was a practice shoot at 10 birds, the score being as follows: Boa, 19; Holohan, 19; Montgomery, 7; Woody, 8; Baker, 9; Feldman, 8; Stephens, 8; Steinbrenner, 8; Hickey, 8.

The second shoot, for the Stewart medal, at 15 birds, was as follows: Boa, 13; Montgomery, 12; Woody, 14; Baker, 12; Feldman, 11; Holohan, 14; Stephens, 13; Steinbrenner, 12; Hickey, 13.

The most interesting event of the day was the shoot for triples, 24 birds. Most of the club members took part in this, along with Boa and Holohan. Larry Stephens made a record that will hold good for a while by making 21 out of a possible 24.

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENT.
The funeral of John Smith, the man found dead in bed at Smith's siding several days ago, will be held this morning at 10 o'clock from Laura's new chapel, Rev. J. N. Maclean of the Presbyterian church officiating. Burial will be in Missoula cemetery.

BROTHER IS COMING.
Word has been received from a brother of John P. McMahon, the man who dropped dead at Harper & Baird's sawmill several days ago, that he is on the way from California to make arrangements for his brother's funeral.

MISSIONS IS THEME OF ADDRESS

MISS CARRIE O. MILLSAUGH GIVES INSPIRING TALK AT BAPTIST CHURCH.

Miss Carrie O. Millsaugh of Portland is superintendent of missions for the northwest and represents the Women's Baptist Home Mission society of the west, occupied the pulpit at the Baptist church yesterday morning, delivering an address on missions and mission projects, a continuation of the addresses which have been heard at that church during the past week. Miss Millsaugh's talk yesterday was an inspiring one, and supplied a vision and an understanding scarcely presented at the earlier meetings. The speaker has been in the work for many years and is thoroughly conversant with its every detail. Miss Millsaugh spoke on Cornelius watching the appearance of the angels, and quoted from that biblical incident, "Pray more and give more that thine urns may come up for a memorial before God." She urged with insistence that every Christian pray for restoration to the service of the Master, quoting instances of the success of the mission work being carried on in this country in the training schools in the Japanese quarters of the Pacific coast towns, the missionary work among the young people and in the many benevolent institutions all over the land.

The following poem by Miss Millsaugh is taken from the Pacific Baptist, and was written only a few weeks ago for that publication. The poem is entitled "Where Are the Nine?"

"There were ten who were cleansed by the Master
In the days of the long, long ago,
When He walked on the earth with His people,
All His riches of grace to bestow.
There were ten bathsome lepers who met Him
As He passed through that land by the sea;
There were ten who cried "Jesus, have mercy,"
There were ten who were cleansed and set free.

"There was one of that number, a stranger,
A Samaritan, hated, despised,
Whose glad heart was so filled with thanksgiving
That he cried, while men listened, surprised:
To Thee, Lord, be all glory and honor,
For the Kingdom and power are Thine,
As is Thine all the praise everlasting,
As is Thine all I ever called mine."

"With the Master, with tender compassion,
But with heart that was heavy with grief
For the sins of the thoughtless and thankless,
For the souls crying still for relief,
Said: Thy faith, son, hath brought thee this blessing,
For the healing is only a sign;
There were ten that were cleansed for like purpose;
There were ten, but where now are the nine?"

"Still our Master is healing and helping,
Not one child but may clearly be led
By His hand: He is gracious and loving,
With His bounty we daily are fed,
Are ye grateful for mercies unnumbered
That we take from the Master divine,
Or must He still be saying in sorrow,
"There were ten cleansed; where now are the nine?"

OPEN AIR CONCERT PLEASING TO MANY
With the weather all that could be desired and an audience of several hundred, the Missoula Eagle band gave another delightful concert in its series of open air matinees. The band occupied chairs in the middle of Higgins avenue, between the Hammond and First National bank blocks, the walk on each side of the street for a number of blocks being crowded. Several selections were rendered by the band, each one being heartily applauded.

The Missoula Eagle band will furnish the music at the Elite hall to-night, the occasion being the second annual May ball of the organization. The floor will be in the best of shape and the music will be furnished by the whole band. A large crowd is expected to be present.

OPTOMETRIST.
Means a person licensed under the laws of this state to test eyesight and fit glasses.
Five years in Missoula and not a dissatisfied patient.
More headaches cured by removing eye strain than any other optometrist in Montana. More cross-eyes straightened with more permanent results than all traveling opticians in the state combined. I am in my office every day in the year to make good all my claims and promises. Lenses ground by the most modern optical house in the United States, no amateur "ground while you wait" work being turned out.

No less than 10 "eye specialists" have "permanently" located in Missoula during my stay here, all of whom have misfitted some of you and departed.
My equipment is perfect, experience long, methods modern and satisfaction given in every case.
