MEETING TONIGHT

At the rooms of the chamber of commerce tonight, as announced in The Missoulian yesterday, there will be a meeting for the purpose of hearing Professor Thomas Shaw, the Great Northern's agricultural expert. Professor Shaw has been working for some time in the Northern Pacific's territory and yesterday made a partial tour of the Bitter Root valley in company with C. H. McLeod, who last night took him to Hamilton, where he will spend today with W. J. Moody of the Bitter Root Irrigation company. There is no man in the west who has a better general knowledge of agriculture than Professor Shaw and the opportunity which is afforded to hear him tonight should not be missed; there should be a large audience at the chamber of commerce rooms that will demonstrate that Missoula fully appreciates the courtesy of the visit and the importance of the talk which will be made. Professor Shaw is one of the men who are contributing greatly to the development of the northwest.

FINE DAY FOR DUCK

Yesterday was a fine day for ducks—there was gunning enough to furnish plenty of excitement for the water fowl, but the shots were not accurate enough to cause any great degree of mortality amongst the flock. Frank Smith and Tom Hickey went up the Bitter Root with guns and dog and automobile—the duckhunters now go all the time in the buzz wagons. The trip was pleasant, but the ducks were scarce; there were four ducks in the whole valley that were within range and three of them were brought back. But it was not what you would call a good hunting trip. Frank Shoemaker, Harry Thompson and Otis Worden went up the Blackfoot; they found more ducks there and, naturally, brought back more; but the day's kill was not the old-fashioned kind. In those days the hunters didn't go to the sloughs in automobiles and there are oldtimers who hold to the opinion that it is the gasoline wagon that has made the ducks so scarce this year. Whatever the cause it is certain that there have not been as many as was expected.

CEDAR CREEK

There was considerable interest yesterday in The Missoulian's story of the big dredge on Cedar creek and there was much discussion of the suggestion that there should be a local delegation to accompany the Kansas City members of the dredging company when they come out to visit the plant next week. "Missoula should pay more attention to such matters as these," said one business man yesterday. "This company has spent nearly a quarter-million dollars in the construction of its new plant in this country; it has built good roads without aid from this county and it has constructed a plant that will add vastly to the business of this part of the state. There has never been much notice taken of the work and Missoula should extend a bit of a welcome to the promoters of the work and to the men who have carried it through when they come out here. I like the suggestion that some of us go down and look over the plant when they come here."

SHORTY VISITS

General Foreman David Davis of the Milwaukee shops at Deer Lodge was a Sunday visitor in Missoula, having come down for the first call upon his old friends since he left here to go to the new position which he is filling so creditably. He received a cordial welcome and he used all the time there was in the endeavor to get around to all of his friends in Missoula. But there were not enough of the hours; he did the best he could, but he didn't get half-way through the list of friends whom he wished to see. He left his regards for those whom he was unable to visit and the next time he comes he will take up the list where he left off yesterday afternoon. "Things are in good shape at Deer Lodge," said Mr. Davis in reply to a question. "The new shops are fine and we are getting them into good shape for work; there has been great news to do, but we have a fine plant there and the town is a pleasant place to live. I hope to get down here often now that we are getting settled."

A GOOD BOOSTER

The Weekly Kalmia, the students' newspaper at the state university, is improving every week. It is getting bigger and better and the current issue is highly creditable to those concerned in its publication and to the institution which it represents. The advertising patronage which the city extends to the publication is encouraging and goes to make it possible for the students to issue such an excellent publication; but it is the dash and spirit of the Kalmia that commend it particularly and it is developing into a splendid booster. Measured by the standard of earnest effort in behalf of the university, the present issue of the Kalmia is one of the best that has been turned out. The plea for school spirit is well made and should awaken a response. The Kalmia should take up the task of rousing greater personal interest in the university on the part of the people of the city. That is the one thing most lacking at present in connection with the development of the institution.

COUNCIL MEETS TONIGHT

This being the first Monday in November, the city council will hold its regular meeting this evening. There is a lot of unfinished and routine business to be cleared up and this will probably occupy the whole time of the meeting.

DARING HIGHWAYMEN ROB TAILOR

H. T. GARDNER, JUST OUT OF CHURCH, HELD UP ON LOT ON SOUTH SIDE.

H. T. Gardner, a well-known tailor of the city, is minus a gold watch, a bank book and 10 cents as the result of a holdup which occurred last evening on the path across the vacant lot which is just opposite the Garden City Commercial college on South Fourth street west and at a late hour this morning the highwayman had not been apprehended.

Mr. Gardner had just left the Congregational church on South Fifth street west, where he attended the regular Sunday evening services, and started to town, intending to put out the lights of his shop, 322 North Higgins avenue. He was walking across the lot on Higgins avenue between Fourth and Fifth streets and was halted by two men, both young and neither one wearing a mask, who showed guns in his face and told him to throw up his hands. He obeyed the orders and was "frisked" thoroughly, the robbers unbuttoning his coat and vest. The men helped themselves to a bank book, a gold watch and 10 cents, all the money he had with him, and then told him to "beat it" along Fifth street to the west and not to look behind him on pain of his life. He followed the injunctions faithfully, but went around the block and came down Fourth street, where he met Patrolman Sweeney, one of the south side policemen, to whom he reported the affair. Then the alarm was turned into the police station and men were sent out to look for the highwaymen, with no success, as the footpads left absolutely no clues.

The victim reports that the robbers were young men, one being somewhat taller than the other, and gives a fairly good description of them. The watch stolen is a hunting case gold watch with a monogram on the back and would be easily recognized.

STINGER KNEW IT.

In the settlement of the Stinger & Campbell partnership suit out of court, which has been mentioned in The Missoulian, the agreement distinctly states that satisfactory evidence has been produced that there was no fraud. Mr. Stinger desires the statement made that he knew at all times that he had collected the money paid the firm by the Milwaukee for right of way and that he deposited it in the bank; the question which he raised was with regard to the subsequent disposition of the money.

MACKAY GOES THROUGH.

Clarence Mackay, president of the Postal Telegraph company, accompanied by Vice President Adams and other officials, passed through Missoula on No. 6 last night in his private car, the Grassmere.

J. E. McLeelan, who underwent an operation at St. Patrick's hospital Friday, was much improved yesterday.

MISSOULA BOOSTER IN SOUTH

MAN FROM "SHOW ME" LAND IS SHOWN GARDEN CITY AND SINGS ITS PRAISES.

Charles Schrage, one of Missoula's most progressive business men and all-around boosters, has received from a friend in St. Joseph, Mo., a clipping from one of the morning papers of that city which is highly complimentary to Missoula. It is as follows:

"Missoula, Mont., is one of the most remarkable towns for its size in the United States, according to W. F. Maxwell, assistant cashier of the First National bank who returned yesterday from a week spent in Montana. "Missoula spent one million last year for buildings. The Masons are just finishing a $75,000 temple. Missoula has a theater, which rivals anything St. Joseph has and there was a cracking good show there every night last week. We saw as fine dressed crowds at these shows as one sees anywhere. "Missoula has six good hotels and property in the business section of the city sells for $1,000 a front foot. One acre in the business section of the city sold for a million dollars last year. They were holding an apple show while we were there. The show was being held in a big tent and the displays were wonderful. The fruitgrowers of the Bitter Root basin will give $1,000 for an apple produced in that section which has a worm in it. However, the flavor of these apples, which sell in Missoula for as high as $2 a bushel for export, will not compare with that of a northwest Missouri apple. We saw potatoes which I believe would weigh eight or 10 pounds, produced in the beautiful Bitter Root basin, a valley hemmed in by towering mountains, and as picturesque a sight as I ever saw."

MONTANA MAY PLAY GONZAGA

Manager Darrington of the Gonzaga football team wired the manager of the University of Montana football team yesterday asking for a date with the Montana bunch next month in Spokane. Some time ago the Missoula manager asked for the game with the local college team, but it seemed impossible to arrange a date then. Now negotiations have been opened again, and if arrangements can be made the university team will play in Spokane. The request for a date with Montana was made after it was found the date with Butte would have to be set forward a week, and this would leave the college without a date for the end of the schedule. Coach Downer of the Butte team is having a hard time to settle his games, and the Gonzaga date may have to be changed to help him out.

POULTRY FANCIERS TO MEET

There will be a meeting at 8 o'clock this evening in the rooms of the chamber of commerce for the purpose of organizing an association of poultry raisers. The movement is backed by a number of raisers of poultry and promises to be well attended. The idea of an association is thought to be a good one, as a number of similar organizations in other parts of the state have met with unqualified success. The chicken enthusiasts of Anaconda and Deer Lodge county have a strong organization and at the state fair held a few weeks ago pulled down a number of first and second prizes for the excellence of their fowls. Although chickens are raised more extensively than are ducks, geese and other barn yard fowls, the association is not to be formed exclusively of chicken raisers; in fact, they will comprise about half of the membership.

DISPERSED BY TROOPS.

Feoul, Oct. 31.—Several hundred rioters who a few night ago set fire to the union station and who reassembled the following day and were proceeding northward have been dispersed by troops.

SPOKANE WELCOMES AGITATORS

"Officer, what's the charge?" "Free speech and inciting a riot, your honor." "Sixty days on the rock pile—here's a pick."

The determination to flood the Spokane city and county jail by the I. W. W. is considered by the authorities as most opportune.

About 300 or 400 able-bodied men are needed on a life-sized rock pile to break stone for the new Monroe street bridge.

At a recent conference of Chief of Police Sullivan and Sheriff Pugh it is stated, the arm of the law came to the conclusion that it would not be right to deprive willing workers of an opportunity to help build the Monroe street bridge. It was the consensus of opinion that the way would be made easy to railroad the free speech artists to a good steady job.

The police department and the sheriff's office will combine forces next Tuesday morning to receive the visiting members of the I. W. W. and co-operate to make their stay in Spokane one long to be remembered. It is tacitly understood that as fast as the street speakers declare their intentions they will be immediately branded as lawbreakers and placed under arrest.

Little time will be lost in reaching the police judge and a new recruit on the rock pile will be hailed with delight by the police guard who, under the circumstances, will attempt to break a record on crushed rock for the Monroe street bridge.

It was stated today by the city administration that if one stockade was not enough, another would be built, as there are several rock piles within the city limits on which work can be started immediately.—Spokane Chronicle.

NEW SCHEDULE GOES INTO EFFECT

NORTHERN PACIFIC TRAINS ARE NOW RUNNING ON FASTER TIMECARD.

At one minute after midnight yesterday the Northern Pacific's new timecard went into effect and the trains of the great transcontinental road began running on the new and faster schedule which was announced in The Missoulian Friday morning. Ever since the timecard was first printed there have been nothing but favorable comment from every side. The schedule could not have suited Missoula people better had it been compiled absolutely for their benefit. The ten daily transcontinental electric lighted trains run in a way suited admirably to Missoula's needs. The branch trains are all running in such a way as to give all persons interested the best service possible.

Ten Trains Daily.

There will be, as has been announced before, 10 transcontinental trains daily. Three of these trains will come through in the morning, three in the afternoon and four during the night. The morning trains are: No. 41, the Burlington train, which is to get here at 8:35; No. 8, the Duluth train, which is due at 10:30; and No. 4, the new Northern Pacific limited, will arrive at 7:08 a. m. In the afternoon No. 3 will get in at 12:10, No. 7 at 1 and No. 2 at 5:18. The four night trains are No. 1, at 10:40, No. 5 at 12:05, No. 42 at 9:45 and No. 43 at 7:15.

Branch Service.

The Bitter Root trains, Nos. 207 and 208, will leave at the same hours as formerly, the first at 8 o'clock in the morning and the latter at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Nos. 206 and 208 will get in on a new schedule, however. No. 206 gets here at 5:20 in the afternoon and No. 208 at 8:40 in the morning.

The Coeur d'Alene train will leave Missoula at 12:20 p. m. and will arrive here on its return trip at 4:40 p. m. The local division trains will run on nearly the same time as before. No. 197 leaves Butte at 6:30 p. m. and gets into Missoula at 10:10, and No. 195 will leave the Smoky city at 8 o'clock in the morning, getting here at 11:50. On the return trip No. 196 will leave Missoula at 8:50 in the morning and will get into Butte at 1:10 p. m., and No. 198 will start from here at 4 o'clock in the evening, getting to Butte at 10:10.

Ladies' Long Black Coats

A sample lot of 35 long black coats, fortunately just received, enables us to offer Missoula ladies a treat.
