"Mud" was about yesterday and received cordial greetings from all the friends who had missed him the day before. "I IS HAPPY," said the county attorney, which was strange considering that it was his wedding journey. "We were splendidly received and had every attention possible shown us at Washington, where we spent several days. Senators Carter and Dixon were especially courteous. I had the pleasure of meeting President Taft, who spoke very kindly of Missoula and of his interest in our city. He is a wonderful man; he compels you to like him before he has spoken a dozen words. I have always admired him, but I think more of him now than ever. There was much that was of interest in Washington, but all else became insignificant when I had met the president; he is a big man in every way, big physically and a giant mentally. In New York we had a pleasant time. I happened to be in a broker's office watching the ticker when the announcement was clicked off that two new railway lines are to be built north from Missoula. That made me feel good. Missoula is attracting a great deal of attention, even as far east as New York; you hear it talked of on the trains as you come westward, and I found that we are well known and very well appreciated. I am glad to be home again; the town has grown some since I have been gone, and I am confident that it will keep on growing for a long time. I find a good deal of business on my desk, and I expect to grow with the town now that I am anchored here."

The Harnois smile was very apparent yesterday afternoon; the cause of this latest outbreak was found in a letter which Uncle Charlie pulled out of his coat pocket as he entered The Missoulian office in the late afternoon. The letter was from John Cort, and read this way: "Dear Mr. Harnois—Relative to 'The Girl Question' and the amount of business done by each town, as per Harry Askin's advice, I am pleased to state that your house gave him third best receipts for a one-night stand over the circuit, namely $1,028. Boise City being first with $1,286.25 and Great Falls second with $1,055. I am sending you under separate cover by express today a watch fob, the third prize, the receipt of which please acknowledge to Mr. Harry Askin, Grand opera house, Chicago, Ill." The letter was signed by John Cort and the express brought the fob with the letter. Mr. Harnois has the satisfaction of knowing that he beat 110 towns and ran second to but two. When the piece was presented here it came in the midst of one of those bunched-up strings of good plays which sometimes come in a single week or the Harnois would have secured the first money. But Uncle Charlie is satisfied.

BEFORE JUDGE SMALL.
A jury in Justice Small's court has decided the case of the city against Frank Smith, who was accused of running his automobile without a number and without registration, in favor of the defendant. The charge was preferred by E. C. Betts.
Yesterday Justice Small sentenced M. Carlo, alleged to be a "vagrant" of the most detestable class, to pay a fine of $50 and to leave town. Carlo is gone.

INFANT ENTERTAINERS MAKE "HIT" AT GRAND

"Say, ain't they just the cutest ever?" was the sincere, if unpolished, tribute paid by a member of the Grand's second audience last evening to the turn of Lillian and Joseph King, whose juvenile act is the best ever brought to a Missoula playhouse. The two King children, they are only 6 and 8 years of age, are surely remarkable, their number on the program of the Grand last evening was enthusiastically applauded—until it seemed as if the audience just would not let the little entertainers leave the stage.
The Musical Kingsburys have a musical act that is the peer of anything ever shown at the Grand. A lot of clean and clever comedy rounds the act out in fine shape, and the Kingsburys were favorites last night, just as they undoubtedly will be for the remainder of the week. The Herbert O'Connor comedy sketch is another feature of the Grand's new program, and is just as good and water-tight as the others, and the entire bill is unquestionably one of the best ever shown in this city. The motion pictures and the illustrated song are well up to the standard.

VOCAL RECITAL WILL BE PLEASING

APPEARANCE OF MRS. JANE CATHERWOOD AT BAPTIST CHURCH AN EVENT.
The vocal recital to be given by Mrs. Jane Catherwood at the Baptist church on Tuesday evening, May 25, will be a charming and pleasing program. Mrs. Catherwood is a finished singer and gives her songs with true artistic feeling and that peculiar touch but few are able to give, except those who have had years of training and have the proper temperament. The Cedar Rapids Evening Gazette says: "Mrs. Catherwood received an ovation. The great range, beauty and flexibility of her voice were never shown to better advantage than her artistic rendering of the varied compositions on the program."
The Independence (Iowa) Bulletin reports: "Mrs. Catherwood has a pure-toned, pleasing voice, exquisitely cultivated."
Admission has been placed at only 50 cents per ticket and a large audience is assured.

SAM HUGHES SHOTS HIMSELF

MAN KNOWN IN MISSOULA COM-MITS SUICIDE IN SEATTLE WHILE DERANGED.

Word was received here yesterday of the suicide in Seattle, Tuesday night, of Sam E. Hughes, an employee of the Seattle Water company, who resided at 126 Erie avenue. Worrying over imaginary troubles, debts and poor health is believed to have caused the man to become temporarily insane. After expressing his intentions to his wife and other members of the family he went to the city, despite all protests that could be brought to bear. The authorities were notified and shortly after found his dead body in the water company's office, where he had shot himself with a revolver through the head. Mr. Hughes had threatened to do away with himself a number of times within the last few years. About six years ago he took poison in Great Falls but was discovered in time to be resuscitated.
He leaves a wife, Mrs. Lora Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper M. Wood of this city, a sister to Leslie E. Wood of Missoula and Mrs. Elmer E. Woodman of Tacoma. Mrs. Hughes is well known in Missoula, where she has lived at various periods during the past five years. She is just recovering from a severe illness, and it is feared that the shock may seriously affect her condition. Her father and mother are with her, they having been visiting in Seattle and Tacoma for several months.
Mr. Hughes' remains will be buried in Seattle, the funeral to be under the auspices of the Odd Fellows' lodge, of which he was a member.
He is known to many residents of Missoula, where he has visited on several occasions.
During 25 years of asbestos production, Canada, which leads the world in the output of the mineral, has produced over $20,000,000 worth.

LADIES OF G. A. R. GIVE DANCE

ENJOYABLE PARTY IS TENDERED TO FRIENDS BY PHIL SHERIDAN CIRCLE.

The members of the Phil Sheridan circle of the Ladies of the G. A. R. were hostesses last night at a pleasant dance in Ellie hall. This was the first dance to be given by the order locally, as it was but recently organized in this city. A jolly crowd attended and danced until a late hour. The hall was attractively decorated, and appropriately, with American flags throughout, the emblems of the country being hung in fans and festoons and banners on the walls, the whole presenting a simple, but effective, scheme of decoration.
The decorating was done and the arrangements were made by a committee composed of Mesdames Ralph Melony, Margaret Hutchinson, Ella McCullough, Kate Sharp and Bernice Franklin.

Van Patten-Moore Announcement.
In the Monday, May 17, issue of the Davenport (Iowa) Democrat is the following announcement, one of which great interest attaches itself for Missoula society:
Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Moore of Le Claire street announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Lillian Moore, and Lloyd H. Van Patten of Missoula, Mont., which will take place at St. John's M. E. church the evening of Wednesday, June 9, at 8:30 o'clock. The ceremony will be performed by Dr. J. A. Burch. Miss Moore has not yet announced her wedding party, but a reception and supper will follow the ceremony at the church, being held at the home of the bride, where relatives and a few intimate friends will be entertained.
The young people will leave for a wedding trip and their future home in the west the same evening. The bride is one of the popular young persons of the city and has sung at St. John's church as soloist, where her sweet voice has won her many admirers. She is a Davenport girl, having spent practically all her life in this city with the exception of some 24 months at Missoula, where she was soloist in the church choir. Mr. Van Patten is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Van Patten, former residents of Davenport, who removed to Missoula two years ago. He is connected with the Missoula Mercantile company, and will take his bride to a pretty home in that city.
The announcement of the wedding was made at an afternoon tea of Saturday at the home of the bride, where 14 girl friends were entertained. The wedding colors of pink and white found expression in the menu and in the daintily colored candies and shades that ornamented white they lighted the table of the dining room. One of the guests made a most acceptable fortune teller, and prophesied good luck and future happiness for the different guests. A number of pre-nuptial honors will be accorded the bride-elect later by friends.

Goldenrod Club.
The Goldenrod club will meet this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Orr in South Missoula.

Church Supper and Sale.
The Ladies' Aid society of the Orchard Homes church will hold an apron sale and supper at the chapel this afternoon.

Auxiliary to O. E. S.
The auxiliary to the Order of the Eastern Star will be entertained by Mrs. Frank Cannon at her home, 122 South Fifth street, this afternoon.

BITTER ROOT RANCHER DIES NEAR HAMILTON

Special to The Daily Missoulian.
Hamilton, May 20.—John E. Middle-ton died at his ranch home three miles west of Hamilton at 11 o'clock this morning, his death being caused by a complication of diseases and following an illness of seven days. He was born in Kansas 41 years ago, and has been a resident of Montana for the past eight years. Two years ago he came to the Bitter Root. He is survived by a wife and brother, the latter a physician of Kansas City. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from the residence, Rev. Father Carr officiating.

WHAT THEY SAY

Deputy Game Warden Froman—"It seems to me that there are being more licenses to hunt and fish being taken out now than ever before in Missoula. Of course, the law now says that you've got to have a license to fish, but even without that provision it appears to me there are more people buying hunting licenses than ever before."
C. Polson—"No, there are not many wigs in Missoula. I know of only a few men who wear 'em, but there isn't a bald-headed man in Helena. There's where you find your wigs. Two or three years ago a barber imported a great lot of them, and did a land office business."
Mrs. A. Jones—"I'm awful glad they've taken those horrid cists from the approaches to the temporary bridge. I can wheel the baby carriage up now without tiring myself out, and I guess I'm not the only one that will tell you the same thing."
