SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON FOR TODAY

Paul a-Prisoner Before Festus and Agrippa—Acts 25:6-12; Chapter 26.
Golden Text—I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day. 2 Tim. 1:12.
Verse 1—Who was this Festus referred to in this verse?
From the preceding five verses what had the Jews requested Festus to do?
Verse 7—On what principle can you explain the bitter hatred which the Jews had for Paul?
Will a religious bigot, who is full of hatred as these Jews were, stop short of swearing to a lie to accomplish his purpose?
Should any Christian believe or circulate a charge against any person that he has not got ample proof of?
Verse 8—As a matter of fact had Paul, in any sense, broken any Jewish law?
Which, at this time, were really in the most unenviable situation, Paul or his accusers, and why?
Verse 9-12—When a judge or a magistrate favors the prosecution and makes harsh remarks against the prisoner during the taking of the evidence, thus prejudicing the jury, is such a man fit for a judicial position?
When a Christian is accused of wrong doing, and is innocent, should he insist upon his innocence or be patient and silent, and wait for the facts to speak?
Paul was no doubt wise in refusing to go to Jerusalem, but he was equally wise in not insisting that his trial be finished at Caesarea, and in his appeal to Caesar?

If you were a minister to be tried for heresy, which tribunal would you rather select, a prejudiced conference, or synod, or general assembly, or convention, or a committee of secular high court judges?
Chap. 26:1-11—Who was this Agrippa and what had brought him to Caesarea?
If a man's cause is just, will a knowledge of all the facts always help him?
What are the leading points here outlined of Paul's defense before King Agrippa?
"Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you that God should raise the dead?"—v. 8.
Was Paul any better when he persecuted and caused Christians to be put to death, than the Jews were then in wanting to put him to death?
How do you estimate Paul's character before the conversion?
Verses 12-18—What points of resemblance are there between Paul's conversion and that of a sinner's today?
Why did Paul so frequently describe his conversion?
What was God's object, as here described in Paul's conversion, and what is God's object in every conversion?
Verses 19-23—Is it possible that some sinners get a call from God fully as marked as Paul's, and yet refuse to comply and go on in their sins?
What difference is there between a man before and after he turns to God?

(This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)
Verses 24-27—Why did Festus interrupt Paul and say he was mad?
Why did not Festus and Agrippa both turn to God, seeing that they were clearly convinced of the truth of Christianity and their needs of salvation?
Why are not all persons Christians who have heard the voice of God calling them to repentance?
Lesson for Sunday, October 31, 1909—Paul a Prisoner—The Voyage. Acts 27:1-26.
SOFT, GLOSSY HAIR.
It Can Only Be Had Where There Is No Dandruff.
Any man or woman who wants soft, glossy hair must be free of dandruff, which causes falling hair. Since it has become known that dandruff is a germ disease, the oil hair preparations that were mostly scaly irritants, have been abandoned, and the public, barbers and doctors included, have taken to using Newbro's Herpicide, the only hair preparation that kills the dandruff germ. E. Dodd, Dickinson, N. D., says: "Herpicide not only cleanses the scalp from dandruff and prevents the hair falling out, but promotes a new growth. Herpicide keeps my hair very glossy. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10¢ in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Two sizes, 50¢ and $1. Missoula Drug Co., special agents."

EYE STRAIN

The effects of eye-strain are not always confined to the eye, and this is the reason the eye is seldom suspected of causing the trouble. Your vision may be perfect and your eyes apparently normal, but whenever there exists a condition of unbalanced nerves, or when the organ does not function properly, eyestrain should be suspected until proven innocent.

I pity all who suffer and continue to "cure" (?) their headaches with drugs, which can give them only temporary relief by semi-paralysis of the nerve centres in the brain, and for all who reply to the foregoing by saying that I have only a mercenary interest in advocating the use of glasses, I have nothing but pity for the smallness of their pessimistic souls.

Come and investigate and ask questions.
