THE APPLE SHOW.

Today the first Western Montana Apple show opens its doors. The labors of President Dorman and his associates have insured the success of the show as to its value as demonstrating the resources of the orchards and farms of this part of the country.

AT SAN ANTONIO.

Happily, not all of the picturesque features of Texas have disappeared along with the slouch hat of the governor which has yielded to a tie.

AN IMPROVEMENT.

Chief Vealey of the police department announces an improvement in the local service that will be effective at once and will be appreciated by those who have occasion to call an officer.

PORTOLA.

San Francisco's anniversary pageant, which is to be held this week, and which will be in some respects similar to the recent celebration in New York and upon the Hudson, will not commemorate an incident as remote in history as the Hudson-Fulton anniversary, but it will be as important in some of its aspects.

hundred and forty years since Gaspar de Portola sailed through the Golden Gate and discovered the Bay of San Francisco. Put even this span of years is something; it emphasizes the fact that we are, year by year, acquiring a history of our own—rapidly, too, as the years are checked off. And, although our centuries are not as many as those of Europe, we have made up for our late start by making history at a much faster rate than they do it across the Atlantic.

Mr. Bryan of Lincoln says he hopes nothing will arise to make it necessary for him to enter the next presidential contest. There are millions of American citizens who share that hope.

The going price for north-pole lectures presents added inspiration and new incentive for the discovery of the south pole, which cannot be long delayed under present conditions.

There are six weeks of the football season left. With all the important games yet to be played, there is every probability that the casualty list will be up to the average.

While we may not be able to correct Senator La Follette's tariff views, we shall certainly succeed in imbuing him with an admiration for the McIntosh Red.

Mr. Crane must overcome his admiration for the sound of his own voice if he is to attain success in the fields of diplomacy.

It requires no affidavit to prove the excellence of western Montana fruit. You can see the apples yourself.

The democrats of Missouri are to hold a peace conference. It will be much like a Kilkenny fair.

Senator La Follette, also, will share honors with western Montana apples in point of drawing power.

Attend the apple show today and every other day this week. It will help you and help Missoula.

Make the apple show a success this year and a permanent event in years to come.

The open season for football brings more fatalities than the open season for deer.

Seattle's fair closed as happily as it opened, which is an unusual experience.

Boost for the apple show by buying plenty of the admission tickets.

President Dorman is the boss this week, and an efficient one.

The Indian may be civilized, but not by the use of whisky.

Take your friends to the apple show.

CHICAGO NEWS LETTER

The experimental ban on mail at Chicago's postoffice general delivery windows against girls who haven't their parents' consent, wives who haven't their husband's permission, and who could not identify themselves under the names to which letters were addressed continues to cause consternation to thousands of people—principally women who call and are confronted with the new rule.

The fortune at stake in the fate of John R. Walsh will remain one of the most dramatic evidences of the poor boy's chance in the United States. For while not of the Hawley or Harriman rank, it runs into many millions. The statement of securities taken by the associated banks of Chicago when they liquidated to depositors of the Chicago National bank and other Wash banks proved to include $2,500,000 of bonds of Illinois Southern railway, over $2,000,000 of bonds of the Southern Indiana railway, $1,400,000 of Illinois Southern stock, the Bedford stone quarries and other items which bring the total to $14,000,000.

San Francisco's anniversary pageant, which is to be held this week, and which will be in some respects similar to the recent celebration in New York and upon the Hudson, will not commemorate an incident as remote in history as the Hudson-Fulton anniversary, but it will be as important in some of its aspects.

TIN SOLDIERS NEAR CRITICAL DATE

NATIONAL GUARD MUST CONFORM TO ARMY STANDARDS OR LOSE APPROPRIATION.

Washington, Oct. 17.—January 21, next, will be a critical date in the history of the national guard. It was announced today, for thereafter no portion of the money appropriated by congress for the support of the militia can be paid to any organization that fails to conform to the standards of the regular army.

IN THE THEATERS

The Spokesman-Review has the following to say of "Texas," the comedy-drama that comes to the Harnois theater tomorrow night:

"He's a bold, bad man, the desperado. With its luring cowboy's song and its breezy western atmosphere, 'Texas,' a comedy-drama of the southern plains, by J. Maudlin Feigl, was presented by a capable company at the Auditorium theater last evening.

"The old story of the ranchers' fight against the cattle thieves, the scheming Englishman seeking to enrich himself by purchasing what appears a poor pasture, but which he knows to be a rich field of gold ore, the love of the hero cowboy for the rancher's daughter and the infatuation for her of the Englishman, all blended together nicely in 'Texas,' with not too much of one or too little of the other.

"Harlan Fox, as 'Freshwater' Jack, played a difficult role with excellent judgment, freeing the play from a charge of too much melodrama by his careful handling of the sensational shooting and fighting scenes. His sly and open-hearted frankness made him most acceptable in his other work.

"Emily Clifton made a pleasing Texas West, the impetuous but loving daughter of the rancher. Roy LaRue, as 'Tank,' one of the cowboys, made one of the hits, and with John H. Hazelton as 'O'Connell,' Oliver Lawrence as 'Sam Sorrell,' and Hope Gage as 'Jennie Peppercorn,' the 'wild woman,' upheld the comedy features admirably.

"The work of Jack Marvin as Pasquale, the villainous half-breed, was above the ordinary, copying with favorable exactness the manner of Frank Chapman in his famous characterization of 'Trampus' in 'The Virginian.'

"'Lena Rivers' has proved one of the season's successes, and, apart from the dramatic excellence, the company interpreting it has had much to do with the hit it has made everywhere. The cast calls for more than ordinary skill and intelligence on the part of the artists and the management has supplied a company meeting every requirement.

"Miss Emma Bunting, who heads the organization, is an actress of more than ordinary beauty and talent. 'Lena Rivers' will be one of the early offerings at the Harnois theater, the date of its appearance in this city being Wednesday, October 20.

"'Cameo Kirby'." Dustin Farnum's best character creation and Booth Tarkington and Harry Leon Wilson's latest remarkable play, 'Cameo Kirby,' come to the Harnois theater next Thursday, October 21.

"The Talk of New York." In the coming presentation of George M. Cohan's musical sensation, 'The Talk of New York,' local music lovers and theatergoers in general are promised an organization most complete in individual excellence. The New York Herald says: 'It is full of life, light and color.'

"Every boy and girl who calls at The Missoulian office today will receive a Zim-flicker.

NOTES OF GOTHAM.

New York, Oct. 17.—Backed by millions of dollars and thousands of hard-headed business men, the art of aviation has, for the first time in history, begun to be put on a practical commercial basis in this city today. Struck by the sight of Wilbur Wright outspending the gulls in his historic flight along the Hudson river, the public here has developed a passion for skyward joy-riding which, it is promised, will soon be turned into a market for practical autos of the air.

Courts Closed. With 25,000 weary litigants lingering about their doors and 400 defendants imprisoned for months to await their pleasure, the civil and criminal courts of this town have today begun to grind away at their clogged calendars after three months of vacation.

Hurrying Home. At the record rate of 8,000 souls a day the great greyhounds of the ocean are this week returning to this port the last of the tourists who have roamed abroad by way of summer vacation. Never before has Gotham seen such crowds pour back from the docks of the liners, and seldom has this autumn influx of European trippers made off throughout the country as expeditiously as it is distributing itself today.

More's Makings. To make almost $8,000,000 in not quite four months is rather a rare feat even in this city of sudden fortunes. Now that little Mr. Morse, the former ice king, has laid claim to just that accumulation of capital in his return to the city, his friends and observers declare they see in the demonstration of the sure return of busier, better times.

Following the floats of the Hudson-Fulton carnival, a great caravan of moving wagons is today winding its way from the old to the new homes of the city. This is the first of a series of similar semi-annual household exodus that has been held up by the wild disorder of the celebration week, and the middle of the month will hardly see every family finally settled in its new niche in the vast residence sections.

AFTER DOCTORS FAILED

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Her.

Willemantle, Conn.—"For five years I suffered untold agony from female troubles, causing backache, irregularities, dizziness and nervous prostration. It was impossible for me to walk upstairs without stopping on the way. I tried three different doctors and each told me something different. I received no benefit from any of them, but I am restored to my natural health."

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills, and suffering women owe it to themselves to at least give this medicine a trial. Proof is abundant that it has cured thousands of others, and why should it not cure you?

figured that the deposits in the bank belonged to him and not to the keeper, and as other persons have done in the past he decided to appropriate them for his own use.

A new record in elevator travel was established here this week when within seven days six cars in a single building totaled 500,000 passenger miles.

"Can be depended upon" is an expression we all like to hear, and when it is used in connection with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy it means that it never fails to cure diarrhoea, dysentery or bowel complaints. It is pleasant to take and equally valuable for children and adults. Sold by all druggists.
