LOCATION OF WOUND IMPORTANT

CONTRADICTION EVIDENCE ON THIS POINT IN SUTTON INVESTIGATION.

Annapolis, Md., July 22.—The variance in the testimony of some of the naval officers, who are witnesses before the court of inquiry investigating the circumstances surrounding the death of Lieutenant James S. Sutton was emphasized at today's hearing by contradictory evidence as to the location of the bullet wound, which caused the young Oregonian's death.

This question has assumed importance in the face of other evidence given, as it would appear that it would have been a much more difficult matter for Sutton to have shot himself, with three men on top of him, if the bullet entered the top of the skull, as Surgeon George Pickrell testified it did.

Colonel Charles A. Doyen, commandant of marines, testified that he examined Sutton's body immediately after the shooting, felt the wound in his head, and it was located on the right side, a little behind and on a line with the top of the ear. Dr. Pickrell thought Sutton might have inflicted the wound upon himself as he described it, but he made an unconvincing and awkward demonstration in court with the revolver, to get the weapon in a position, which would have sent the bullet into his head at the point where he testified it entered Sutton's head.

Considerable progress was made at the hearing and three more witnesses were disposed of. Besides Surgeon Pickrell and Colonel Doyen's testimony, Mr. Davis, counsel for Sutton's mother and sister, finished the cross-examination of Lieutenant Willing, who was on the stand yesterday. Willing made an obstinate and unsatisfactory witness under cross-examination.

EXAMINATION OPENS.

Paris, July 22.—The first witness to be examined by the Rotatory Panama canal commission for the purpose of obtaining testimony in the Panama Hel case was M. Bernaux, who was president of the New Panama Canal company, and now connected with the management of the Credit Lyonnais and M. Lamperre, secretary of the Panama Canal company.

BRINGS HALF MILLION IN GOLD DUST

STEAMER ST. CROIX ARRIVES FROM NOME WITH LOAD OF WEALTH.

Seattle, July 22.—The steamer St. Croix arrived from Nome today with $500,000 in gold dust and bars. On the way down the St. Croix stopped at Cordova and the passengers were taken up the Copper river on a special train 49 miles to the camp where a $3,000,000 cantilever bridge is under construction across the river. This structure is 1,550 feet long, and will be completed in a year and a half. The bridge crosses the river between two large glaciers, the Miles and Childs, the latter having a frontage on the river varying from 300 to 700 feet.

Huge masses of ice weighing hundreds of tons frequently break away from the face and plunge into the river with a report like the roar of cannon.

CANAL EXCAVATION ABOUT HALF DONE

Washington, July 22.—Substantial progress in canal construction all along the line is shown by reports coming to the Washington office of the Isthmian Canal company. Excavation work approximates 50,000,000 cubic yards, almost as much as the total quantity of dirt taken out by the French during the period they were engaged in operations there. Less than 100,000,000 cubic yards of earth remain to be removed from the ditch. Colonel Goethals has estimated that the great waterway will be ready for the transit of ships by January 1, 1915.

FAIR OFFICIALS WANT TO BAR BIG CIRCUS

Seattle, July 22.—The Seattle Chamber of Commerce at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition has petitioned the mayor and the city council to refuse a license to a large eastern circus whose flaming posters are already on the bill boards. The petitioners set forth that the circus should not be permitted to compete with the world's fair and take $75,000 out of the city. Mayor John F. Miller says he is in sympathy with the movement.

INDICTED WIDOW IS LACHRYMOSE

CHARGED WITH KILLING HUSBAND SHE WEEPS WHEN BROUGHT INTO COURT.

Waukegan, Ill., July 22.—Dr. William Miller, Mrs. J. B. Saylor and John and Mrs. Grunden, indicted for the murder of J. B. Saylor, the Crescent City banker, on July 11, were brought into the circuit court here today to make their pleas.

Judge Hoover sustained a motion of the defense to have the cases continued until the November term of court. Mrs. Saylor wept violently as she entered the court room. She was dressed in black. Dr. Miller was composed. John Grunden appeared to be badly frightened. On Saturday there will be a contest between Mrs. Saylor and her dead husband's family for control of his estate. The appointment of an administrator comes up, and under the law Mrs. Saylor has the first choice, but the Saylor brothers will oppose her.

Boy's Life Saved.

"My little boy, four years old, had a severe attack of dysentery. We had two physicians; both of them gave him up. We then gave him Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which cured him, and believe that saved his life."—William H. Stirling, Carbon Hill, Ala. "There is no doubt but this remedy saves the lives of many children each year. Give it with castor oil according to the plain printed directions and a cure is certain. For sale by all druggists."
