At last the question has been solved. The championship of the Northern Pacific offices has been decided and Chief Clerk Bunney now holds all the laurels in the hunting line...

variegated career and he was justly proud of it. He leaned on his gun and surveyed the trophies of his skill for several moments before he became aware of the remarkable flow of words which was coming from the before-mentioned enraged proprietor.

It happened this way: The last time that the chief clerk was hunting he used up all his ammunition and broke his gun getting the one grouse which he brought in as his share of the spoils.

MARKET MOVEMENTS OF THE DAY

New York, Nov. 13--The copper stocks furnished the object of a speculative diversion today; in the dullness which held the general list, the return from abroad of a number of capitalists credited with having a deciding voice in negotiations believed to have been under way for consolidating copper interests was made the occasion for the demonstration in that group. Guarded admissions were interpreted by the speculative element as confirmation of reports on the subject which have been in circulation, but no authoritative announcements were made.

This movement acted as a tonic on the stock market. Statements were made that foreign lenders were offering funds in New York and that the great private bankers were applying resources for the protection of the call loan money market.

There was a large flow of gold into the Bank of England today, largely from the Bank of France. Prospects are that further gold will go out to South America. Trade reports were encouraging and returns of October earnings of railroads were sufficient to indicate a high-water mark for that month.

The appearance of the bank statement confirmed the confidence of those who had expected the surplus to be conserved, the enormous loan contraction reported operating, in fact, to add substantially to the margin of the surplus. Bonds were heavy. Total sales (par value), $2,043,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call for the week.

DEATH SENTENCE FOR MURDERER BRINK

ATTORNEYS TO PRESENT PETITION FOR COMMUTATION TO LIFE IMPRISONMENT.

Basin, Wyo., Nov. 13--Herbert Brink, who Thursday was found guilty of murder in the first degree in connection with the killing of Joe Allemand and two other sheep herders in the Tenseep country last April, was today sentenced to death by Judge C. H. Parmelee.

His sentence, however, will be commuted to life imprisonment by Governor Brooks upon presentation of a petition, which later will be presented by attorneys for the state. George Saban, accused of being the captain of the cattlemen's raid which destroyed the sheep camp and murdered three of its force, and Alexander, another member of the party, was sentenced to 20 years in the penitentiary on pleas of guilty of murder in the second degree.

Charles Ferris, who with Albert Keyes, turned state's evidence and will escape punishment, is charged by Brink as being the man who fired the shot that killed Allemand. All of the men, however, while pleading guilty, declared that they were innocent, but were making the sacrifice to save Brink.
