LOGS BEING LOADED FOR CHINA

REMARKABLE SHIPMENT OF MAMMOTH TIMBERS TO BE SENT TO FAR EAST.

Portland, Ore., Sept. 3.—A remarkable shipment of mammoth logs is now being loaded here for China, where the big sticks will be used to rebuild the temple Ling Yu, the most famous house of worship in all China. The logs are being loaded on the steamship Emma S. Dollar, the Chinese government having purchased them here after searching the whole world over for the biggest possible trees.

The logs are Oregon fir, 105 feet long and 40 feet in circumference at the butt. They are loaded on the main deck of the steamship, and the bark is left of the ship so they will not chafe. When they reach China the bark will be peeled off. They will be towed up the grand canal for 200 miles into the interior, and then carried overland six miles to the temple, where they will be set up.

The only possible way to get them this six miles is for coolies to carry them. There are 24 of these huge logs, each weighing a tremendous amount. It seems impossible for any number of coolies to transport the timbers in this way, but the fact is vouched for by Robert Dollar, head of the Dollar Steamship Lines of San Francisco, who is now in Portland.

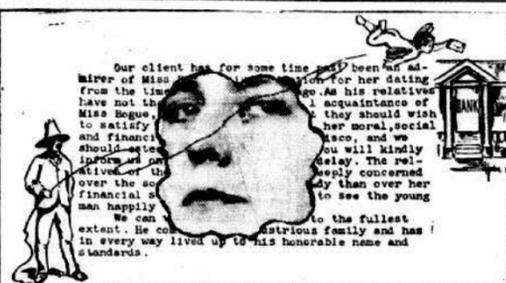

"In my office I have photographs of coolies carrying timbers that squared 24 feet and were 80 feet long," he said. "They were unloaded from one of our ships and a snapshot was taken. The only way to reach the Ling Yu temple is to walk or ride in a sedan chair. The narrow road up the mountain side has been worn by the feet of countless thousands of pilgrims to the temple shrine until it is hollowed out in the middle. It is over this path that the timbers will be carried on coolies' backs. I have visited the temple myself, and although people are incredulous when told that coolies will carry these big sticks for six miles, it is nevertheless true."

The shipment will get away early this month for the Orient.

A Narrow Escape.

Edgar N. Bayless, a merchant of Robinsonville, Del., wrote: "About two years ago I was thin and sick and coughed all the time, and if I did not have consumption it was near to it. I commenced using Foley's Honey and Tar and it stopped my cough, and I am now entirely well, and have gained twenty-eight pounds, all due to the good results from taking Foley Honey and Tar." ## Bank Agent Assists Cupid

Miss Virgilia Bogue, the Prettiest Girl in California, Sought by Italian Nob/Man.

San Francisco, Sept. 3.—If you had the prettiest eyes and nose and mouth in California, wouldn't it make you mad to have an Italian nobelman forward through his bank agents to a San Francisco bank the letter of which the following paragraph is an extract: "Our client has for some time past been endeavoring to find a suitable wife for her daughter. He has not had any success in this regard, and he is now very anxious to satisfy and finance her. He would like to marry a girl who is of the same social position as his own, and who is of the same nationality as his own. He can extend his search to any part of the world, but he would like to see the very best of the world. He is a man of the highest social position, and he is a man of the highest intelligence. He is a man of the highest wealth, and he is a man of the highest refinement. He is a man of the highest character, and he is a man of the highest honor.
