OUTSIDE THE BIG FENCE

Heinz Peltz is finding it hard work trying to make a winner of his Louisville team.
"Giant Killer" Covalesko of the Phillies is not showing the fancy work at present that he displayed last fall. Willie Keeler will be missed by the New York team. Demmitt has taken Willie's place in right field for the Highlanders.

The Boston Americans will try out Pitcher Page of the Milwaukee team. He made a fine showing with the Brewers last season.
A good many ball players contend that nothing but baseball luck carried the Detroit Tigers along. But that kind of stuff belongs to the dark ages.

If Manager Cantillon of Washington had another Walter Johnson the "Lastings" would catch the step and march with the first division.
"Southpaw" Krause continues to be the winning kid of the American league. Connie Mack has surely picked up a swell pitcher for his Athletics.

Roger Bresnahan, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, says that he doesn't expect to win the pennant this year, but is building up a team for the future.
A change of positions in the first division almost every day shows that the American association race is getting close to 38 in the shade.

Clarence Ribey has been released by the Boston Braves. He was a member of the old champion Pittsburg team and a great performer at the second cushion.
Reddie Lennox of Brooklyn and Dots Miller of Pittsburg have been given an increase in salary. Both youngsters deserve it, as they have played brilliant ball for their teams.

The Aladdin's Lamp of the New York Central. The True Story of the Vanderbilt Millions.

Charles Edward Russell is telling the actual figures in the great money-making game as played by American railroads. Not generalizations; not vague, airy muck-raking fretwork. Just plain facts and figures—bookkeeper's figures, and printed so you can understand them.

The life story of the Vanderbilts and their railroad told as never before, with startling documents to shed light.
If you buy coal, or flour, or meat, or clothing you have a very active interest in the history of the New York Central.

Russell is doing great work in this railroad series. He is telling the truth about railroads—but telling it in words of one syllable so that everybody can understand. If you're kicking about the cost of living you might take a look into the Vanderbilt fortune and find an answer.

BAGS CHARGING LION WITH EASE

BULLET FROM ROOSEVELT'S TRUSTY RIFLE FELS THE BEAST TO EARTH.

Natyasha, British East Africa, July 8.—The Roosevelt expedition is enjoying good hunting and all the members of the party are well. This information was brought to Natyasha today by couriers from the Soffik district.
Mr. Roosevelt has killed a splendidly named lion, one lioness and four rhinoceroses.

He brought down the lion while the beast was in full charge, the bullet penetrating the middle of the chest. Kermit Roosevelt has secured one big bull stand, one lioness and two rhinoceroses.
In addition both hunters have been successful in bringing down a large variety of other game.

The party is coming into the farm of Captain Richard Atterbury, on the south shore of Nalyasha lake, where Mr. Roosevelt and his son will make use of a ranch in hippopotamus hunting.

RAISES NOVEL POINT IN PURE FOOD LAW

Washington, July 8.—Among the many knotty problems of vital interest to the housewife which the pure food and drug board of the department of agriculture has been called upon to solve, is one as to whether the effect of alum of various kinds and alum salts are injurious to health.

At a hearing today by representatives of bakers and baking powder manufacturers Luke E. Wright, former secretary of war, made an exhaustive argument in support of the proposition that baking powder per se was not subject to the provisions of the pure food and drug act. He contended that inasmuch as baking powder was not used for food the law would not apply, as the term "food" in the pure food law is restricted to those substances which are used for food, but the department always has construed this section to embrace food and substances which enter into the composition of food. The matter was taken under consideration and a decision will be rendered later.

PLAYING OF PIANOS MUST CEASE EARLY

Washington, July 8.—"Piano playing and staging after 10 o'clock at night is disorderly conduct, as much so as cursing or fighting," declared Judge (for D. Kinball) in the police court today in dismissing with a lecture a case against Raymond Leman. The court announced that hereafter a curfew would ring promptly at 10 o'clock, and all offenders brought before him would receive a fine. The judge said to Leman:

"Piano playing after hours will not be tolerated in the city. No man or woman has the right to play the piano or sing after his neighbor is asleep or in bed trying to sleep."
Continuing, the judge said that any house where music was kept up late at night was a disorderly one.

ASKS THAT CHARGE BE DROPPED NOW

New York, July 8.—"Comme" for Broughton Brandenburg, the magazine writer, who is held in St. Louis pending trial on charges of entering away his stepson James Shepard Coburn III, wrote today to S. G. Jones, the St. Louis attorney in charge of the prosecution, asking that the charge be dropped.
Mr. Jones had written to Brandenburg's counsel at the time the case would not be tried until September.

Brandenburg's lawyers argued that it would be an undue hardship and cruel to confine their client all this time since he is in poor health.

WILL INVESTIGATE SUPPOSED SUICIDE

Washington, July 8.—Commander John Hood has been designated as the head of the board which has been appointed to make a second inquiry into cause of death of Second Lieutenant James A. Sutton of the marine corps at Annapolis in October, 1907. The court will assemble at Annapolis, June 19. Major Henry Leonard of the marine corps will be judge advocate. The mother of Sutton declares that he was murdered instead of having committed suicide as was stated at the time and those who killed him are still alive.

AMONG THE FIGHTERS

Bill Fitzgibbon, a nephew of Bob, made his debut as a boxer in New Zealand recently, and is said to have made good.
Tommy Burns is telling the natives of Australia that he expects to meet Jack Johnson again within a year. Send that ball back to the pasture, Tommy.
Joe Grim, the human packing bag,
