PRAIRIE PRESS AGENT.

Formerly the new-born western metropolis had to wait for its newspaper, writes Carl Crow of the "Press Agent of the Prairie" in August Van Norden Magazine; now the newspaper becomes the first surveyor and the promoter, or maybe he goes a little ahead of them.

A promoter from Vermont brought about the new order of things. He had gained his experience selling rocky hill-sides for farm lands, and this had developed enterprising and aggressive new methods. As soon as the site of his new town was located he sent for a poor relative who was running a newspaper in the east, and the Vermont Vanguard came into existence. None of the people who received the first copy of the paper had ever heard of the town of Vermont. It was not necessary to look for it on the map (where it was not shown), for the Vanguard told all about it; and by the time the first train ran into the place, succeeding issues of the paper had constructed quite a substantial and for the municipality.

CONDITIONS ALARMING.

Philadelphia, Aug. 10.—The drought throughout eastern Pennsylvania is becoming so serious that unless rain comes soon the crops will be ruined. Springs and wells are drying up and conditions generally are becoming alarming.

COUNTESS TO MARRY AMERICAN

COUNTESS CASSINI.

Paris, Aug. 11.—The engagement of Countess Cassini to Alce Mosey, a rich young American, has just been announced. The countess is a picturesque Russian girl who is almost as well known in the United States as in her own country. When Miss Cassini was yet in her teens Count Cassini, whose adopted daughter she is, came to America as the ambassador and the vivacious, original and unique young lady who presided over the Russian embassy at Washington soon became the center of attraction at the capital. She was the pioneer woman motorist at Uncle Sam's court; inaugurated the fencing fad; drove the smartest traps and gave new life to society's private theatricals. Aside from the fact which she espoused one after another in quick succession and which she caused to be recognized as the foremost of her time, Miss Cassini (who was elevated while in Washington to the rank of countess) was an object of intense interest to women because of her striking toilettes. Her gowns were invariably bizarre but in good taste and artistic, and she wore them with the air of a Parisian. Indeed Countess Cassini was much more a Parisian type than a Russian. American interest in this human dynamo reached its climax when she became the especial chum of Alice Roosevelt. When after the Russo-Japanese war Count Cassini was transferred from Washington to Madrid his picturesque ward accompanied him, but she did not find the atmosphere of the Spanish court congenial and migrated to the environment where she rightfully belongs—Paris. Here she has been studying under the best masters for several years with a view to appearing in grand opera. Her engagement to several different Americans has been rumored during the past year or two.

NOVELIST IS SICK

London, Aug. 14.—A special dispatch received here today from Christiania says that Bjornsterne Bjornson, the Norwegian novelist, who has been seriously ill at Laurvik, has suffered a relapse and is in a critical condition. He had a paralytic stroke on June 5.

Bjornsterne Bjornson is not only a Norwegian poet, dramatist and novelist, but an agitator for an independent republic in his own country. He has been a prolific writer and has always been the idol of his people. In 1889 he visited America on a lecture tour and delivered a masterful address before 20,000 persons at the Bull's grave.

At one time there was talk about his challenging King Oscar of Sweden to fight a duel because the king criticized his work, but the writer departed from the country at the time. A year ago he celebrated the 50th anniversary of his wedding.

FIVE HOURS IN JAIL.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Aug. 12.—Sam Smith, having a score of burglary charges, and who was twice shot in a desperate attempt to escape arrest, was today sentenced to five hours in state's prison and to pay a fine of $500. Smith has spent the last year in hospital and jail awaiting trial. His sentence is the shortest ever imposed in Wyoming.

George Woods and C. E. Richardson, negroes, charged with burglary, entered pleas of guilty, rather than stand trial on Friday, the 11th.

OPENED FOR TRAFFIC.

Helena, Aug. 13.—The Helena Northwestern railroad, which extends from Conrad, Mont., to Valier, on the Conrad irrigation project, was opened for traffic yesterday. In addition there is being operated a motor car for the accommodation of the land-seekers who will take up 70,000 acres of government Carey act land at Valier on October 7.

BOAT IS CAPTURED.

MORTUARY BENEFIT FUND IS PROVIDED

St. Joseph, Mo., Aug. 12.—A plan for establishing a mortuary benefit fund was adopted by the 25th annual convention of the International Typographical union today. It provides for benefits ranging from $75 to $400, according to the length of membership, and will be submitted to a referendum vote of the printers some time next February. A tax on all earnings of one-half of 1 per cent is proposed. The members of the union now number about 140,000 a year, so the income would be about $200,000 a year. A resolution to send the matters in their stride was adopted. The union has already issued the letters $5000.

Cures Baby's Summer Ills—FREE

The mother should watch her baby very carefully these hot days. If it refuses to play and to eat, if it is peevish and crying, look to the action of its bowels, for there lies the basis of health. Be careful of its diet. The food and water are germ laden. The fruit is too often over-ripe or unripe. If it has any indication of sickness, either in the form of constipation or diarrhea, give it a reliable tonic laxative like DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN. This remedy is a standard in thousands of American homes for just such purposes. It is a favorite with children because its taste is pleasant, and it never gripes. It is the one remedy best suited to the cure of constipation, indigestion, liver trouble, biliousness, sick headache, summer complaint, etc. It is equally as good for grown people, and we know thousands who no longer use strong salts, purgative waters, tablets, pills and such things, but take the surer, more gentle and pleasanter DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN. It can be obtained of any druggist at 50 cents or $1 a large bottle. The entire family can use it, and as these ailments arise suddenly the head of the house should see to it that a bottle of DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN is always at hand.
