We are selling farms every day near Missoula. People are beginning to realize that this is THE town of the northwest, and they can make no mistake by buying land tributary to Missoula, and the land is not expensive at this time, compared with farms further up the valley. We have some beautiful orchard tracts within a radius of twenty miles of Missoula that can be bought for modest sums. Talk about opportunity, it is knocking every day at your door. Come up in the office and run over our farm list. I can show you some wonderful bargains, ranging in price from one thousand to twenty thousand dollars.
