KATHERINE ELKINS RETURNS

YOUNG WOMAN REFUSES TO DISCUSS REPORTED ENGAGEMENT.

New York, Oct. 7.—Miss Katherine Elkins arrived today on the White Star liner Adriatic, after a stay of several weeks in Europe, during which, it has been asserted and denied, that she had met the Duke of the Abruzzi, to whom at one time she was reported to be engaged. It was reported at the same time that royal objections to the match had been withdrawn, and that Miss Elkins was the sole dictator. With Miss Elkins was her mother, Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins, and her two brothers, Stephen and Davis. The latter was asked: "Is your sister engaged to be married to the duke?" "So far as I know she is not," he replied. "Would you know if an engagement existed?" "Not necessarily," he replied. Mr. Elkins added that if his sister and Abruzzi had met, he did not know of it, and said he did not believe they had. Senator Elkins was on the pier to meet his family. Miss Elkins denied herself to all interviewers. Some photographers endeavored to get a picture of Miss Elkins, but her brother and some friends crowded around her to prevent it. Senator Elkins remarked that his daughter had been driven almost to distraction by the reports that had been printed about her. She has the appearance of having been through much mental strain.
