

It Was Said Harry Thaw Was Crazy When He Shot Stanford White It May Be He Was But He Made Good

It has been said that the writer of this ad, Jim Rhoades, was crazy when he asked and sold South Missoula lots six years ago for $100 to $150 each, but he made good, and those who purchased from him made good and doubled their money.

I have the same proposition today in Car Line addition. Today we are offering you lots in this beautiful addition at from $50 to $120 each, on terms of $5 cash and $5 per month, with a guarantee of street car service, city water, electric lights, telephone, all modern conveniences, and in less than two years you will say to yourself and your friends, "I could have bought those Car Line addition lots from Rhoades & Rhoades for half what I can buy them for today. I wish I had done so." But it will be too late then; the other fellow who believed in Missoula's future has beaten you to it, and he has made the profits while you sat back and looked on, as hundreds of others have done here the past five years. The fellow that acts is the one who gets the plum; the one who looks and never acts never gets ahead. Act now, act quickly, act on your own judgment, and don't be influenced by the knocker; he ain't got anything and will never have. Come in today and buy yourself a few of these good lots and we say to you sincerely they will make you money and make it quickly.

IN THE THEATERS

At the Family.
"Sappho" broke the record at the Family theater in the way of attendance the past three nights. That's a whole lot to say, for the Van Dyke company for eight long weeks has been packing them to the doors. Commencing tonight, a play absolutely new to this section of the country will be given, and, by the way, the play is owned by Manager Van Dyke himself. It's a comedy-drama and in three acts. The announcement last night before the curtain said that "A Cowboy's Girl" was a play that had been presented throughout the entire east and had met with favor in England and her provinces. For an entire season Manager Van Dyke featured Frank James, brother of Jesse James, the famous bandit, in the leading heavy role. While the play has plenty of sensation and a thrilling love story, its chief claims to distinction lie in the fact that five comedy characters are in constant evidence and produce furious fun throughout the entire show. This play will be presented tonight, Friday and Saturday night. No matinee.

will be given Saturday, as the entire stock company is to visit Ringling Bros' circus.

At the Grand.
For the pleasure of its patrons the Grand theater has received a collection of acts that from the sound of their titles are sure to be winners and promise to rival any ever presented at this theater. The original "Mud Town Four," an aggregation of entertainers consisting of four male comedians, is the feature act. They are styled on the bill as "comedy boomers" and claim to be as good as the name. The Jeunets are wonderfully finished head and hand balancers and they do a stunt in acrobatic gymnastics that is good to look upon, at least according to all advance notices. The act is given credit for being an exceptionally clever one. Cuban de Schom is a vocalist who has won for himself much applause wherever he has appeared. His act is sure to be in keeping with the others of the performance. Miss Maxwell will sing an illustrated song of late composition, and the usual first run motion pictures will be exhibited.

At the Isis.
An exciting story of the civil war, the escape of a party of Union prisoners from the Andersonville dungeon, will be pictured tonight at the Isis theater. The film, which was given a trial run last night, is undoubtedly the most interesting that has been shown at the Theater. Different since its opening and large audiences should be attracted. The first scene of the film shows the federal prisoners in the stockade and gives portrayal of the cruel methods of their guards. The second scene shows the completion of the digging of the famous tunnel and the escape of the captured soldiers. The next shows the exit at the tunnel's opening and the fourth scene tells of the flight through the swamps surrounding the infamous prison. The next scene shows the "underground railroad" in operation and the seventh the pursuit by the confederates, who are following on an engine. Through ten days of thrilling escape and into the northern lines, the film takes the flight of the prisoners.

REGISTRATION TOTAL UNDERESTIMATED

REGISTRAR ARMS SAYS 65,000
HAVE MADE APPLICATION IN MISSOULA.

Looking forward to today as promising to be the largest of any in the way of registration, the notaries public of the city rolled up a total of 3,704 yesterday, bringing the official total, as reported to the local United States land office, up to 57,225. That this total is far from being all-embracing is the contention of officials of the land office. "I am satisfied that the total registration up to now is 65,000," said Registrar Dan Arms yesterday afternoon. "We have given out just exactly 70,000 of the envelopes furnished by the government and there are not more than 3,000 of them yet in the hands of the notaries here. This indicates that from five to six thousand and more persons have registered than have been reported to us."

Yesterday's Total.

The several notaries reported as follows yesterday:
John H. Tolson	91
William H. Dyson	32
Theodore Lentz	47
W. P. Ketcham	41
James L. Wallace	70
Amalgamated notaries	500
Oscar Crutchfield	140
W. T. Graybeal	43
E. L. Freeman	40
Eugene Wessinger	48
C. N. Madsen	64
A. K. Andersen	200
Welling Napton	124
D. D. Hull	83
Major Smead's office	200
Consolidated notaries	506
Total	3,081

Today the Last.

At midnight tonight registration must close, but up to that time the notaries are free to take applications. It is expected that all records will be shattered today and that the official total, even will go way past the 60,000 mark. There was a good crowd on the later trains of last night and it is likely that the official total would be close to 60,000 right now, were the figures available.

Last Stamped.

Spokane, Aug. 4.—The last stampede of parties who are eager to register for Indian reservation lands was in full swing today. Trains were crowded to the guards, landseekers scrambling into the cars through the windows. Hundreds of persons were left standing on the platforms. Registration closes at midnight tomorrow. The total number registered will be close to 200,000.

Barracks Dismantled.

Kalispel, Mont., Aug. 4.—With but one day remaining of the registration period, the crowds are beginning to come again. Registration has exceeded the estimated number of 20,000, and today and tomorrow is expected to be a record breaker. The city authorities have begun dismantling the "barracks," or municipal sleeping quarters, and some thousands of mattresses were removed from the building yesterday.

While the municipal quarters proved not to be a money-making proposition on the result of the expenditure, as the excellence of the lodging insured facilities to visitors from other places which has resulted in much good will towards this city.

ARE YOU GETTING YOUR SHARE?

I feel a sort of responsibility to my customers to keep them thoroughly posted about what's going on here. My idea is not so much to urge you to buy. I'll sell the goods, of course—to somebody. But to make quite sure that you fully appreciate what the special inducements are— And that you don't miss them unless you want to. I never carry goods over from one season to another and it's this between season stuff that I'm now cleaning up— Underwear, hosiery, shirts, neckwear, caps, etc. They are all very much underpriced.
