The big birthday cake of the Golden Rule store looms up in the show window of that store in BIG CAKE. It weighs 250 pounds and the number of eggs and the amount of sugar and the sacks of flour that entered into the composition of this splendid specimen of the baker's art are all so vast in their size that the reader is referred to the placards in the window of the store, where the complete details of the construction are set forth. It is a big cake and there has been nobody yet who contradicts the assertion that it is the biggest cake ever built in Missoula. Fortunately this big cake is to be cut into small pieces, so there will be no chance for any small boy to overload on it. It has been constructed in honor of the birthday—the thirtieth—of the Golden Rule store and there are so many friends of this establishment that the cake, immense as it is will not be in very large bits when it has been cut up fine enough to give one piece to each of them. It was a happy idea, this cake, and it has attracted a lot of attention to the fact that the store is getting to be an old resident. There have been many warm commitments paid to the store upon the occasion of the happy event which it is celebrating in this unique manner. The sale which commemorates the occasion starts off with a degree of energy that indicates the number of friends which the store has in town.

It was not possible to find Jim Rhoades at his office for more than a minute at a time yesterday and when you did find him, all he could say was: "She's a daisy." Mr. Rhoades referred to his new 40-horsepower Buick automobile. He spent the day trying it out and put it to every test he could think of except jumping a ditch. That trial he has deferred till later. But he is satisfied that he has the best wheel that ever was and he enjoyed the day thoroughly. There will be a whizz in the real estate business now that this machine is in commission.

J. E. Totman came down from Hamilton yesterday morning and spent the day in Missoula. ANOTHER FINE ONE. Mr. Totman can tell what is the best automobile in the world and he will do so if you ask him. He told a Missoulian yesterday and, as it was not told in confidence, it will do no harm to tell that it is the new Winton. Mr. Totman never makes a statement which he is not willing and able to back up, so there can be no doubt whatever that he is right when he says the Winton is the best. "I'm coming down one of these days with the machine," said Mr. Totman yesterday. "I was not in a hurry to day so I came by train. But when I get here with the new machine you will all know that there is something doing."

Game Warden Avare came over from Helena yesterday on an official visit with his deputies. He had a long chat with Messrs. Froman and McCormick and, with them, visited the offices of the forestry bureau, the field men of which are all deputy game wardens. "Missoula seems busier every time I come over here," said Mr. Avare last night to a Missoulian man. "There is not another town in the state where there are so many people on the streets, moving about and all seeming busy, as there are here. It is good to get over here and see the stir that you have. I find things going on very well in our department; the deputies here seem to be keeping busy."

Frank Smith went up to Darby yesterday morning and came back in the afternoon, making the round trip in good time. "It was a pleasant trip," said he last night, "and the roads were better than they have been in a long time. Above Corvallis they had had a lot of rain and there was some mud, but this side of Corvallis the going was fine."

Pat Griffin was down yesterday from the upper Blackfoot, having made the drive down the SNOW IS ALL GONE. river without colliding with a surveying party. It requires good driving to do that and there were times when it seemed that it would be necessary to run over a few of the railway surveyors in order to get through to Missoula; the last one was dodged successfully; but they are mighty thick. "The valley is fine," said Mr. Griffin, "and the snow is all gone, even back against the hills. The grass is coming on finely and the stock has all come through the winter in good shape."

INTERESTING EVENT IS RECITAL

MRS. JANE CATHERWOOD TO APPEAR TONIGHT IN SONG PROGRAM AT BAPTIST CHURCH.

Tonight at 8:30 o'clock promptly will begin the recital by Mrs. Jane Catherwood, at the Baptist church, Spruce and Harris streets. This will be one of the most interesting musical events of the year. Mrs. Catherwood has a pure soprano of pleasing quality, with a natural gift of the coloratura, adding to this, with most careful preparation and study, the best songs, giving a charming, interesting and instructing program.

Mrs. Blanche Whitaker will be at the piano, and will greatly aid to the interest of the occasion. Mrs. Catherwood will also be assisted by Miss Thina Toole, who will give two violin solos. Miss Toole is one of Missoula's most accomplished artists on the violin, and her numbers will be greatly enjoyed. A large audience is assured. The program is as follows:

TOLAN TO DELIVER COMMENCEMENT TALK

The senior class of the Missoula high school has announced its plans for the coming commencement exercises. The selection of a speaker had been left to the members of the graduating class, and after a long discussion they decided upon John H. Tolan of Anaconda, who has consented to deliver the commencement address. Mr. Tolan, who, by the way, is about to locate in the city, is an orator of well-known rank, and has appeared many times before in Missoula. He has won an enviable reputation as a lawyer, having served as county attorney of Deer Lodge county and having been a candidate for state attorney general in the last election. The graduating exercises will come off on Friday, June 4, and the rest of the program will be announced later.

It was also announced yesterday that the regular class day program would be given next Friday, May 28. This afternoon at the high school the last of the graduating essays will be given. Fifteen of the class have already given their orations, and the four speakers who will appear this afternoon will be the last. The speakers today and their subjects will be as follows:
"Alexander Pope," by Miss Bessie Hollenbeck.
"Sargent and His Work," by Miss Leila McDonald.
"Nebelungen Lied," by Miss Marie Lebkueher.
"Man and Warfare," by Carl Cameron.
