CIVIL CALENDAR HAS MANY CASES

SEPTEMBER TERM OF DISTRICT COURT WILL BE NOTABLE FOR MANY SUITS.

The September term of the district court, which is to open next Monday, promises to be notable for the small number of criminal cases and the unusually many civil suits that are to be brought to trial. The case of John Clayborn, the self-confessed murderer of Pearl Anderson, will, it is thought, not take up much time. Information in this case will be filed direct by County Attorney Mulrooney and, it is understood, Clayborn will enter a plea of guilty.

Criminal Cases.
O. S. Johnson and Raymond Morgan will face a charge of burglary. These two are said to have broken into a Northern Pacific freight car and to have stolen a number of revolvers and other merchandise. W. G. A. Campbell and Gust Swanson, two saloon-keepers of St. Regis, have already pleaded guilty before a justice of the peace to permitting women to frequent their saloons and will simply be sentenced by Judge Webster.

In the civil calendar there are many suits that are of interest, many of them being actions for damages. The calendar contains the following cases:

REV. AND MRS. J. W. TAIT OF FIRST METHODIST CHURCH GUESTS AT RECEPTION.

An interesting event was the reception tendered to Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Tait last evening by the congregation of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Missoula. The reception was in honor of the returning of Mr. and Mrs. Tait to the local church for another year, their fourth term. The church and the church parlors were attractively decorated in bunting and flowers, and Thomas Layfield presided over an informal program. J. H. Inch, superintendent of the Sunday school, delivered an address in appreciation of Mr. Tait and his wife and their work in the local church, and was followed by the church quartet, which rendered several selections. A solo was sung by George Tippett and Misses Ruth James and Leila McDonald gave instrumental selections. J. E. Patterson ended the program with the presentation of a gold watch to Mr. Tait, the gift coming as a tribute from the Epworth league of the church. The serving of refreshments and an hour of social intercourse closed the evening.
