At the office of the county treasurer the quarters are so cramped that it is with great difficulty that the routine business of the financial end of the county is transacted.

AS TO PINCHOT.

Among the state contemporaries of The Missoulian there are some, notably the Butte Miner, who pretend to hold to the belief that we have a personal sordid interest in the Pinchot policy.

Mr. Pinchot has ardent admirers who are impatient of criticism of any part of the splendid work he has achieved. He also has a more valuable asset in a host of discerning friends who are willing to admit, as he himself is, that mistakes have been made and that candid and intelligent criticism of forestry work is helpful for the cause.

It is not to Mr. Pinchot's discredit that he had the admiration of Theodore Roosevelt and that he has the confidence and the warm esteem of President Taft.

TOLD BY THE CARDS.

From New York comes a story that helps us to realize better than we could before the changes that are taking place in the borough of Brooklyn as a result of the passing of Boss McCarren.

time this thing has taken place in the Long Island town. In the days of the late Boss McLaughlin dominoes was the vogue with the faithful; then came the era of McCarren, who loved to sit with gloomy air behind four aces or a royal flush.

TALKING OF MISSOULA.

Everywhere, so visitors tell us, there is talk about Missoula; this city is attracting much attention in the business world and is receiving plenty of notice from those who are looking for a location.

Saturday is shoppers' day and this morning's issue of The Missoulian is a shoppers' edition.

The mince pie is the only formidable rival of the automobile as an agent of death; the automobile acts more quickly but the mince pie is sure.

If the Cook records are as worthless as the Peary people say they are, it is strange that anybody should want to steal them.

If the state university does as well at debate as it did at football, it will be going some.

In contesting the right-of-way, the automobile has to yield the palm to the trolley car.

The longer Mr. Taft delays writing the message, the shorter the document will be.

TOO MUCH COMING, NOT ENOUGH GOING

New York, Nov. 26.—Too much coming in and not enough going out; European consumption of copper is not keeping pace with American production.

It is true copper is selling too low, but over production is responsible. The normal price should be 15 cents; 13 cent copper is too cheap.

FOOTBALL FATALITIES.

New York, Nov. 26.—With the close of the football season statistics show that 29 players lost their lives through the game in various parts of the country this fall.

Hookworm Commission

Dr. Simon Flexner at left, Charles Wardell Stiles at right, and Dr. Edwin A. Alderman below.

New York, Nov. 26.—The importance of the hookworm was brought direct to the attention of the public through John D. Rockefeller's gift of $1,000,000 to fight this disease.

It was only a few months ago that the public looked upon the hookworm as a myth and no end of jokes were made out of that form of laziness which is now analyzed as a disease.

The commission appointed by Mr. Rockefeller is composed of men of national and international reputation in their chosen field of activities, and it is certain that if there is any remedy for the plague in the south lands this commission will find it and successfully fight the disease.

The commission selected includes the following:

Dr. William H. Welch, professor of pathology in Johns Hopkins university and president of the American Medical Association.

Dr. Simon Flexner, director of the Rockefeller Institute of Medical Research.

Dr. Charles W. Stille, chief of the division of zoology, United States public health and marine hospital service, and discoverer of the American species of hookworm and the prevalence of the disease in America.

Dr. Edward A. Alderman, president of the University of Virginia.

Dr. David F. Houston, chancellor of Washington University, St. Louis, Mo.

Professor P. P. Claxton, professor of education in the University of Tennessee.

J. Y. Joyner, state superintendent of education in North Carolina and president of the National Educational Association.

Dr. H. B. Frissell, principal Hampton Institute.

Frederick T. Gates, one of Mr. Rockefeller's business managers.

Starr J. Murphy, Mr. Rockefeller's counsel in benevolent matters.

BOUTELL BOOSTS FOR UNCLE JOE CANNON

Washington, Nov. 26.—"Speaker Cannon never was stronger before the thinking people of the country than he is today."

This statement was made at the White House today by Representative Boutell of Illinois, who had called to see the president and was asked about the situation in congress.

"I know two men," continued Mr. Boutell, "who had entertained feelings of animosity toward Abraham Lincoln, who in after years said that they would willingly cut off their right arms if they could blot out what they had said against him. It will be the same way with a lot of people who now seek fit to say things about the speaker."

CHICAGO NEWS LETTER

Efforts to unite friends of the postal savings bank measure in a national, concerted campaign have brought to the Postal Savings Bank league headquarters in Chicago specific cases showing the results of Uncle Sam's conspicuous failure to provide any saving-made-for system.

One woman contrasted conditions in the United States with those in Great Britain, where the postal savings depositors number about 11,000,000 and the deposits totaled no less than $768,474,125 in 1907. She wrote: "In 1880 my husband, self and seven children landed in America from England with $1,500, after paying our fares, with the money I alone saved in postal savings bank and in the co-operative society. I can truthfully say since I came here, owing to conditions of the country, I have not been able to save anything. It is a disgrace for such conditions to exist."

A Chicago bank is advertising for deposits, saying: "A little from savings bank, said to contain $150, disappeared in the ruins of a house destroyed by fire the other evening in Fremont, Neb., and a search has failed to find it. Money is so easily lost by carelessness, theft or fire."

Nevertheless, the inability conveniently to reach a sound bank to make the deposits or distrust of banks or a natural reluctance to enter a palatial bank with an insignificant sum to start a savings account have been reasons potent enough to make the total sum withheld from banks no less than $600,000,000. Other countries and Uncle Sam himself in the case of the Philippines have established the postal saving system to care for the beginnings of savings accounts. "Seedling savings" they have aptly been called.

City revenue from rent for the street space under sidewalks used in Chicago for a hundred purposes, by downtown cafes, department stores, hotels and wholesale houses, boot-black stands and barber shops will annually add to the city treasury funds $250,000. An immediate collection of $150,000 back rent due the city was authorized by an appellate court decision just handed down by Judge Julian Mack. If this judgment in the "cellar controversy" between the city and tenants of downtown buildings, that has been waged for years, is upheld by the supreme court, outlying districts will also be affected. The space underground that the small fruit dealer, the news vendor or the peddler above ground is compelled to pay for, both by license and by rent, will no longer below ground become a gratuity to be grabbed by his

TWO ROBBER SUSPECTS BATTLE WITH OFFICERS

Bemidji, Minn., Nov. 26.—A robber, whose name is said to be "Jim" Smith, was instantly killed and Deputy Sheriff Andrew Johnson was perhaps fatally shot today in a fight between officers and two robbers who had blown a safe in the village of Puposky, 17 miles northwest of here.

Word was received here from Puposky that the robbers were going toward Bemidji on a railway speeder. Sheriff Hazen, Deputy Sheriff Johnson and Policeman Allen Denner went to the great Northern bridge, a mile west of Bemidji to watch for them.

When the men had approached within 10 feet of Sheriff Johnson they were ordered to halt, whereupon he opened fire on the deputy and wounded him. In the ensuing fight the robber supposed to be Smith was killed.
