TUESDAY, JULY 6, 1909.

GLORIOUS APPLETOWN.

Hundreds of Missoula people were yesterday partakers of the splendid hospitality of Hamilton, and this morning every one of them is a booster for Appletown.

COMPELLING PEACE.

The pen, according to ancient tradition, is mightier than the sword. But as a peace-preserving, peace-compelling power, the dollar is the thing.

OUT OF POLITICS.

Whatever else may be said of the tariff debate when it is ended, it is certain that this session has taken the tariff out of politics.

assail the bill or assail Aldrich. They assisted him in making them. The only fault which they can find with him is that in sending duties upward he did not, in all cases, go far enough to please them.

That Cleveland Sunday school boy who placed the possession of free cracker as the first essential to the enjoyment of last Sunday, was a real boy even if his answer didn't suit John D. Rockefeller.

The boys appear to have made a mistake in reading Chief Vealey's orders; they shot off all their crackers before midnight instead of waiting till after that hour.

Those who died in the revolution on account of the Declaration of Independence were not so many as those who have died since on the same account.

From Appletown they struggle down, weary and burned and lame, they're glad they're alive, and they hope to survive and enjoy some more of the same.

If you find all the children present at breakfast this morning and each of them whole, your morning prayer will be a psalm of thanksgiving.

Mr. Rockefeller says we should all be happy. It is easy to be happy and to reach happiness with an income of $3 a second.

It is good news that the senators are tired of the tariff debate. The rest of us have been weary for weeks.

Cuba is original, at least. In a political duel Sunday both participants were wounded with swords.

AMONGST THE ADVOCATES OF A FOURTH WITHOUT POWDER THERE ARE NO PRACTICING PHYSICIANS.

It was specially hard for American horses to be beaten in France on the Fourth.

Mr. Taft declines to guess when congress will adjourn. Mr. Taft is wise.

Now for a neck-and-neck race between the bridge and the street railway.

The popping of the firecracker likewise was heard around the world.

Considering that we had two days of it, the fatalities were few.

The peck-a-boo waltz furnishes scant protection from the rain.

The "same" Fourth will come when there are no boys left.

It comes but once a year. Glory be! Hamilton, as usual, made good.

VALLEY CHAMPS LOSE TO GIANTS

MISSOULA AGGREGATION WINS HOLIDAY EXHIBITION OF SUMMER GAME.

Staff Correspondence. Hamilton, July 5.—The most rabid of the fans of the metropolis of the Bitter Root admit that today's game, when Chevalier held the home slugs to two mealy and widely separated hits, and the Missoula Giants won by a score of 4 to 0, was the prettiest scrimmage pulled off on the diamond here for these many, many moons.

Hamilton, July 5.—The most rabid of the fans of the metropolis of the Bitter Root admit that today's game, when Chevalier held the home slugs to two mealy and widely separated hits, and the Missoula Giants won by a score of 4 to 0, was the prettiest scrimmage pulled off on the diamond here for these many, many moons.

There was nothing doing for Hamilton in the local exhibition of baseball. Smith's first one in Chevalier style and Henderson popped to Chevalier. Williams gave Whiteman another chance to make a clean catch.

Last Round. No score came in the last round, although Hamilton had another score when Williams heaved Lovings' grounder over first, after Smith and Whiteman had both failed to connect safely.

The Game. Dresser opened hostilities by rolling one to Heilman, on the mound for Hamilton, but Gray ambled on four wide ones.

Hamilton presented Captain Nelson first in its section of the inning, and he drew one of the quartet of passes that Chevalier issued.

Second Inning. Smith reached first on Fullerton's lead and Whiteman skied to left. Lovings hit to Herbert and all hands were safe on the shortstop's error.

Third Inning. Only three men faced Heilman in the third inning. Hudson hit to first, Anderson couldn't get his willow in front of the leather, and Marx was out at third in trying to stretch a two-base hit.

Fourth Inning. Chevalier struck out in the reopening of the seventh, and Smith followed suit, Whiteman grounding to first.

Fifth Inning. Lovings hit to Heilman, and Dresser secured a safe one, going to second on a long drive to the middle garden. Gray was whipped out from third and, although Hudson was given a base on balls, Anderson failed to deliver a hit, and the session ended when the Bonner lumberjack struck out.

Sixth Inning. Marx gave Heilman an easy assist, Chevalier popped to short right, and Smith fell a victim to Heilman's necromancy.

Seventh Inning. In the first of the seventh Whiteman handed one to Heilman, and Lovings repeated. Dresser went out by the short-to-first route.

Eighth Inning. In the eighth the Giants assembled

S.S.S. PURIFIES BAD BLOOD

Bad blood is responsible for most of our ailments, and when from any cause it becomes infected with impurities, humors or poisons, trouble in some form is sure to follow.

BIAGER ROOT CAPITAL IS HOST

(Continued from Page One) of the nature of the nation's chief holiday, of the way in which its observance was open to all classes and conditions, how it is the privilege of all to do homage to the patriotic living and the honored dead.

A brief, but eloquent tribute to the nation's flag, that was once torn by cruel war, while the tears of God dropped upon it, and the speaker had passed on to a discussion of the value of patriotism.

The ball game, of which another column tells, attracted a good part of the holiday crowd, and the banking collected which followed, drew its share of attention.

SOUTHSIDE FIREMEN BEAT FORT MISSOULA

According to the people who saw it, the game yesterday afternoon at the south side ball grounds, between the south side volunteer fire department and a team from Fort Missoula, was one of the best of the year.
