NOVEMBER 19.

"That this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth." It was November 19, forty-six years ago, that Abraham Lincoln spoke these words which have become immortal. He was standing upon the field which had been the scene of the most terrible carnage ever recorded in warfare; the nation was yet in the throes of that awful struggle; yet Lincoln's faith in the American people and in the permanency of the government was steadfast. The new birth which he then and there foretold came with awful travail, but freedom lived. When we look back and see that splendid faith and that steadfast courage, shall we not renew our confidence now, even though the nation be seeking to adjust itself to new conditions, and shall we not take new hope and added faith in the eventual triumph of our national institutions? Out upon the man who prophesies the destruction of our government and upon him who professes to lose faith in our people. In the present contest for the rights of the people, right will triumph.

PRACTICAL FORESTRY.

Too many critics of the forestry work in this country are prone to take snap judgment and to condemn the work of Mr. Pinchot without understanding what it is leading to or what it embraces. Forest conservation is nothing new, although it had never been practiced in this country until the Pinchot idea was incorporated into our national policy. In Europe the timber wealth has been conserved carefully, with the result that we are able to learn, if we will investigate, the great benefits which accrue to a nation through the protection of its woods. Prussia shows the whole world the benefits of practical and economical forestry. Her seven million acres of forests are as extensive as the pineries of the southern states and many of those of the middle and western states combined. No more wood is cut than the forest produces; as a consequence the forest growth and the amount cut have risen sharply. In 1890 the yield was twenty cubic feet per acre; in 1895, twenty-four cubic feet; in 1899, fifty-two cubic feet, and in 1904, sixty-five cubic feet. The quality of the product has increased with the quantity. The percentage of sawn timber rose between 1890 and 1904 from nineteen per cent to fifty-four per cent.

THE OTHER SIDE.

The comment on the case of Crane, summarily recalled as he was about to sail for China to assume the duties of minister at Peking, has been largely to the effect that Mr. Crane was not fairly treated; the Knox side of the affair has not been very generally understood, and this fact adds interest to a statement of the case by Orville H. Stewart, who is the Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, a man of long service at the capital and with special experience in matters pertaining to the department of state.

Mr. Stewart declares that Crane was removed out of deference to Japan, the man was so avowedly anti-Nipponese that it would have been dangerous to have him represent this country in the diplomatic danger zone. He did not evince any desire to acquaint himself with the rules and procedure of diplomacy. The writer continues, instead of taking the thirty days period of instructions, required of all new diplomats and consuls, to familiarize themselves with questions pertaining to their posts, method of procedure, correspondence, etc., he spent less than one week in Washington, altogether, and not more than two whole days at the department. Although given a copy of the formal diplomatic instructions on his first visit, he apparently ignored them and violated four paragraphs of them, including one based on a federal statute.

In his New York speech Mr. Crane said his instructions "from the president and secretary of state" were of the simplest sort. Yet in his public statement he declared he was compelled to depart with neither instructions nor credentials. He rushed away without obtaining his credentials, and they were forwarded to him. As to his charges that Mr. Wilson declined to see him, the assistant secretary had him at his house as a guest one night and part of two days. Ambassador O'Brien, who had come from Tokio for conferences on the far east with Mr. Crane, Ambassador Rockhill and the state department officials—was pressed by Mr. Wilson to remain over at his house for a conference. Mr. Wilson took ill with appendicitis next day and was unable to keep a second appointment.

Mr. Crane had cut short a conference with Second Assistant Adee, during Mr. Wilson's illness, when he was to receive final instructions and his credentials. On August 4 a conference was held between Ambassadors O'Brien and Rockhill and Mr. Crane and E. C. Baker, acting chief of the far eastern division. The department had looked forward to this as of considerable importance, but Crane, impressing the others with his conviction that he could learn nothing of importance, brought it to an abrupt end.

One phase of the demurrage question which the commissioners should consider, is the case of a man who has to wait three days to have his car "spotted" and then is penalized if he doesn't unload it on the jump.

"If all the workmen had been true to themselves, there would not have been a non-union product on the market," says John Mitchell, and he places the responsibility in the right place.

The Sioux who are to colonize a tract in Nicaragua will find they are locating in a lively country, and by judicious participation in revolutions, may elect their president.

In the effort to have "a clean, honored flag flying from the masthead" of journalism, Colonel Watterson has, all his life, played a conspicuous part.

A sugar factory might add to the sweetness of the Bitter Root, but the beauty of the valley is hard to improve upon.

Those who are acquainted with the idiosyncracies of Poker Jim do not wonder that his wife wants a divorce.

$32,000 IN CASH IS LEFT BY ALMSTAKER

San Francisco, Nov. 18.—When the estate of Mrs. Susanna Moore was probated by the public administrator today it was discovered that the woman, who was supposed to have died in poverty, possessed a fortune appraised at $32,000, of which $32,000 was in cash.

Mrs. Moore lived in a hotel in this city and for years was a charge of the Catholic Benevolent association. After the fire of 1894 and up to the time of her death last year she received aid from the Red Cross society.

Most of the money, which Mrs. Moore obtained from various charitable organizations, was lent to the Baptist Church building association. Two cousins who live in the east are the sole heirs to the estate.

MILLIONAIRE SUICIDES.

LaFayette, Ind., Nov. 18.—Elias Ray, one of the wealthiest land owners of Indiana, killed himself today rather than go to court to face trial for the alleged murder of one of his employes last spring. He struck the man with a club during a quarrel. Ray leaves a million-dollar estate.

LAKE STORM DAMAGE.

Cleveland, Nov. 18.—The second severe storm of the autumn season on the great lakes abated today and marine traffic was resumed. It is estimated that $500,000 damages was suffered by marine interests.

CALL FOR STATEMENTS.

Washington, Nov. 18.—The comptroller of the currency today issued a call for the condition of banks at the close of business November 16, 1909.

PILGRIMS RECEIVED BY POPE

HIS HOLINESS CONDEMNS METHODS OF FRENCH GOVERNMENT TOWARD CLERICALS.

Rome, Nov. 18.—Pope Pius, in an address to the French pilgrims, whom he received today declared that France was making war against the church with an aim of undermining the basis of Christianity. Catholicism, he declared, was suffering persecution by the French government under the pretext of the separation of state and church.

This was proved, he said, by the expulsion of the religious orders, the trials and persecutions inflicted upon Cardinal Andrieu and other bishops, and the threatened laws which would extend official protection to irreligious teachers and bring about a state monopoly of the schools.

France, which would make the state the arbiter in religious matters, was at the same time fighting the French bishops who were faithful to the pontiff. These bishops were not allowed, the pope said, to enjoy the liberty granted by French laws to all free citizens, but on the other hand were insulted, tried and condemned for the sole reason that they were courageously fulfilling their apostolic duty. All this, the pope said, instead of depressing most animate Catholics to defend their religious rights.

The papal words are accepted here as confirmation of the opinion that the Vatican believes the struggle organized by the French government on the school question is intended to be a decisive battle for the complete effacement of Christianity as a factor in the rearing of children in France.

Text Books Burn.

Paris, Nov. 18.—Mothers of the Catholic pupils at the young girls' school at Chaquaysur Doubs in Saone et Loire today made public bon fire of the extradicted text books used by their daughters. At other places in that commune Catholic girls withdrew from the schools.

WASHINGTON MAN BUYS PROPERTY IN RONAN

M. J. Benedict of Hillyard is an Enthusiastic Booster for the Flathead.

Among the bidders at the government's sale of Flathead town lots yesterday was M. J. Benedict, a former merchant of Hillyard, Wash. Mr. Benedict has purchased some property in Ronan during the afternoon and is already beginning preparations to go into business. He is enthusiastic over the new country and his faith in the Flathead is unbounded.

"I am going to go into the hardware and general merchandise business," he said, "and I am elated over my prospects. I have had some experience in fruit raising myself and from what I have heard of the reserve the valley will some day be a second Bitter Root. It has the same elevation as this famous valley and is subject to the same climatic conditions. The water supply is abundant in most places, and I understand that dry farming will be easy on the non-irrigable portions. The soil is all of volcanic deposit and will raise anything that is raisable."

"Business men are already pouring up there. An electric plant has been planned for Ronan and all manner of business houses will be built there soon. I am enthusiastic over the country and hereafter Missoula and the Flathead will have no more persistent booster than myself."

The Value of Proprietary Medicines. is proven by the very large percentage of physicians' prescriptions for the same remedies found in every drug store in America, but as they are written in Latin, few patients realize this fact.

The old standard proprietary medicines like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that have stood the test of time, deserves a place in every family medicine chest, and it is most certain they would not be prescribed by physicians if they were able to devise a formula equally as efficacious.

HABEAS CORPUS FOR PATRICK.

New York, Nov. 18.—Albert T. Patrick, who is serving a life sentence in Sing Sing for the murder of William Marsh Rice in 1906, succeeded in obtaining another writ of habeas corpus today through his counsel, William L. McDonald, from Presiding Judge Hirschberg of the appellate division of the supreme court in Brooklyn. The writ is returnable November 23.

CHINKS EATING MEAT OF WILDCATS

FIGHTING MEN FOLLOW SUPERSTITITION IN ORDER TO WORK UP THEIR COURAGE.

San Francisco, Nov. 18.—Wildcat meat is at a premium in the Chinese quarter of this city as a result of the truce between the Yee family and the On Yick tong, which has brought about six murders in or near San Francisco since the first of November.

There is a superstitious belief among the Chinese that if their warriors are fed on the flesh of wildcats they will assimilate the ferocity of the beasts and their fighting efficiency be much improved. The butchers of the Chinese quarter are doing a thriving trade on the wildcat meat among the two clans now at war.

There has been no relaxation of the vigilance of the police of the Chinese quarter. The prominent Chinese who is remotely connected either with the On Yicks or the Yee family is surrounded by a bodyguard of white men whenever he appears on the streets, as it is known that prices have been set on the heads of many by the warriors.

EDUCATOR FOUND DEAD.

Champaign, Ill., Nov. 18.—The body of Professor Wilfrid C. Wheeler of the University of Illinois was found on the campus of that institution. A small bottle was found nearby, indicating suicide. Wheeler is thought to have obtained the poison himself, as he was a member of the staff of the chemistry department. He was 39 years of age and married. He came to the university from Lawrence, Kan.

CHICAGO UNIVERSITY WANTS RULES ALTERED

Chicago, Nov. 18.—Football is in for another overhauling. Members of the University of Chicago board of physical culture and athletics at a special meeting yesterday branded the gridiron as needlessly and prohibitively dangerous, and started action aiming at important changes in the playing rules to guard against accidents.

The Chicago officials went on record as opposed to the game in its present form, and instructed Coach A. A. Stagg to so notify the conference representatives. Coach Stagg will raise the question at the "Big Eight" meeting tomorrow afternoon. This move is the first of the sort taken by a western college and is admittedly the outgrowth of popular protest against the heavy annual toll of deaths and injuries on the gridiron.

"The conference, of course, can make no changes on its own authority," said Coach Stagg. "The actual changing will be up to the rules committee of the United States Intercollegiate association, and I think it is probable that that body will act in a decisive way."

NO NEW TRIAL FOR U. P. MAIL ROBBERS

Omaha, Nov. 18.—Federal Judge Munger today overruled a motion for a rehearing on the part of the five men convicted of holding up the Union Pacific Overland Limited train here on May 22 and robbing the mail car, and sentenced each to life imprisonment at Fort Leavenworth. The men are William Matthews, D. W. Woods, Fred Torgenson, Frank Grikware and Lawrence J. Golden. Notice was given of an appeal. The prisoners will be taken to Leavenworth this week.

WARNING TO CHILE.

Washington, Nov. 18.—The Aloop claim of more than $1,000,000 against Chile, pending for 35 years, has assumed a critical stage. The intimation has been given to the Chilean minister at Washington that unless a final settlement is made within the next few days or the claim is referred to The Hague tribunal on its merits the American legation in Chile will be closed.

BANKERS INDICTED.

Indianapolis, Nov. 18.—The federal grand jury today returned indictments against William H. Marker and Noah H. Marker, former cashier and assistant cashier of the First National bank of Lipton, Ind., charging them with misapplying the funds of the bank.

ATLANTIC CITY NEXT YEAR.

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 18.—The National Grange closed its annual convention here today, with the administration forces in complete control. Next year's meeting will be held in Atlantic City, N. J.

STONE GIVES KEYNOTE OF DEMOCRACY

MISSOURI SENATOR DISCUSSES SCHEDULES OF PAYNE-ALDRICH TARIFF BILL.

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 18.—United States Senator Stone tonight discussed national issues from the viewpoint of the democratic party. The address had been heralded as the probable keynote of the party in the next campaign in this state so far as the tariff and national expenditures are concerned. Senator Stone assured his hearers that chances for democratic successes are growing. He then plunged into a discussion of the tariff, declaring that, after the republican arguments for "infant industries" and "necessity of protecting American workmen against the cheaper labor of Europe" had been nullified by economic advances, the party evolved the argument that protection was necessary to assure manufacturers "a reasonable profit on their investments."

He questioned the constitutionality of levying duties on such grounds, and added: "One class is singled out and it is undignifiedly proposed to levy taxes upon all others to insure a profit upon the investments of this favored class." Senator Stone declared that the Payne-Aldrich schedules average higher than those of the Dingley law.

Will You Do This?

Make this comparison: Take your favorite dessert recipe requiring the use of Vanilla. Use BURNETT'S VANILLA instead of the ordinary kind you have grown accustomed to using through habit. Then notice the wonderful difference in the flavor of your dessert when it is baked. Just one trial like this will convince you of the remarkable superiority, both in rich strength and delicate flavor of Burnett's Vanilla. You will always insist on getting it when you try it once.
