FRIDAY, JULY 2, 1909.

GET WISE.

These are the days when there is a strong temptation to drop work and get away from home for awhile. With those of us whose duties demand the almost constant attention which we must give, the problem of vacation seems serious.

INDEPENDENCE DAY.

The Fourth is the day we celebrate. But it was July 2 when the continental congress in 1776 passed the Lee resolution, declaring that we should be a free and independent nation.

A LOST CAUSE.

European dispatches bring the news that Don Carlos, the Spanish pretender, is incurably ill in Italy. It has been known in European capitals that Don Carlos was not well, but it has been but lately that public announcement was made that his ailment is cerebral paralysis and that death may come at any time.

"LAW NOT ENFORCED," SAYS MAN FROM IOWA

"The anti-cigarette law is not enforced as strictly as the newspaper accounts would lead you to believe," says Thomas O'Hern of Port Dodge, Iowa, who arrived in Missoula yesterday on his way back from the exposition at Seattle.

CUTS CHILD'S THROAT AND TRIES HIS OWN

Santa Cruz, Cal., July 1.—Daniel Felton, a Russian railroad laborer, in a drunken frenzy this afternoon killed his 1-year-old son at his home near Glenwood, by cutting the child's throat. He then attempted to commit suicide by drawing a blade across his own throat.

again cut off from comfort. In 1894 he married the Princess Marie Berthe de Rohan, who belonged to one of the oldest and wealthiest families of France.

Of late years Don Carlos has displayed a waning enthusiasm over the claims put forth in his behalf to the throne of Spain. His eldest son, Don Jaime, is an officer in the Russian army and has never actively interested himself in the Carlist cause.

IN DENMARK.

One of the novel and noteworthy celebrations of the Fourth this year will be that which is to be held in the Danish city of Aarhus, where the Danish-American association—whose members are all American citizens of Danish birth—will tomorrow hold exercises in commemoration of the independence of America.

Remember the Declaration of Independence, remember Copeland and Lexington, remember George Washington, remember the Maine and remember that you were once a boy yourself.

A Fourth without noise will please the boys in their zeal for their country's glory. The things that you did when you were a kid—but that's a different story.

If your dog is worth the amount of the tax, pay it and get a tag. If the pup isn't worth it, get rid of him. Whatever you do, do it now.

The method of registering is plain and simple. A man who plays the steeper act to unscrupulous fakers has nobody to blame but himself.

Missoula makes a mistake in not getting better acquainted with the Bitter Root valley; it is a wonderfully beautiful place.

The senate now takes an intermission for luncheon. With the temperature at 100, it is easy to guess what the menu is.

The closing chapters in the Pablo buffalo story were the most exciting, as should be the case with any good tale.

Butte finds it as difficult to export her red-light leeches as the reservation does to get rid of the buffalo.

Butte will lose interest in ring contests if her attorneys continue to give fictitious exhibitions in the court.

The exhibition which the suffragettes gave at Seattle will not hasten the realization of their hopes.

If Judge Witton's advice is heeded, there will be no hitch in the routine of the reservation opening.

But after all, the row of the suffrage convention at Seattle was no worse than a man fight.

If you're tired, take a little trip into the Bitter Root; it will rest you and wise you up.

When a man forgets that he was a boy once, he ceases to be any good as a citizen.

TWO MINORS DEMAND NOTES OF WALLACE DAMAGES

FRED VANEY AND HERBERT KUPHAL, GUARDIANS, BRING SUITS TO RECOVER.

Yesterday in the district court two damage suits were filed by guardians of minors against corporations and in each action personal injury is given for cause. Fred Vaney, by Ted Martin, his guardian, brings suit against the Western Lumber company, Harry Mohr and Burley Sizemore, asking $11,000 as compensation for the crippling of his left leg in the company's mill at Lathrop last April, the member being caught in a cogwheel.

For Lost Fingers. By his guardian, E. W. Kuphal, Herbert Kuphal filed suit yesterday against the Western Montana Flouring company and George Goslee, superintendent, seeking to recover damages to the extent of $6,925. It is set out in the complaint that the plaintiff lost the thumb and forefinger of his left hand while in the employ of the defendant corporation, his hand having been injured by a rip-saw. The accident happened two years ago.

Suit for Rent. C. A. Harnois has brought suit in the district court to recover $105.28, said to be due for rent, lighting, charges and labor during the time Mr. Harnois leased the Union theater building to M. McVety, at the time the latter opened the Family theater with vaudeville.

Yesterday afternoon a demurrer to the complaint was filed by the defendant, the document stating that there existed no cause for action.

MILWAUKEE TO BUILD GOOD COUNTY ROADS

The county commissioners have completed their view of the roads and the lack of roads in the Saltese district. They returned home yesterday afternoon and will take formal action at their coming meeting. It has been practically agreed that a bridge is necessary at St. Regis and steps will probably be taken at once toward its construction. Up the river toward Saltese, the Milwaukee will build a wagon road where the commissioners designate. District Engineer MacVety was with the commissioners on the trip and asked them to state exactly what they wanted. "The attitude of the Milwaukee is entirely satisfactory," said one of the commissioners last night. "The engineering department is eminently fair and has given us assurance that the railway company will do all that is expected of it in putting the roads in this district in proper condition."

HEART TROUBLE ENDS LIFE OF MRS. M'BRIDE

Word was received yesterday by Rev. A. E. Trivett, of the Catholic church, that Mrs. M. B. McBride, a former resident of this city, had died in Seattle, the cause of death being heart trouble. The message was from Mr. McBride and stated that the funeral would be held Monday, probably in Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. McBride were well known in Missoula, where for a long time the former was employed in the office of the Northern Pacific. Up to a short time ago Mr. McBride was paymaster on the tunnel work at Tart for the Puget Sound road.

TWENTY-SIX COUNTS IN THE IMPEACHMENT

Olympia, Wash., July 1.—Sitting as a court of impeachment, the state senate, before whom John H. Schiavelli, state insurance commissioner, was to be tried today, granted the defendant until July 10 to file an answer to 26 charges made by the house of representatives, fixed July 14 as the time for the house impeachment managers to reply and then gave both sides until August 11 to prepare for trial. In the 26 counts filed by the house managers with the senate, Schiavelli is charged with extortion, perjury and neglect of duty.

SISTER'S DEVOTION SAVES HER BROTHER

Tacoma, July 1.—To the devotion and self-sacrifice of her sister, George Moore owes his life. Following an operation for pleurisy, a hemorrhage developed last Sunday and in order to arrest it and restore his strength, he consenting to part with her own blood for his sake. An incision was made in her left wrist, which was bound to his left arm in which an incision was made near the elbow.

BRAKEMAN IS INJURED.

At an early hour this morning Brakeman A. H. Smith, in the employ of the Northern Pacific, was brought to Missoula, suffering with scalp wounds and a wrenched back. He fell while attempting to board his train at Iron Mountain.

Wallace, July 1.—Despite the fact that elaborate plans had been made for a Fourth of July celebration, several hundred dollars expended, two bands hired and advertising scattered broadcast over the country, the Wallace citizens have decided to take up the fight of the city health officers against scarlet fever, diphtheria and small pox, and has voted to abandon the celebration this year. A spread of either disease is feared, as there are a number of cases each in the town, and new ones are being reported.

The ore body recently encountered on the Samson property has widened out from three feet to seven feet in the past week, the ore being next-class concentrating grade.

The sum of $1,500 collected for the Fourth of July celebration, which has been abandoned, may be used to give Wallace a baseball team for the rest of the season. The plan is being agitated, and a meeting of citizens will be held to determine the matter.

Unless the O. R. & N. begins work to erect the new depot at once it is probable they will be compelled to sell tickets from a boxcar, for it has been decided to abate the depot as a public nuisance.

A warehouse of sufficient capacity to contain 400,000 barrels of cement is to be built at the Idaho end of the Puget Sound big tunnel near Tart. The cement will be used in lining the big mine and neighboring smaller tunnels.

The Amazon-Dixie people are moving the compressor from the Lesbia mine near Lookout, Mont., to the site of the Dixie mill and lower tunnel. The mine will be opened through the lower tunnel at a great saving to the owners.

A patent for a slime and pulp feeder in use in local mills has been received by J. R. Green foreman at the Mammoth-Standard mills here.

Friends are seeking for Joseph Higgins who left here a year ago for Prince Rupert, B. C., taking with him a large amount of money for investment purposes. Higgins never arrived in Prince Rupert. He has extensive mining interests here.

A $6,000 brick edifice will be erected this summer by the Episcopalians on the site of the present aged building. The old church will be donated to the city for use as a library.

The Bell Telephone company has sued the North Idaho Telephone company for $500 damages for alleged infringement of rights in the town of Burke by using poles of the Bell company without permission.

Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and decided to try it. Before I had taken one bottle I was better, and now I am completely cured."—LENA V. HENRY, Route No. 8, Adrian, Ga.

BENZOATE OF SODA HARMFUL

HOMEOPATHS ADOPT RESOLUTION AGAINST IT AS A FOOD PRESERVATIVE.

Washington, July 1.—The action of the American Institute of Homeopathy, at its annual convention in Detroit, Mich., on June 24, in adopting strong resolutions condemning the use of benzoate of soda as a preservative in foods brings all the medical schools and important societies dealing with such questions in line against this and similar chemical preservatives, such as borax, formaldehyde, etc. The resolutions will be presented to President Taft by a committee consisting of Drs. J. B. Greese, Chas. King and L. B. Swomstedt, all of this city, representing the American Institute, and Ben LaBree of Cincinnati, representing the American Health League, which has been very active in fighting benzoate of soda. The latter organization includes among its membership a large number of prominent laymen interested in health matters from a purely philanthropic standpoint, among them being Andrew Carnegie, Dr. Lyman Abbott, President A. T. Hadley of Yale, Thomas A. Edison, President Eliot of Harvard, Edward Bok, President H. A. Garfield of Princeton, President David Starr Jordan of Leland Stanford, ex-Secretary of War Luke E. Wright and others. The resolutions which will be presented to President Taft read as follows: "Whereas, The study of the effects of minute quantities of drugs upon the human system, by the Homeopathic School of Medicine, proves that under no circumstances and in no quantity can drugs be persistently introduced into the human system without deleterious effects; therefore, be it resolved, that the American Institute of Homeopathy, at its sixty-fifth annual convention assembled, respectfully invites the attention of the president of the United States to the necessity of his support in all efforts for the improvement and enforcement of the national pure food law as effectively to prevent the use of benzoate of soda and similar artificial preservatives by which impure and partially decomposed, and therefore dangerous food stuffs, can be placed upon the market and distributed through the channels of interstate commerce."

A strong resolution will also be presented to the president endorsing Dr. Harvey W. Wiley of the bureau of chemistry, and especially in his efforts to prevent the use of benzoate of soda and similar artificial preservatives in the preparation of food stuffs and their use in the treatment of impure and partially decomposed, and therefore dangerous material to be used as food, so they can be marketed and distributed through the channels of interstate commerce.

The American Institute of Homeopathy occupies the same relation to the homeopaths as having 25,000 members that the American Medical association does to the allopaths. The latter association at its annual convention in Atlantic City recently adopted similar anti-benzoate of soda resolutions of even stronger language, and a large committee consisting of a representative from practically each state, presented them to President Taft. At the time the president remarked that he regarded the pure
