MOVED

Into Our New Store—First Door North of Old Store Room
Our business grew too large for the old store.
We invite our friends and customers to call and see us.

There were big doing last evening at the home of County Clerk F. W. Kuppel, on the south side. The occasion was nothing less than the 63d birthday of the county official, and the celebration will be remembered by all of those who were fortunate enough to be present. One of the guests read a poem, composed especially for the occasion, and there were other enjoyable features. The Missoula Maennerchor sang several selections and there was plenty of other music. A toast to a long life for Mr. Kuppel ended the party, and it is safe to say that if he lives to be 125 he will not have a more enjoyable birthday.

A NEW BOOST
"I don't know his name, but he's a good booster," said Ed Rohkramer last evening. After the proper amount of urging, Mr. Rohkramer explained that a man had come to him with a proposition to lease his building at 217 West Cedar, with the purpose of living there. "I told him," said Mr. Rohkramer, "that I wanted nothing but a business place there and he said that was all right with him. So we made out the lease and he put in a stock of groceries and opened up. I hope he does well, for he had enough confidence in the town to start right in. He comes from Wallace."

Sam F. Moulton of the Laura Winston Stock company thinks a lot of the play that is to be produced next week. "It depicts early life in Idaho," he said yesterday, "and there are many strong climaxes to stir the lovers of melodrama. Miss Winston and all of us are mighty well pleased with Missoula and only hope that Missoula is as well pleased with us. Miss Winston has the reputation on the coast of carrying the best wardrobe of any leading woman in stock and her gowns are making their customary hit here. Good houses have been seeing our performance every night, in spite of counter-attractions, and we hope for a long run in the Garden city."

MOULTON AT THE FAMILY THEATER TALKS

There are probably a few people in the Billiken who didn't know that yesterday was the birthday of Lizzy's BIRTHDAY. Lizzy, but it was. He admitted it himself and while he didn't sign any affidavits, proved his claim to a right to celebrate by inviting Mozart and Hapgood to a birthday dinner. Now, there is something about such an occasion that is convincing and Lizzy managed to convince everybody that he was born on November 3, some twenty odd years ago, without being forced to go back to Michigan for a pair of Eskimos. Laying aside all joking, Lizzy—whose other name is Neil C. Perry—did, honest to goodness, have a birthday yesterday and those few who were let into the secret were hearty in their congratulations.

M'CLELLAN NAMES THREE WOMEN

New York, Nov. 3.—As one of the few important official acts which will fall to Mayor George B. McClellan before his administration closes, December 21, he appointed today three women to the board of education and thereby conceded one of the principal demands of woman suffrage organizations. It is the first time in more than a quarter of a century that women have gained representation on the board, and the news, heralded through women's suffrage ranks tonight, was welcomed as a victory.

The three women appointed today, each of whom represents a different religious faith, are Mrs. Herbert D. Robbins and Miss Olivia Leventritt, daughter of State Supreme Court Justice Leventritt, both of New York City, and Mrs. Alfred S. Best of Flashing, L. I. Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the World's Women's Suffrage league, said tonight the victory undoubtedly was due to the insistent pressure brought to bear upon every recent administration by woman's clubs and suffragette organizations.

FORTY-NINER DIES.

Park City, Utah, Nov. 3.—One more "forty-niner" passed away with the death of Robert Bone, whose body was found today near the Glencoe mine. He was last seen on Saturday when he started to his cabin from a neighbor's. It is supposed that he was taken ill and death ensued from exposure. Bone was born 61 years ago at New Haven, Conn., and went to California in 1849. His friends claim the distinction for the old prospector of never having made and lost several fortunes.

APPLE SHOW OFFERS AMUSEMENT

ATTRACTIVE FEATURES OF ENTERTAINMENT ARE TO BE SHOWN AT SPOKANE.

Spokane, Nov. 3.—Attractive amusement features, have been prepared for the entertainment of visitors at the second National Apple show, which will open its doors at Spokane the morning of November 15. There will be four band concert daily during the week, two by Reemer's National Apple Show band of 22 pieces, stationed in the state armory, and two by the second National Apple Show band of 20 pieces in the main exposition hall. The bands will be consolidated and head the down town parades under the direction of A. G. Reemer.

The vaudeville programs are headed by the Billikens, a troupe of three women and four men, in an act replete with songs, dances, burlesque features and comedy acrobatics. The act is announced as an original travesty on Billiken, "the god of things as they ought to be." Lucile Palmer, soprano, who was a favorite in Spokane before joining the San Francisco Opera company a year ago, will also be heard. Miss Palmer had a leading role with the organization on an extended tour in Canada and will go on the road after the close of the apple show. Clayton, Jenkins and Jasper, the latter a trick mule, have a new act which has been well received at eastern state fairs. Patsy Comar, a comedy slack wire performer, also has an interesting act, called "Uncle Sam and Bridget, the Wash Lady."

The Chesters, hand balancers and acrobats, headliners in the vaudeville world, and Flood and Hayes, noted barrel-jumpers, have been engaged. Then there are the Edmondson Twins, six years of age, weighing 47 pounds each, in boxing contests. The Spokane Elks' quartet will appear on the evenings of November 18 and 19 in several new selections, and C. A. Heath, a noted local colored baritone, will sing several times during the week.

A. G. Barnes' trained animal show, the new illusion, called "Pomona, the Goddess of Fruit," and Henry Hammond Ahl's famous painting, "The Shadow of the Cross," called the miracle picture, are added attractions.

There will also be a series of demonstrations under the direction of Miss L. Gertrude Mackay, head of the domestic science department of the Washington state college at Pullman, who will be assisted by a half dozen pretty young women in the preparation of apples as a food.

PLANS ARE FILED.

New York, Nov. 3.—Plans were filed today for four model six-story tenements to cost $250,000, which are to be used for the accommodation of sufferers from tuberculosis. Roof gardens, open-air balconies and other features designed to combat the white plague will make the tenements distinctive, and only moderate rentals will be charged.

GEORGE BELLEW DIES IN PLUNGE

WELL-KNOWN YOUNG MAN IS DROWNED IN POOL AT THE LOLO HOT SPRINGS.

Coroner W. D. Kendrick was notified by telephone at 1 o'clock yesterday morning that George Bellew, one of the best-known young men of western Montana, had been accidentally drowned in one of the plunges at Lolo Hot Springs, about 40 miles southwest of Missoula, while in bathing. The coroner, in company with Major Samuel Bellew, the young man's father, W. R. Wise and Newton Hyde, left Missoula several hours later and made the rough trip to the springs, where the coroner made an investigation.

According to the stories told the coroner, Bellew, who had been in the employ of the Northern Pacific, where he was connected with one of the surveying parties under W. D. Clegg, along with four other men, went to the springs to go in bathing. That was about 5:30 o'clock Tuesday evening. In the party was Charles Thomas, left Missoula several hours later and made the rough trip to the springs, where the coroner made an investigation. George, the son of Major and Mrs. Samuel Bellew, was born at Fort Logan, near Helena, on May 6, 1876, and removed to Missoula with his parents when he was one year old. He lived the rest of his life in Missoula and on the Flathead Indian reservation, where for a number of years, his father was Indian agent. He received his education in the public schools of Missoula. Besides his parents, he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Ed Ward of Hamilton, and Mrs. Wallace S. Smith, who resides in the Battle-Spokane district. The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

POLICE SEARCHING FOR HER MISSING SON

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 3.—Police in Washington and Oregon, Idaho, Montana and the provinces of British Columbia and Alberta are searching for William A. Munroe. He is a son of Mrs. Dwight Baker of Plainsfield, Wis., who says in a letter to Chief of Police Sullivan of the local department that she is deeply grieved over his strange action in not communicating with his family. She fears he has met with an accident.

Mrs. Baker writes that her son came to Spokane two years ago last summer and when last heard from, on June 22, he was about to accept employment with a lumber company near Colbert Junction, Wash. His sister, Mrs. Ely Lake of Park Rapids, Minn., wrote to him several times at that point, but did not receive a reply.

Mrs. Bird Curtis, husband of William's former employer, advised us in response to a letter, Mrs. Baker says, "that my son had been at their house before my letter reached them, but they have not heard from him since that time."

RATE HEARING CLOSED.

"Whereas, His only crime was his unswerving devotion to the ideals of freedom and his belief that workingmen's children should not be given over to a clerical institution to have faith and dogmas moulded into their young minds, but should be taught to think and reason, and

A large number of deputies armed with rifles were placed on guard to protect the negroes from a mob, the members of which declared they must be lynched.
