CAUGHT ON THE RUN ABOUT TOWN. S. A. Cordz, who has this week retired from the active management of the Golden Rule store, which he has conducted with such conspicuous success for years, will not leave Missoula. Talking yesterday with a Missoulian man, Mr. Cordz said that his plans for the future do not contemplate his departure from the city. "Why should I leave Missoula?" asked Mr. Cordz as a reply to the query that had been fired at him. "I like Missoula and have had a pleasant and fairly successful life since I came to make the city my home. My friends are here and my home is here. I have worked hard during the years that I have been here and I can see no reason for keeping it up any longer. It is not right for a man to keep grinding all the time and I am simply going to take life a little more easily than I have been doing. Missoula will remain my home; there is everything to keep me here and no reason at all why I should seek other residence." This announcement is pleasant news to the personal and business friends of Mr. Cordz, who will be glad that he is going to stay here.

Another Missoula man has announced his plans for a change and on July 5 Tom Stephenson will retire from the local management of the Northern Pacific Express company to enter the brokerage business for himself. Mr. Stephenson resigned his position several weeks ago and had expected to be relieved, according to his request, today. Yesterday, however, he received a letter from the superintendent of the express company, containing the information that he will be relieved here, July 5, by John A. Sisker, who has been in the Tacoma office of the company for a long time. Mr. Stephenson has been eighteen years in the service of the express company, and since he has had charge of the Missoula office has made many warm personal friends who wish him success in his new venture and who are glad that his change will not take him away from Missoula.

Hold your dogs, there's a dark man coming. Get out your little old three dollars or your five-spot, according to whether your canine is a gentleman or a lady, and trot up to the treasurer's office and settle. If you don't, there will be a new yelp in the dog pound and the happy home where Fido wanders now will be fidoless. Such is the edict of Chief of Police Vealey, erstwhile terror of the sidewalk and the soon-to-be eradicator of the lodging-house evil and the street-walking dame. Mr. Vealey will have four dogcatchers in the field. One of them, the ebullient gentleman who performed this function last year, will have direction of and jurisdiction over the central part of the city; his first assistant will dominate the south side of the river and his other subalterns will have sway over the east, west and north sides respectively, and will complete the quartette which will assist the chief dogcatcher. There will be trouble in the households where there are dog pets. And the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals will have a serious job on its hands if it does its duty in mitigating the cruelty of the dog pound. All in all, July promises to be productive of excitement in local canine circles.

The office of the county clerk established a new record in June by the collection of 1970 in fees; this beats the best previous record, made by former Clerk Smith, by nearly $200. The office has been particularly busy for three months but it was in June that the high-water mark was struck and there are even bets being made that the total for July will pass the thousand-dollar mark. Most of the increase has been in the filing and recording of deeds and Clerks Kamhal and his assistants have had their hands full for more than 30 days. It is great business.

The first event will be the second installment of the fifteen-mile pacing race; there will be three heats of this and the rivalry is intense since the excellent performance at the initial go. In addition to this event, there will be a matched harness race, best two in three, between Chris Morrison's Katherine Howard. There will be two running races, one a half-mile dash and the other for the three-furlong distance. At this meeting there will be an admission

LETTER ILLUSTRATES VIGILANCE. HOW DEPARTMENT OF INTERIOR WATCHES OVER FLATHEAD OPENING IS SHOWN. As an illustration of the unceasing vigilance with which the department of the interior is watching over the destinies of the opening of the Flathead reservation, a letter received yesterday by the officers of the local United States land office is of interest: Register and Receiver, Missoula, Montana. Sirs: David T. Keating of Columbus, Ohio, for several years has sent literature over this country announcing himself as "registration agent, Flathead Indian reservation." His circulars are sent to soldiers, their widows and orphans and set forth that for a fee of $15 or $20 he will provide agents to register them for participation in the drawing or distributing of said lands for entry.

NOTARIES ARE ADVISED BY WITTEN. DIRECTOR OF THE REGISTRATION OPENINGS URGES SCRIBES TO BE CAREFUL. Some fifty or more of the notary public and prospective notary publics of the city listened last night to about an hour of good advice and sensible instruction from Judge Witten relative to the procedure during the coming opening of the reservation. Judge Witten's talk was concise and to the point, yet his brief suggestions as to the numerous other openings he has witnessed and the interesting way in which he talked made the little bit of advice a talk well worth listening to. Judge Witten repeated to the notaries the instructions and rules by which they are to be governed during the coming registration and urged upon them the great necessity of living right up to the letter of the law in their work during the next few months. He was particularly strong when he urged the notaries to be particular as to the intention of the applicants. The demand for notary publics is going to be very heavy during the next month and it is planned now to erect tents and to add to the present available supply a number of extra scribes.

A clever program was rendered and refreshments were served. The Misses Nupton Entertain. The Misses Nupton entertained a number of their friends last evening at cards. Whist was played. The evening was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Duncan-Goetschius. Cive Duncan and Miss Edith Goetschius were married at noon yesterday at the home of the bride's mother, at 910 Ravallina street, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. N. Maclean of the Presbyterian church. The newly-married couple left on No. 3 for Seattle, where their honeymoon will be spent. Mr. Duncan is a well-known mining man of Montana, and is a resident of Virginia City. His bride has been a teacher in the Missoula public schools and is a young lady of charm and popularity. A Successful Social. The social given last evening at the Orchard Homes church by the Ladies' Aid society proved a delightful success and was attended by an unusually large number. A Longfellow program was given, the following taking part: Lucile Lees, Susie Alloway, Lizzie Tripp, Alice Anderson, Nellie McDonald, J. P. Irving, Roy Bisbee, Mrs. J. P. Irving, Miss Florence Irving, Selma Anderson. Several songs were sung by the Philodora club, which organization assisted the Ladies' Aid society in entertaining.

KERN TO REPRESENT EVERGREEN CASTLE. Last night the members of Evergreen castle of the Royal Highlanders and the delegates to the district convention of that order elected Frank P. Kern, secretary of the local castle, as delegate to the national convention of the order, to be held in Denver in September. This was the chief business which the convention completed yesterday, and aside from the initiating of a class of 20, the remainder of the meeting was spent in an informal social session. A banquet was served in the Odd Fellows' hall at 11 o'clock last night, after which the convention was adjourned. The order has been making great progress in Missoula during the past year, and a membership of 400 is reported in this city alone.

FRENCHTOWN THANKS MISSOULA. OLD TOWN IN VALLEY IS GRATEFUL FOR PAST AND WILL CELEBRATE FOURTH. Special to The Daily Missoulian. Frenchtown, June 20.—Encouraged by the success of their celebration of St. John day, the citizens of Frenchtown are now ready to entertain in honor of the national holiday of the United States, July 4. St. John's day was, regardless of certain inevitable drawbacks, the greatest success ever achieved by the villagers and they do not hesitate to acknowledge the fact that the laurels that crowned their patriotic efforts are due in a great measure to their liberal friends of Missoula, friends who generously contributed to the financial support of the celebration and were present on the occasion itself, and only hope to see the day when the opportunity may present itself for them to prove, by deed, their gratitude.

Given to understand that July 4 is not to be celebrated anywhere in their immediate vicinity, the people of Frenchtown have decided to remember the great American holiday with even more éclat than attended the observance of June 24. A supply of fireworks has been received from St. Paul, and it is not likely that the Frenchtown display will be equalled anywhere in the valley or in Missoula county. There will also be a balloon ascension, at dusk Sunday evening, and this will be a spectacular and thrilling feature. The committee is bent on having the Missoula club orchestra, the organization that furnished such excellent music on the occasion of St. John's day, for the dance that is to end the festivities of the day and is to begin at 8:30 in the evening. Nothing will be spared that will go to make the day the most agreeable ever spent at Frenchtown.

CHUNG IS IDENTIFIED PROMPTLY. IMPRISONED CHINAMAN SUSPECTED OF COMPLICITY IN MURDER RECOGNIZED. New York, June 30.—The complacency of Chung Sin, once the roommate of Leon Ling, who is wanted for the murder of Blaise Sigel on June 9, went all to pieces this afternoon when Arthur Logan, an expressman, walked into the cell where Chung Sin is held and shouted: "Hello."

Logan is the man who carried the trunk containing the girl's body down stairs from Leon Ling's room on the day of the murder. He has told the police that Chung Sin is one of the men he saw on the top floor of the house. Chung, on the contrary, has sworn by all his ancestors that he neither saw the trunk packed nor moved. "You are the man, Logan said to Chung Sin today, 'who told me to take the trunk down the stairs carefully. There was another slim fellow in the room, the same fellow that came over to the office half an hour before to give me the order to call for the trunk.' " "All mistake," protested Chung Sin, "never see you before."

The Chinaman's voice broke and he shook as if in fear as Logan was led out, still positive in his identification. Chung was not kept waiting long before he had another visitor—this time Martin Laria, the chauffeur who drove a Chinaman and a trunk from a Harlem laundry to the chop suey restaurant in Newark on the morning of June 16. The police had adopted the theory that Chung Sin might have been the fare and not Leon Ling. But Laria could not identify Chung Sin and still believes it was Leon in his taxicab. A letter from Chung Sin, written since his arrest, to the society of the Four Brothers, was today translated for the district attorney's office. It protests that the murder was done by one man and that, therefore, only the murderer should be held, denounces the authorities and implores the aid of all members in freeing him. The police believe little reliance can be placed in any of the various rewards and offers of co-operation promised by the clubs of Chinatown. Accordingly, District Attorney Jerome today wrote John Endicott Gardner, of the University of the Pacific at San Jose, Cal., requesting his co-operation in the case, as a trustworthy interpreter.
