SITUATION IMPROVES IN ASIATIC TURKEY

Mersina, Asiatic Turkey, May 21.—(Sunday)—The situation at Adana, the scene of general rioting during the recent anti-Christian outbreaks in Asiatic Turkey, has shown definite improvement in the last four days. The commission of investigation is busily occupied. A considerable number of Moslems are in prison, but they do not include men of important position. The Rev. Herman Gibbons of Hartford, Conn., a missionary of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, has testified before the commission of the killing of Armenians at government headquarters.

What Others Think

When the Empire lands in California were first advertised for sale, Mr. Claus Jacobson and several other well-known Missoula people each made application for a 2 1/2-acre tract. Their intention was to pay cash for the land, but as Mr. Jacobson was then planning a trip to California they decided to delay full settlement pending a report on their investment by their co-purchaser. Yesterday a telegram came from Mr. Jacobson, expressing his appreciation of the land: "The asking price here is fine, it was the way he put it; the weather is better, but the land is best. Pay up!" His friends here are now thinking seriously of adding to their previous purchases and some of them will unquestionably do so. A friend's word is good. They are satisfied that their money is well placed.

"THERE'S A REASON!"
