GOOD CIGARS

Within certain limits, there is a chance for a difference of opinion as to whether cigars are good or not. No one brand is sure to suit everybody, but there are certain brands which come pretty near it and this is the kind we endeavor to keep. In our opinion at least, we have the best assortment of cigars in the city and shall be glad at any time to have the opinion of smokers who are not already familiar with our line. One thing is certain, that we always pay enough to get good brands and are quite sure that we get what we pay for.

CAUGHT ON THE RUN ABOUT TOWN

"Missoula people do not appear to realize what this period of registration means," said Chauncey Woodworth yesterday. "If they do, they are sitting back and waiting too long for somebody else to do what they should be doing right now. I have been intimately connected with one registration and have known more or less about others. I was present during the period of registration at Provo last year and I studied carefully the rosters which the Utah city made for the crowds. The visitors were well cared for; the work was in the hands of committees of the chamber of commerce and it was well done. There were many things done there that Missoula would do well to copy. In the matter of sleeping quarters, the committee of the chamber of commerce had a list of all the rooms in the city that were available at 50 cents a night for each guest and when the hotels were filled transients were sent around to these places. These rooms in private families were reserved for women for the most part. There were many tents in a camp that was made in a vacant block in the city. These tents were the largest that could be obtained. In some of them there were 10 or 12 cots and in others there were 10 times that many. The cots were equipped with blankets; there were no sheets. Those cots were sold for 50 cents a night. At these camps the city erected sheds in which were lavatories and closets, connected with the city sewers so as to make the arrangements sanitary. All these arrangements were made well in advance. For the feeding of the crowds, tents and booths and large sheds were erected by private parties, in most cases the church societies. At these places it was possible to get a good meal for 35 cents. I inquired of the women of one church society how the work was managed; she told me that the cooks and kitchen help were hired; the waiters were volunteers; the women taking turns at working a day at a time. The food was all bought except the pastry, which was made by the women themselves and brought to the dining places. In this way these church societies cleaned up handsome profits and, at the same time, gave the visitors good meals. These are some of the things that Missoula has to think of and prepare for at once. There are other details which I would be glad to go into with those who take up the matter, but I think it would be well to place this much before the public now. There should be a start made at once or Missoula will suffer greatly. The city cannot afford to have this arrangement work go by default."

GILBERT LECTURES ON ITALY

NOTED TRAVELER TALKS ON ITALIAN LIFE AND ON SICILIAN EARTHQUAKE.

Taking as his subject "Italy and Italian Life" and dwelling particularly upon the recent Sicilian earthquake, of which he has a first-hand knowledge, having been the first American to visit the stricken country after the disaster, Professor Warren E. Gilbert, lecturer and photographer, entertained a rather small sized audience at the Harmon theater last night. Professor Gilbert's lecture was interesting from start to finish; he has a thorough knowledge of the country and the people of which he talked, and his lecture was full of valuable and interesting detail. The principal feature of the lecture was, of course, the description of the Messina earthquake. Professor Gilbert has a large collection of views of the country, taken immediately after the shock, and the fact that he was a personal observer of all the horrors which his photographs revealed made his talk extremely entertaining. After he had thoroughly described the city of Messina before and after the quake, Professor Gilbert shifted to the mainland and devoted himself to a description of the different Italian cities. Rome, Naples and the two ruined cities of Pompeii and Herculaneum each received its share of attention and the talk was illustrated with beautiful stereopticon views. A large delegation of the Knights of Columbus, of which society Mr. Gilbert is a prominent member, attended the lecture.

SON OF FAMOUS FREAK KILLED BY LIGHTNING

Winston, Salem, N. C., June 12.—Jesse Bunker, a deaf mute, youngest son of Chango, one of the Siamese twins, was killed by lightning yesterday in his tobacco barn in Surrey county. He and his son and workman took shelter in a barn during a rain storm. Bunker's hat and shoes were torn to pieces, but the body was not bruised or mutilated. The son and the workman were knocked senseless, remaining in this condition for an hour or more. Bunker was 48 years old and prosperous. He was intelligent and entertaining and enjoyed conversing with his friends through the medium of pencil and paper. The Siamese twins married Virginia women. Their sons have all been well-to-do and prosperous. The peculiar inheritance of deafness was an affliction that added an additional strangeness to the family. The mate was bright and quick of wit, though in each branch of the family there seems to have been more or less a freak of nature. The older boys of the Chango family have gone into other sections.

To test the purity of coffee, pour cold water on it. If the water assumes a brownish hue, the coffee undoubtedly contains chicory.

The tender leaves and small ends of the stalks of celery should never be thrown away. If dried they are found excellent for flavoring soups.

Fingers stained by peeling juicy fruits may be quickly cleaned with strong tea, mixed in well with a nail brush. They should then be rinsed in warm water.

An excellent furniture cream is made thus: Finely shred one ounce of ordinary beeswax, half an ounce of white wax, half an ounce of Castile soap. Mix gradually with half a pint of turpentine and half a pint of boiling rainwater.

CHINK STOWAWAYS ARE FOUND IN STEAMER.

Seattle, June 13.—Immigration officials, after picking up on the wharf a stray Chinese who admitted that he came over a stowaway on the Great Northern liner Minnesota, searched the vessel yesterday and discovered nine more smuggled coolies and a quantity of silk and cigars. Inspector C. E. Keagy stepped into the sail locker of the steamer and fell 20 feet through a hole in the floor, alighting squarely on top of nine naked Chinese lying in the hold of the ship.

If cake browns immediately on being put into the oven, the oven is too hot. It can be cooled quickly by lifting a lid from the top of the stove. A piece of asbestos paper on the oven shelf will protect the top of the cake from burning.

To clarify vinegar and even muddy wine, pour into a bottle of it half a teaspoonful of fresh, sweet milk and let the whole mixture stand for 24 hours. As the sediment will settle to the bottom with the curdled milk, the clear liquid remains on top.

Early rising means practically a whole day's work done before noon, a consideration that hot weather makes desirable.
