SUGAR TARIFF ABANDONMENT A STIRRING SUBJECT TO BE SOLE ISSUE

LIVELY DEBATE IS PARTICIPATED IN BY BRISTOW, CLAPP, ALDRICH AND LODGE.

PROVISIONS CRITICISED COURT MAKES A RULING

Measures Prescribing a Duty on Sugar Sent into the Philippines Equal to That on the Article Brought into the United States and Providing an Exemption Are Attacked.

Decision Sweeps Away Several Notable Phases of the Case, Including Wife's Charges of Cruelty and Non-support—Matter of Indulgence in Intoxicants Is Still Open, However.

Washington, June 14.—Sugar was the stirring subject before the senate today. It was brought to the front in connection with the consideration of the finance committee's substitute for the provision of the tariff bill...

New York, June 14.—Abandonment will be the sole issue upon which rests the suit for separation brought by Catherine Clemons Gould against her husband, Howard Gould...

Senator Bristow criticised both provisions and his colleagues opened the way for a general debate between Bristow and Clapp on one side, and Aldrich and Lodge on the other.

As to the charge of abandonment, the court held that this too might not stand unless the plaintiff was able to show that Howard Gould's stipulations for reconciliation were unreasonable.

The only vote taken during the day's session was an amendment by Mr. Bristow admitting sugar into the Philippines free of duty. It was lost, 11 to 49.

Refrerring to the abandonment charge, he said Howard Gould left his wife in July, 1906, but offered to return on perfectly reasonable terms.
