Are all right, but no better than daily addition lots. You may not get Flathead lands, and you will have to hurry if you get lots in daily addition.

We are pretty busy, but not too busy to show you these lots, and our automobile and one of the forerunners at your disposal any time.

Don't forget we are selling lots at $125 with the best water system in Missoula, and we KNOW POSITIVELY that they will be on the street car line. Where can you get anything for twice the money anywhere else in Missoula?

We are not "from Missouri," but we would like to be shown. Wherever you are from, we would like to show you.

NEW BILL AT GRAND MARKET MOVEMENTS IS EXCELLENT OF THE DAY

FIRST OF THE WEEK PROGRAM AT UPTOWN THEATER IS CLEVERLY GOOD.

Every once in a while something goes to the extreme. It was so with the people whose acts were witnessed by hundreds of enthusiastic spectators at the Grand theater last evening. They were, if one may be permitted to use the slang expression, all to the good. The acts were extremely classy and the people presenting them extremely clever. To be in keeping with the rest of the bill, the motion pictures were good and the illustrated song as rendered by Miss Maxwell was very timely. A motion picture reproduction of "The Human Ape" was interesting.

"A Pair of White Ducks," like the title of a book, may not count for much either one way or the other; but in this case proved to be one of the most pleasing, risible comedy skits it had been the good fortune of a Missoula audience to enjoy for some time. Three people figure in the act, and each one of them is an artist in the comedy line. In their act a pair of white duck trousers figure as the center of the cyclone of laughter which is continually provoked during the enactment of the comical story.

Bob Watson is given credit for "specializing comedys," and is certainly "there." He can sing, dance and tell funny stories, stories that are funny. He sings and dances in a delightful way, and to decide whether he excels as a singer or a dancer would be difficult. He appears in the garb of a "bell hop," and uses the vernacular of his medium in a style truly imitative.

The De Armos were substituted for Stanley & Weaver, they being unable to fill their engagement until Thursday evening, and they were decidedly in keeping with their fellow entertainers. In the fact that they are styled as "European" artists in the gymnastic and acrobatic line increases the worth of their act one bit, let them keep the title. With or without it they would be classed as winners in any part of the world. The act they are equipped with is entitled "The Fool and the Circus Girl." They mingle exhibitions of muscle and quick, smooth movement with pantomime comedy in most commendable style.

"Salvation Nell." Mrs. Fiske will bring that wonderful play, "Salvation Nell," to the Harnois theater Thursday, July 22.

Few plays have caused more discussion. It was written by a youngster, Edward Schickel, just graduated from Harvard college and it has been pronounced perfect with the truer psychology of life, and free from the artificial tricks of the older dramatists. The characterization of Nell Saunders is, of course, in the hands of America's greatest actress, and a most capable supporting company interprets the necessary personages. But even so, the consensus of opinion seems to be that no story truer to the life, no more perfect history of the soul sufferings of two unfortunate, thrown among seemingly unconquerable environments, has ever been seen on the American stage. Nell Saunders and Jim Platt, typical east side man and woman, beat back the sequence of disasters which are about to overwhelm them, not by the trick of the playwright's skill, but by the will power which God has given them, and rise through the inspiration of their great loves into the light of happiness.

In this production Harrison Gray Fiske is said to have surpassed even himself as a stage manager, and has succeeded in bettering, if possible, his already famous Manhattan company. The entire company of over 40 people will be with Mrs. Fiske here. Among the best known players are: Holbrook Blinn, Henry Wessman, W. T. Clarke, Herbert Heywood, Mary Madison, Hope Latham, Grace Shanley, Mary Madden, Merle Madden and Gladia Vares.

Lolo Hot Springs stage, leaving Lolo Monday, Wednesday and Friday, fare, $3 each way. Connects with train morning and evening.

And the Manhattan Company in "Salvation Nell" Seat Sale Wednesday, 9 a. m.

NEW YORK, JULY 20.—The stock market might be said to have been awaiting the return of J. P. Morgan, whose return from Europe is expected tomorrow. The aggressive pushers of the recent advance in United States Steel were disturbed by a suggestion that the expected increase of the dividend had not been determined and might be considered as improbable. This was taken to mean that some of the investors believe in postponing the contemplated increase of orders taken until the working off of orders taken at the deep cut in prices, which went into effect in February may open the way to business on a more profitable basis. The rumor of the intended postponement of the dividend increase was accompanied by the argument that a favorable estimate of earnings and of prospects officially made might be relied upon to have as much sustaining effect in the price of stocks as an actual increase in the dividend.

The dragging tendency of the United States Steel proved an obstacle to the efforts to advance prices, and more than once, pulled the market back after it had set out for higher levels. Interest attached in the news that the Union Pacific had sold its $10,000,000 holdings of Atchafalaya preferred to a syndicate under the direction of its own bankers. The inference to be drawn from this transaction was a greater subject than the operation itself. No information was forthcoming as to the intention of the company in disposing of the proceeds of this sale. That the position prevalent and this opened up a new field of speculative conjecture. Union Pacific sold 1/4 higher than its former record price. The time money market held its firm tone, and foreign exchanges rose sharply, giving color to predictions that further large shipments of gold to Argentina remained to be made.

Bonds were firm. Total sales, $1,026,000. United States bonds—The 4's registered declined 1-4 cent in the bid price.

Grain and Provisions.

Chicago, July 20.—July wheat was under heavy selling pressure almost the entire day and at the low point, $1.15 1/2, the price was 2 cents below the closing figure of the previous session. Other deliveries, however, were in good demand for the greater part of the day and at the top were 1 to 1 1/2c above yesterday. The feature of the trading in July was the heavy sales by a leading long which induced considerable selling by smaller holders. Declines in the price of cash grain here and in the southwest also added to bearish sentiment in the July option. Reports were received from Minneapolis, claiming that the growing crop in South Dakota and Minnesota was in danger of damage by rust owing to hot weather. The advice was chiefly responsible for the strength of the future deliveries.

Rumors of injury to the crop by hot weather in Iowa and Kansas caused heavy buying of corn and the market closed strong with prices 1/2 to 1 1/2c higher. Oats were weak at the start, but later the market developed considerable strength. The market closed strong 1/2 to 5/8c higher. Provisions closed 5c lower to 5c higher.

Metal Market.

New York, July 20.—The London tin market was 7/8d lower today with spot quoted at $31 1/2 6d and futures at $33 2 1/2 6d. The local market was quiet, but a shade lower with spot quoted at $28.00-29.10. Copper was lower in the London market, with spot quoted at $58 1/2 3d and futures at $59 5/8. The local market was steady, with Lake quoted at $12.25-13.37 1/2; electrolytic at $12.75-12.87 1/2 and casting at $12.82 1/2-12.75. Lead was lower at $12 1/2 6d in London, but remained quiet at $4.30-4.35 in the local market. Spelter was unchanged at $22 in London and at $5.55-5.60 locally.

Wool Market.

What is it?

In point of fact, it is the freedom from poisonous and spurious ingredients, the excellence in flavor, that gives to their wide popularity and increasing sale. The retail grocers are learning that quality rather than price is necessary to retain the confidence of customers and make a successful business.
