

HOLINESS IS HEAVEN BOOSTERS ARE URGED TO UNITE

DR. H. O. BREEDEN DELIVERS BEAUTIFUL SERMON IN CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Before an audience that left no more room in the house Dr. H. O. Breedren delivered one of the most tenderly beautiful sermons ever heard in Missoula in the Christian church last night. Taking for his text the first verse of the 11th chapter of John, he spoke in part as follows:

"If I-I-I spells hell, h-o-l-i-n-e-s-s spells heaven, for hell is no more the result of sinful living than heaven is the result of holy living. If misery is inseparable from sin, happiness is inseparable from holiness. Heaven is holiness."

"I am interested in heaven because I have loved ones there, and I expect to go there when this fitful dream called life is over. Is there any man who feels no interest in the present whereabouts of lost loved ones? Can a mother who cannot sleep till she knows that her child is safe in bed be indifferent concerning the state of those she has laid away in 'God's acre'? Heaven cannot but be interesting to the heart that is sad because of the vacant seat at the hearth. 'One world at a time' is no satisfactory world with which to dismiss the question of another life. The other life—the spiritual life—is the real life. The things that are seen are temporal; the things that are not seen are eternal. To dismiss the other world is to dismiss the only world that will endure. This life is only 80 spans long. The other life is eternity. Will a man dismiss as less worthy of his thought eternity, that he may devote his whole attention to a fragment of time?"

"What and where is heaven? It is where God is, and what God is in His beautiful and tender attributes—where and what the Father is, Abraham's bosom was the shelter and comfort of the patriarchal arms. Heaven is all that is meant by the infinite arms."

"Heaven is perfection of beauty—the beauty of holiness—the beauty of whiteness. In order to its perfect satisfaction and pleasure the eye demands absolute harmony in form and color. Heaven will be perfect vision absolutely unoffended—perfectly satisfied."

"Heaven is social perfection. It is blessed companionship. No man who prefers eternal solitude to eternal fellowship could enjoy heaven. It is the assembly of saints—the fellowship of kindred spirits."

"Heaven is perfect knowledge. 'We shall know as we are known.' 'We shall see Him as He is.' Even in this world men find sweetest pleasure in finding out things worth knowing. Coming to larger and larger measures of knowledge will be one of the joys of heaven."

"Heaven is perfect service and worship. The greatest thrill of joy ever experienced by the Jewish people came during those annual visits to the holy city, when, led by the great temple choir, the great throngs lifted up their voices in praise to the God of Hosts. The joy of praise will be one of the chiefest joys of heaven."

"Heaven will be perfect compensation." As an illustration of compensation the eloquent preacher quoted Riley's tender little poem, "Don't cry, little girl, don't cry."

"We shall be satisfied, we shall feel fully compensated for all that we have been called upon to suffer, when we shall see the things that were born of our sorrows. If the statue could think it would rejoice in the blows of mallet and chisel of which its beauties were born."

In connection with the sermon Professor Saxton sang two touchingly beautiful and appropriate solos.

Dr. Breedren's subject tonight will be, "What Are the Wages of Sin?"

The following invitation was mailed yesterday to the business men of the city and to others who are interested in the exploitation of the advantages of the city. Mr. Morris is anxious to have the boosters of the city get together, and he has suggested the method outlined below as a means of doing this in an agreeable manner. As soon as the responses to the invitation have been received the details of the meeting will be worked out. Mr. Morris has received, he says, plenty of encouragement from those to whom he has spoken in regard to the matter. The letter mailed yesterday has a return slip attached and reads as follows:

"Dear Sir: From personal observations I have come to the conclusion that the time is ripe for the formation of a Missoula 50,000 booster club, to work in conjunction with the Missoula Chamber of Commerce. There is no apparent need of going into details and complain about unpaved streets, lack of good sewerage system, of the necessity of better fire protection and of the need of publicity so that others may know how the Almighty has favored Missoula. Scores of eastern people flock to our city looking for a place to settle, and leave the city ignorant of our advantages."

"To properly promulgate this idea it is proposed to have the initial meeting of the business and professional men, bankers, etc., at a public gathering to be held at the Elite or any other suitable hall, with a banquet at $1.50 per plate, with music, good speakers, etc., to give the club a proper start, and to this end it is desired that you reply to this letter within five days, stating your views, and also advising the writer whether you expect to be present, so that we may govern ourselves accordingly."

"Awaiting your early reply, I am, Yours truly,"

CLAIM OF RAILROAD IS DENIED

BILLINGS LAND OFFICE TURNS DOWN NORTHERN PACIFIC COMPANY.

Billings, Sept. 15.—The Billings land office today through Register C. L. Harris and Receiver W. M. Enright, refused the application of the Northern Pacific railroad for some 30,000 acres of land in Carbon county, claimed by the railroad as indemnity for other lands which were originally granted to the road by the government, and which have been found to contain minerals other than iron and coal.

The lands claimed by the railroad as indemnity lie in the southern portion of Carbon county and are known to be rich in deposits of coal. Had the claims of the railroad been granted, the holdings of the road in this section of the state would have been more than doubled.

The land office based its objection to the claims on the fact that a great portion of the land claimed has been suspended by departmental regulations governing coal. All of it was at one time a portion of the Crow reservation, and when ceded by the Indians to the government was, by proclamation of the president, declared to be for disposal to actual settlers only. All of it is beyond the limit from the main line of the railroad provided by law for the selection of lands by the road and all of it is subject to a special method of appropriation.

VICTIM OF BIG FIRE BURIED IN WALLACE

Special to The Daily Missoulian.

Wallace, Idaho, Sept. 15.—The sheriff today received a sack containing the effects found on the body of J. H. Mulherson, who was burned to death in the recent fire at Grand Forks. A partially-melted mass of silver, containing what was originally a watch and $8, offsets the story that the man had been robbed and murdered. The woman to Salt Lake who claimed that the dead man was her husband has failed to confirm her statement, and the body was buried today.

STRIKE CALLED OFF.

Fall River, Mass., Sept. 15.—The striking weavers at the cotton mills have accepted a 5 per cent increase in wages and will return to work tomorrow. The weavers struck on Monday, demanding a 10 per cent advance.

CHINAMAN ALLOWED TO REMAIN

FOO DUCK WINS OVER IMMIGRATION AUTHORITIES AFTER YEAR'S FIGHT.

After a year of waiting and fighting, during which time his case has been carried through the United States district court into the circuit court of appeals, Foo Duck has been granted permission to remain in this country, and he will not, as he had feared, be forced to return to the land of his fathers. For one year Foo Duck has enjoyed the freedom of the United States, the country to which his father, Fong Kee, emigrated some 20 years ago, and now that the powers that be have decreed that he be allowed to stay here, there will be a big celebration in the Duck family for the Kee family, or whatever may be the name of the family tree of which young Foo Duck is a branch.

The young Chinaman is a little over 21 years of age and when he arrived at the home of his father, who runs a little notion store on West Front, United States commissioner Wallace F. Smith at once took steps toward having him deported. The case was taken to the United States district court, where Judge Hunt decided in favor of Foo Duck. The case was appealed, however, and yesterday the court of appeals, sitting in San Francisco, supported the previous decision and gave the stranger formal permission to remain in the country.

Fong Kee is a little, gray-haired, wizened, old man, who has lived here for some 20 years and, as he has during all that time run his quaint little notion store in a basement on West Front street, he is slow to get the news of the world, even when it concerns the ambition which has, for the last year, been his dearest one. When the news was brought to him last night he was sitting by the fire, smoking his long, oriental pipe, and when the name of Foo Duck was mentioned he grew a little suspicious of his visitors. As soon as the message was delivered to him, however, he became all smiles, and calling his son to the room, he had the telegram telling of the court's decision read over and over again. "Foo, him velly fine boy," he said, "him go to school now and soon be good American, eh. Now, him stay here alee time. No have to go back to China. Foo been here little more than year. Lead that paper again." When the telegram had been "read" again, he turned and repeated the news to Foo in Chinese, for Foo is still too new to the country to have mastered the difficult English, and then, turning to the messenger, he said: "You velly fine boy. Come again some time. Goodnight."

So it happens that the United States has gained a new citizen and China has lost forever the almond-eyed Foo Duck.

FIREMEN OF STATE HOLD ELECTION

KallsPELL, Sept. 15.—The State Firemen's association had its business meeting this afternoon in O'Connell hall, their regular meeting place, and selected the following officers for next year: Peter Sanger of Butte, president; David Noble of Butte, secretary; and George C. Lepp of Anaconda, treasurer; W. B. Piper of Havre, J. C. Bebb of Lewistown and M. Peters of Walkerville, trustees. Butte was selected as the place to hold the next annual meeting. After the election of officers was over, the discussion of topics of interest to firemen was taken up and several subjects discussed. Tomorrow is the day of recreation, when the visitors will be taken to Somers by automobile, thence to Big Fork, on the lake, and home by automobile up the east side of the river. In the evening will be the ball in the opera hall.

COMING HOME.

Paris, Sept. 15.—The Kaiser Wilhelm II., sailing from Cherbourg today for New York, had as passengers Glenn H. Curtiss, the American aviator; E. H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation, and Mr. and Mrs. John R. McLean of Cincinnati.

COLORED RANCHER'S BARN IS DESTROYED

Special to The Daily Missoulian.

Thompson, Mont., Sept. 15.—A fire, supposedly of an incendiary origin, destroyed a large barn filled with hay, grain, wagons and farming implements on the farm of William Mc-Norton, a colored rancher living about 12 miles from Thompson, early yesterday morning. The news of the fire was brought here yesterday by the rancher himself, and according to his story it would seem that the building was set on fire. The members of his family claim that they heard the sound of human voices leaving the rancher as he tried to check the blaze and all are confident that the fire was started maliciously by some one.

The building was a large one and a very substantial structure. The fire destroyed it completely and it was only by the greatest effort that the ranch house was saved. The house was deluged with water, and even milk, and came through the blaze without injury. The barn contained most of the farming implements which the rancher had, and these with a lot of hay and grain make the estimated loss about $5,000.

They considered the bonds a work of art, and wanted to know where they could be obtained. Mr. Bond answered that the bonds were printed by The Missoulian.

WHEN A MAN'S FIFTY

When the average man reaches the age of fifty years, his body begins to break a little at the hinges. Motion is more slow and deliberate. Not so young as he used to be. It is a frequent and unwise thought which troubles itself. Little indulgences in the way of rich food and stimulating drinks must be foregone. Certain bodily functions, upon which good health and good spirits so much depend, are impaired. THE BLADDER

When this organ becomes affected, even in a slight degree, it gives rise to most unpleasant symptoms. Painful and annoying complications, which are generally disagreeable in nature, result. This is particularly true with elderly people. The important feature of the matter is that the trouble can be observed and cured. A remedy is at hand which is at the same time effective and inexpensive—GOLD MEDAL HAZELNUT OIL CAPSULES.

This old-fashioned, time-honored home remedy stands without an equal as an effective and sure remedy for all Bladder, Kidney, Liver and Stomach troubles. It has been used over 200 years, and thousands testify to its efficacy. Lately, however, many worthless and injurious imitations have sprung up. The Pure Food and Drug Law is making it difficult for these frauds. The genuine, reliable, trustworthy Hazelnut Oil is named GOLD MEDAL.

Gold Medal Hazelnut Oil is put up in two forms, in Capsules and Bottles. Capsules 25c, and 50c. per box. Bottles 15c, and 30c, at all druggists. Be sure you obtain the Gold Medal Tilly brand.
