

SOCIETY

The past week has shown a marked increase in festivities over its predecessors, due perhaps to the fact that there are strangers within the city's gates, and Missoula is slowly awakening to the sense of her social obligations.

The registration of the Flathead lands is, of course, the principal topic of conversation, and more than one debutante has wended her way to the registration office with visions of an ideal farm, already planning the details of the picturesque costume she will wear as "the loving herd" while slowly over the land, "fencing herself with a shepherd's crook and her faithful dog to keep the sheep from the meadows and the cows from the corn; but, too, with an eye to the practical, for one young lady remarked that she had arrived at the conclusion, after due consideration and mature deliberation, that an enlarged edition of a garment known as "children's pumperns" would be eminently serviceable and suitable for wear on her reservation ranch.

In university circles the week has been a busy one; there have been sorority banquets, teas, receptions, and so many mysterious and wonderful rites have been performed that to the uninitiated the sorority members seem to be set apart from ordinary mortals. The coming week, also, promises pleasant events in the way of small informal affairs, and there will doubtless be other little impromptu evenings inspired by the delightful days and still more delightful nights.

Country Dinner at Lolo.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gilbert of Lolo entertained a large and sumptuous dinner last Sunday at their beautiful country home. Several drove from Missoula and were richly rewarded for their trip. The beautiful lawn was in its loveliest and was resplendent with flowers of all kinds, though quantities had been gathered for the decoration of the house and table. In the dining room, which was airy and spacious, covers were laid for fifteen, and when the guests had gathered around the table it was a merry and appreciative throng that partook of the bounteous dinner that comprised all the delicacies that only the country could provide. The guests were the Misses Maude McCullough, Annie Conlon, Mary Conlon, Helen Mackay, Jessie Cunningham, Louise Carpenter of Helena, Bernice Kemp, Helen McCrackin of Hamilton, Messrs. Massey McCullough, Lemur Mackay, Holmes Mackay, Tom Conlon, James Conlon and Dr. Charles Pixley.

Four Leaf Euchre Club.

Though the name of the Four Leaf Euchre club has become a misnomer, the ladies who are members of this popular organization still meet just as regularly and pursue the woe of Dame Piquet as if it were a pleasure as though they played euchre and not Five Hundred. There seems to be a fashion in cards as well as in other things, and so for the time euchre is obsolete and bridge and Five Hundred the games par excellence. The meeting on Wednesday was with Mrs. Sid J. Coffee, and was very delightful, as they all are. Those present were Mrs. George Briggs, Mrs. C. H. McLeod, Mrs. John Bonner, Mrs. H. E. Wilkinson, Mrs. E. L. Bonner, Mrs. E. A. Spottswood, Mrs. Tylar B. Thompson, Mrs. Charles Hall, Mrs. C. A. Barnes, Mrs. Kenneth Ross, Mrs. J. M. Evans, Mrs. Hiram Knowles, Mrs. C. W. Blair, Mrs. J. M. Keith, Mrs. G. W. Lombard, Mrs. J. Watson Buford, Mrs. F. C. Webster, Mrs. John M. Price and Miss McFarland.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. Tylar B. Thompson possess in a large degree a genial manner and a happy faculty that turns even the most formal of formal dinners into a pleasurable and delightful affair, the memory of which will be long treasured by the fortunate participants. And so it was that the guests who were bidden to dine with Mr. and Mrs. Thompson on Friday evening accepted with a warm and unhesitatingly sincere. The table, which was laid for nine, was decorated with American Beauty roses, and the same beautiful flower was used in lavish profusion in the drawing room and hall. A menu that would tempt the most fastidious epicure was served, and was done full justice to by the guests, who were Major and Mrs. Johnson of Fort Missoula, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Sterling, A. B. Hammond, Judge John L. Skonec.

Entertain Episcopal Choir.

Mrs. J. E. Power very delightfully entertained the members of the Episcopal choir last Friday evening. The first part of the evening was spent in an answering word contest, the object being to obtain the greatest number of words from the name of a certain flower; after this was concluded a splendid musical program of some length was enjoyed, and the evening was concluded by the serving of dainty refreshments. Mrs. Power's guests were the Rev. Walter Lemmo-Smith, Mrs. Lemmo-Smith, Messrs. J. Allison, Herman Allison, John Kitchin, F. Lewis, R. Badley, Mrs. Hurbut, Mrs. Emilen Crampton, Mrs. Book, the Misses Book, Harbut, Sha'l, Wilkinson, Thome, Hughes, Lucy and Nellie Whitaker. Mrs. Power was ably assisted by Mrs. M. E. Handmann and Miss Edna Power.

Afternoon With Cards.

Miss Alice M. Wandy entertained last Friday afternoon at cards, eight tables being filled, and Five Hundred being played. Punch was served during the afternoon and at the close of the playing refreshments were served. Those invited were Mesdames Ben Waller Field, F. C. Scheuch, George Brooks, M. Kelly, Frank Woody, F. G. Hedges, H. Newton Kieruff, H. G. Houghton, Oscar Sedman, Elizabeth Menger, Benson Hord, Ralph Adams, John Tolan, Thomas Murphy, Carl Greenhead, Henry Greenhead, J. M. Dixon, Edward Muloney, J. L. Scott, J. Watson Buford, A. L. Duncan, the Misses Marie Mackay, Hallie Richmond, Pearl Jenkins, Phyllis Gagnon, Jennette Rankin, Margaret Ruman, Jean Stevon, Francis Robinson, Ruth Worden, Josephine Hatheway, Geneva Simons.

Celebrates Her Seventieth Birthday.

Mrs. C. E. Shell, mother of Mrs. Charles Crawshaw, celebrated her seventieth birthday last Tuesday evening, and invited a few friends to play whist. Some very high scores were made, four tables being filled. The ladies' first and second prizes were won by Mrs. Charles Owens and Mrs. Ralph McInay, while John Tracy won the first prize for the gentlemen, and John Richards the second. Refreshments were enjoyed by the guests after the playing was finished. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Tracy, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McInay, Mr. and Mrs. George Richards, Mr. and Mrs. George Pease, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crawshaw, Mrs. William Hutchinson, Mrs. Charles Owens, Mrs. J. Houghton, John Richards.

Impromptu Theater Party.

Pleasant, as most impromptu affairs are apt to be, was the party that enjoyed the evening at one of the theaters with which Missoula is plentifully provided, and afterwards dropped in at Ye Olde Inn for a jolly supper. This might also have been regarded as a little farewell party for Andrew Beckwith, who was to leave the following day for his home at St. Ignace after a visit of several days in Missoula, where he is well known and extremely popular. The company on Wednesday evening comprised the Misses Thula Toole, Kate Trainor, Frank Trainor, Margaret Roman, Anabel Ross, Messrs. Andrew Hooker, Will Craig, Charles Swinburne, Ward Rathbun, Howard Toole, John Toole, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. John R. Toole.

Smith-Tostenson.

The following, taken from the Tacoma Ledger, will be of interest to many Missoula people, as the bride, Miss Tostenson, is well known in the city.

One of the pretty July weddings took place Saturday, July 3, at the home of Mrs. Edward Smith, when the oldest son of the family, Earl J. Smith, was united in marriage to Miss Jessie Tostenson of Bonner, Mont. Rev. Pepper officiated for the ceremony. The bride wore a handsome dress of silver gray silk trimmed with lace and carried a shower bouquet of roses. Miss Helen A. Ward and Miss Mary Ward attended the bride, wearing bouquets of white roses. Ray Keppeler and Louis Olson assisted the groom. After the wedding a large number of relatives and friends were present at an informal reception which followed.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tostenson of Bonner, Mont. A number of useful and handsome wedding gifts were received by the bridal couple.

In Honor of Miss Worthington.

A very pretty little Kensington was given in honor of Miss Jessie Worthington on Friday afternoon by Miss Eva Coffee, whose guest Miss Worthington is. The spacious porch surrounding the coffee home was comfortable and inviting with its hammocks and cozy retreat for the young ladies who sewed and chatted the afternoon away. Very delicious refreshments were served during the afternoon to the guests, who were the Misses Jessie Worthington, Marjory Ross, Ethel Willkinson, Mary Elrod, Bess Martindale, Lucy Whitaker, Nellie Whitaker, Margaret Lancy, Abbie Lacy, Bessie Bigsby, Mary Rankin and Grace Rankin.

Birthday Party.

An enjoyable party was given Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. William Broderick in West Missoula for the amusement of the little folks of the neighborhood, her little grandson, Harold Grant being host. The afternoon was spent in playing games and at 6 o'clock luncheon was served. The little guests present were Dorra Quinn, Edna Morris, Carmelita Quinn, Ruth Linstead, Grace Puckett, Hulda Puckett, Maggie McGregor, Margaret McDermott, Ruth McDermott, Rena Britt, Alice Morelles, Evan Realy, Harold Realy, Henry McDermott, John McGrover, John Morrells, Ellen Woods, John Britt, Frank Jensen, Dorothy Prichard, Fimeline Rittiker, Lillie Jensen and Baby Prichard. The young host received a number of pretty presents.

Circus Party and Supper.

One of the pleasant events of Monday evening was the party that attended the dog and pony show and was afterwards entertained at supper at Ye Olde Inn by Andrew Beckwith of St. Ignace. The work of the clever performers was thoroughly enjoyed by all, and the cries of the peanut and popcorn vendors and the smell of the sawdust carried the thoughts back to the days of childhood, when to attend the circus was the height of earthly bliss. The members of the party were the Misses Adalide Armstrong, Margaret Roman, Maude McCullough, Anabel Ross, Messrs. Andrew Beckwith, John Kitchin, Lieutenant Lee Simpson, Frank Denison.

Brownies Are Entertained.

The Brownies were royally dined last Sunday by Misses Edna and Grace Rankin at their home, and, as with all functions with which the Brownies have anything to do, it was a highly enjoyable occasion. The table was beautifully decorated, the menu delicious, the company genial, and what more could be asked, at the table were seated the Misses Lee Thompson, Ruth Greenough, Mildred Ingalls, Dorothy Sterling, Edmee Deschamps, Helen McLeod and the Misses Edna and Grace Rankin.

Playing Bridge.

A few of the devotees of the most fascinating game were the guests of Mrs. C. W. Lombard last Thursday afternoon, and it is said that some scientific playing was indulged in by the ladies, most of whom are expert players. The house was perfumed with many flowers and refreshments were served. Mrs. Lombard's guests were Mrs. J. M. Evans, Mrs. J. Watson Buford, Mrs. P. M. Reilly, Mrs. E. A. Muloney, Mrs. Herman Kahn, Mrs. Edward Hirschberg and Miss Marie Mackay.

This marriage was performed on Wednesday in Spokane, the ceremony being said in the Central Christian church by Rev. C. E. Stevens.

Small and Pretty Luncheon.

Mrs. Ben Waller Field of Fort Missoula was the hostess yesterday at a small luncheon, which was wholly charming and dainty. The round table was most attractive with its centerpiece and dainties of Florentine lace, with a large bowl of pink sweet peas in the center. A delicious course luncheon was perfectly served, and claimed the attention of the guests for some time. Mrs. Field's guests were Mrs. F. H. ### PHYSICAL CULTURE.

PHYSICAL CULTURE has grown to be such a fad with women of every age and walk in life that it must surely be a comfort for the humble housewife to realize that in her everyday tasks about her home she is undergoing regularly a system of physical culture that is far superior to the very best of the methods so boasted about. In fact, the very highest of medical authorities declare that

A Slender, Supple Effect.

A single method of physical culture taught by instructors for women can give equal physical improvement to what can be found in an intelligent course in sweeping, dusting, bed-making and rug-shaking.

The muscle movements caused by the various motions so carefully taught in physical culture courses are identical with the muscle movements called forth in active housecleaning.

If the housewife will only keep her windows wide open while at work and hold her chest out and shoulders back with the head erect while at work, the same physical glow can be obtained from housework as from the Swedish movement or any other so-called physical culture lessons.

The doctors declare that many a peevish, sallow-faced woman who would be recognized like her misdeed if she were compelled to take a physical culture lesson in housework in place of sitting around in laziness. It is this exercise that will keep the well-to-do young woman in good health, and if the wife or daughter cannot afford to have a servant she will find a health-blessing of an invaluable nature disguised in the necessity that compels her to take the housework course in physical culture.

The most important thing for the woman to remember if she seeks health from the work about her home is always to do the work with the windows wide open and also to keep the muscles braced just as in mere gymnastic exercises. This method of doing housework will save many a medical bill and bring the glow of physical vigor to many a faded cheek.

Cures Baby's Summer Ills—FREE

The mother should watch her baby very carefully these hot days. If it refuses to play and to eat, if it is peevish and crying, look to the action of its bowels, for there lies the basis of health. Be careful of its diet. The food and water are germ laden. The fruit is too often over-ripe or unripe. If it has any indication of sickness, either in the form of constipation or diarrhoea, give it a reliable tonic laxative like DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN. This remedy is a standard in thousands of American homes for just such purposes. It is a favorite with children because its taste is pleasant, and it never gorges. It is the one remedy best suited to the cure of constipation, indigestion, liver trouble, biliousness, sick headache, summer complaint, etc. It is equally as good for grown people, and we know thousands who no longer use strong salts, purgative waters, tablets, pills and such things, but take the surer, more gentle and pleasanter DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN. It can be obtained of any druggist at 50 cents or $1 a large bottle. The entire family can use it, and as these ailments arise suddenly the head of the house should see to it that a bottle of DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN is always at hand.

USE DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN

Those who have never yet used DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN and would like to make a trial, before buying in the regular way, of this medicine, can obtain a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE either for themselves or for a member of their family by sending name and address to the doctor.
