Among the visitors in town yesterday was Architect Verndon of Seattle, who stopped here to inspect the new court house, as he is preparing plans for two county buildings in the sound country. Mr. Verndon spent the day with Architect Gibson, and looked over the work on the new building. He left last night for the east. Speaking to a Missoulian man yesterday afternoon, Mr. Verndon said: "You are going to have a fine court house; there are many features of the design that are admirable, and the work is being done in splendid shape. I have been much interested in looking over not only this building, but your whole city as well. I have not been here for six years, and the change that has taken place is great. Your location is fine and your new buildings are well designed and well built. It strikes me, however, that you should give more attention to your streets. It is time that you turned your attention to paving. The streets are the first thing that a stranger notices in a town. I believe, you are going to have a lot of strangers to look you over this month. There are thousands coming from both directions. In Spokane I had to wait for three trains before I could get a berth to Missoula; there were 12 coaches on the train I came in on, and all of them were filled."

Speaking of the court house, these past busy days up at the new building, the terra cotta work on the outer walls is being pushed along at a lively rate. Yesterday the workmen were building the arch over the main entrance and their work was especially interesting. This main entrance is remarkably handsome in design and it has been well executed. Yesterday, although it is still concealed by the staging, the entrance was much admired by the audience which watched the work. Superintendent Brechbill is on the job all the time now and says work is proceeding satisfactorily. Contractor Oliver made Missoula a visit this week and he, too, is pleased with the way things are going.

GOING SOME. The workmen were building the arch over the main entrance and their work was especially interesting. This main entrance is remarkably handsome in design and it has been well executed. Yesterday, although it is still concealed by the staging, the entrance was much admired by the audience which watched the work. Superintendent Brechbill is on the job all the time now and says work is proceeding satisfactorily. Contractor Oliver made Missoula a visit this week and he, too, is pleased with the way things are going.

Yesterday's mail brought a letter from H. S. Reardon, who sends word that he is coming to Missoula July 27, with a party of eight Illinois-ers, and he expects to make their eyes pop out of their heads before he has shown them what there is to see in this part of the country. He sends warm regards to his friends and he expects to be able to show that there are some out here that are just as much alive. Mr. Reardon has planned to reach here the night of July 27 and, while he does not want a brass band to meet him, he will be glad to receive the welcome which he knows Missoula can give. He is not far out of the way when he guesses that he will get it.

"I don't know where The Missoulian got that description of John Jones registering," Fred Stodder yesterday morning, "but it is true to life and it must have been taken from our corner, for we have had a special run of that class of applicants. There are some of the queerest questions asked and we have to answer as many of them as we can. If a man had time to do it he could gather up a lot of material for a book that would be a best-seller from the start. All he would have to do would be to stand around our counter for a day; then he could write a book that would make Bill Nye look like a piker. I have never had so much fun in my life as in the two days we have been registering. The variety is so great that there is no sameness in the experience and a man has a show right at home all the time—a regular continuous performance."

Rev. Dwight S. Bayley returned yesterday from Seattle where he spent a couple of days, getting Mrs. Bayley and the family settled for the summer. "I saw enough of the fair to know that it is remarkably good," said Mr. Bayley yesterday. "I was not able to spend much time there and I hope to make a systematic visit at the exposition when I return for Mrs. Bayley in the fall. But there was one thing about the stay in Seattle which impresses me more than anything else; that was the Seattle spirit. It is wonderful the way those folks pull together for the good of their city. There is no apparent jealousy and whenever there is anything needed it is ordered at once. If there is a sewer wanted, it is put in and is charged to the abutting owners; if there is paving needed, it is put in. It is fine to see the way they work down there. I was thoroughly interested and my admiration was excited. Seattle is a splendid example of the power of the pull-all-together."

Terrribly Scalded is something we hear or read about every day of our lives. CREW BEGINS SETTING UP POLES FOR MISSOULA STREET CAR LINE.

Following the telegram received several days ago from A. B. Wethey ordering the commencement of work a crew has started setting up the poles for the new trolley line under the direction of Superintendent Ineh of the Missoula Light & Water company. The crew began work at the corner of South Fifth and Ash streets and is proceeding from that point in toward the city proper. Arrangements are also being made for the rapid unloading of equipment as it comes in. The Northern Pacific is building a temporary platform to unload the steel onto and everything possible will be done to facilitate the work. The Colorado Fuel & Iron company has received the contract for the rails and the wire necessary will be furnished by one of the Clark companies. The shipments of material are expected to begin at once and as soon as the poles are all in place the steel will be ready for laying. The survey is still in progress and as soon as this and the other preliminary work is all completed it is expected that all will be in readiness for the real construction and that from now on there will be no delay in the work.

BUSINESS MEN TAKE NEW NAME

HAMILTON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE IS NOW TITLE OF ORGANIZATION.

Hamilton, July 16.—The Hamilton Business Men's club is no longer in existence, it having been decided at a meeting held tonight to organize as the Chamber of Commerce of Hamilton. A constitution and a set of by-laws were adopted, as presented by the committee on reorganization. W. K. Roberts was elected as temporary chairman of the meeting after J. P. Shannon, as president of the Business Men's club, had resigned the chair. George K. Dick was appointed temporary secretary, and the following executive committee was named: P. J. Shannon, W. O. Fisk, M. A. White, W. K. Roberts, J. O. Read, Sid Ward, J. E. Torrance, W. Dudley, J. B. Totman, Dr. B. L. Owens and W. I. Moody.

At the request of the members, C. M. Allen of Leo, one of the most prominent fruit growers in the valley, delivered a brief address, in which he urged co-operation on the part of the new organization with the chamber of commerce of Missoula, with especial reference to the apple show planned for next fall in the Garden city.

After Mr. Allen had finished a resolution was adopted thanking the Missoula Chamber of Commerce for the courtesy extended to D. V. Bean, representative of the Hamilton organization, in giving him room for an exhibit of the valley's products. A committee of five was appointed to make sure of a daily supply of products for exhibition purposes in Missoula—Dr. Owens, Mr. Torrance, Mr. Fisk, Mr. Shannon and Mr. Ward.

A balance of $104, left from the fund raised last winter for the entertainment of the State Horticultural society, was tendered the chamber of commerce and accepted.

At the close of the meeting the executive committee held a session for the purpose of organizing. M. A. White was elected president, W. O. Fisk, vice president, George K. Dick, treasurer and temporary secretary.

A committee of three was appointed to recommend a capable man for the position of permanent secretary of the organization. This committee consists of Messrs. Read, Shannon and Fisk, and was also given authority to suggest a suitable location for the chamber's headquarters. At the next meeting of the new organization, to be held on Wednesday of next week, a secretary will be engaged.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA INSTALLS

THETA PHI SORORITY MERGES ITS IDENTITY IN NATIONAL ORGANIZATION.

Yesterday will be long remembered by the young ladies who are members of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, as it marks the beginning of their fraternity life as a national organization, in place of the local order, Theta Phi, which has for the last three years had its existence at the University of Montana. Most of the day was spent in the work, the reticent part taking place last night.

The work of installing the new members of the sorority was done by Miss Jessie McFarland of Seattle, who is president of the western or Gamma division, and Miss Irene Lohman and other members of the order from throughout the state. After the installation of the local chapter, Lambda Nu, one of the most enjoyable banquets of the year was partaken of at Ye Olde Inn. For the purpose, the banquet room of the inn was handsomely decorated in the sorority colors, black and gold, and the sorority flower, the pansy. An elaborate dinner of many courses was served, and toasts were given by members of the sorority and well known college songs were indulged in, the end coming at a late hour.

The following young ladies were installed into the sorority: Stella Duncan, Francis N. Kelley, Mirta McCall Bonner, Mary Ferguson, Carrie Hardenburgh, Florence Catlin, Helen Goddard, Marie Freese, Lucille Marshall, Elyse Cord, Libban Williams, Gertrude Whipple, Annabelle Robertson, Fay Wright and Fannie Hatheway Lucy.
