

WICKERSHAM DRAWS WOLGAST IS GIVEN AMENDMENTS THE DECISION

PRESIDENT, ATTORNEY GENERAL AND OTHERS CONFER ON COMMERCE REGULATIONS. WHIRLWIND RUSHES AND AGGRESSIVE INFIGHTING WIN FOR MILWAUKEEAN.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Following a lengthy conference at the White House today it was announced tonight that the administration will exert all its influence toward securing a comprehensive revision of the interstate commerce law by the incoming congress. A rough draft of the proposed amendments to the law was submitted by Attorney General Wickersham. The president had as his advisers the attorney general, Commissioner Lane of the interstate commerce commission, and Senators Elkins and Cummins. Frank B. Kellogg, special "trust buster" of the department of justice, and Secretaries Wilson and Dickinson also gave their views.

While the president has not yet made his selection of the men in congress who will be entrusted with the task of putting the legislation through, there are said to be a large number of candidates anxious for the honor of appearing as champions of the White House.

Recommendations looking toward the improvement of the condition of the laboring man which it is desired the president incorporate in his annual message to congress were urged upon the president by the labor leaders, headed by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor.

John Mitchell, second vice president; James O'Connell, third vice president and Frank Morrison, secretary of the federation, accompanied Mr. Gompers to the White House. President Gompers submitted a number of matters. Foremost was one concerning the issuance of injunctions by federal judges, particularly as they apply to personal liberty and their use in the settlement of disputes between employers and employees. The exception of labor organizations from certain provisions of the Sherman antitrust act was discussed.

Group is most prevalent during the dry, cold weather of the early winter months. Parents of young children should be prepared for it. All that is needed is a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Many mothers are never without it in their homes, and it has never disappointed them. Sold by all dealers.

with the commandant of the navy yard. Inefficient work, poor performance, or irregularities under the different bureaus, Secretary Meyer found, has been inspected usually by officers of those bureaus reporting directly to them, so machinery has existed by which independent inspections of ships, shore stations and technical matters could be had. That Mr. Meyer will provide by his new division of inspection.

Extinguishing the bureau of yards and docks, the marine corps and certain other branches of the department, not logically included in any one of the four divisions of duties, will be placed under the assistant secretary.

The old, old story, told times without number, and repeated over and over again for the last 26 years, but it is always a welcome story to those in search of health—there is nothing in the world that cures coughs and colds as quickly as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Sold by all dealers.

IN DISTRICT COURT

The jury in the damage suit brought by Eugene W. Pelkey against the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway company was excused yesterday, pursuant to the arguing of instructions. A motion by the defendant to bring the litigation to a close, on the ground that there had not been shown sufficient cause for damages was overruled. The case of C. C. Lowrey against the same road on similar grounds will probably be called tomorrow, as it is expected that the Pelkey suit will be sent to the jury today.

Yesterday in the district court the suit of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company against D. D. Streuter and F. S. Lusk was dismissed as settled.

The case of W. H. Charaly against Johnson & Olson was continued for the term.

When a cold becomes settled in the system it will take several days' treatment to cure it, and the best remedy to use is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will cure quicker than any other, and also leaves the system in a natural and healthy condition. Sold by all dealers.

The average annual consumption of beer in Bavaria is 248 quarts for each man, woman and child.

A SURE WAY OUT QUICK RELIEF

It is a Positive Fact that in Not One Out of a Thousand of Supposed Kidney Cases Does the Trouble Really Lie with the Kidneys.

Practically all the so-called kidney troubles in reality bladder troubles. Although seemingly entirely distinct, and always may be easily and quickly cured with GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL CAPSULES. There are other troubles which are also quickly relieved by the use of GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL CAPSULES. Full information is given in the printed matter enclosed in each box. The Bladder is the reservoir for discharges from the kidneys. Under normal conditions nature disposes of the contents of this reservoir into the bladder through the ureters. Once the bladder becomes inflamed, however, the contents may be retained for an unusual length of time, thus producing much pain and discomfort, or may be expelled with abnormal frequency and be the cause of much nervousness and trouble. In all such cases the use of GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL CAPSULES will be relieved and finally cured by the use of GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL CAPSULES. GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL is put up in two forms, in CAPSULES and BOTTLES. Capsules 25c, 50c, 1.00, 2.00, 5.00, 10.00, 15.00, and 25.00. At all drug stores. Be sure that you obtain the Gold Medal Tilly brand, otherwise you will get an inferior. Write for free literature.

San Francisco, Nov. 29.—Ad Wolgast of Milwaukee was given the decision tonight over Lew Powell at the end of 20 rounds of fast and at times bloody fighting. Wolgast had the better of the contest from start to finish and the whirlwind rushes and aggressive in-fighting proved a combination that the local fighter was unable to meet. Powell was the favorite at odds of 10 to 8 and he was backed for thousands. It now is conceded by all that Wolgast, after his showing against the Californian, is the legitimate opponent of Champion Nelson.

Terrific Clip.

The fight tonight was remarkable for the terrific clip the fighters maintained and the distinction at any time to break ground or shirk punishment. Wolgast opened the battle as if he intended to make a runaway fight of it. He fairly dazzled Powell with his speed and his aggressive fighting at close range was a revelation. Time and again he drove right and left short-arm blows to the body and jaw and kept his arms going with such piston-like regularity that Powell was all at sea. Try as he might he could not elude the Milwaukeean's determined rushes and the best he could do was to protect himself, let alone administer any punishment. Wolgast devoted his early attacks to the kidneys and soon great red blotches bedecked Powell's back. The men fought almost constantly at close range throughout the entire battle, and while in this position Wolgast sent in smash after smash on the Californian's jaw and face and soon the blood was spouting in streams from his mouth and nose. One round was a repetition of the other, with Wolgast invariably holding the upper hand.

Powell Takes a Hand.

In the 12th round Powell made his showing. It was the most victorious round of the fight and for a moment it looked as if Powell might turn the tables. He sent in several ponderous right smashes at the customer, rushed and forced him to stall most of the round out. Toward the close of the round, however, Wolgast cut loose again and after administering a fearful beating to the Californian, the latter went to his corner in a semi-groggery condition.

Wolgast again took the lead and held it to the end, all the time punishing Powell severely about the face and bringing fresh blood in almost every round. Old ring followers said after the fight that not since the days of George (Kid) Lavigne has a fighter created the impression left by the Milwaukeean. His speed and endurance and aggressive qualities were marvelous. Powell's punches had little if any effect on him. He also showed himself to be the possessor of a powerful punch and it was only Powell's ability to absorb this punishment that prevented a knockout. Powell, although beaten, was not disgraced. He fought a stubborn game fight, but lost to a better man. Powell's face was badly disfigured at the end of the contest and his body also showed evidence of Wolgast's punches. Wolgast did not go scot-free, his left eye being badly swollen, his lips split and his nose somewhat lacerated.

In a scheduled 15-round preliminary to the Powell-Wolgast fight, Tommy McCarthy won from Frankie Smith in the ninth round. McCarthy beat his man down systematically and when Smith sank to the floor more from sheer weakness than from punishment, the referee stopped the contest and gave the verdict to McCarthy.

"HELPING SPIRIT" IN FOOTBALL

championship, of the "helping spirit" that had been shown by all and of his enjoyment of his privilege in taking a part in university affairs. He was warmly applauded.

The Captain-Elect.

Harry D. Mackay, the newly elected captain of next season's eleven, responded briefly to the toastmaster's command. He began by saying that he hoped next year's team would be strong and that he thought the prospects were excellent. He expressed his hope that the team he is to lead will be as successful as the one that finishes the 1909 season as the best in the state. "If we can do as well as they did I'll be well satisfied."

Two Speakers.

J. B. Speer, an alumnus of the university and secretary to the president, spoke next. He was followed by Miss Roberta Satterthwaite, who told of football from "A Girl's Point of View." Miss Satterthwaite spoke interestingly, telling of the affection in which the co-eds hold the gridiron game and the men who play it. Professor Reynolds and Dr. Elrod were the next two speakers. Both

This is the greatest offering in this line ever presented by a Missoula store—the result of fortunate buying and carload shipping.

This Sanitary Couch, No. 2927, is exactly like the illustration, a product of the Simmons Mfg. Co. It is made entirely of metal, the frame finished in brass, springs made of double-drawn wire fabric with helical springs at either end and a double row of oil-tempered spiral springs in the center for supports, positively guaranteed not to sag or rust. Folding sides, making a couch by day, a comfortable bed for two at night. Regular price $6.00. On sale Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at $3.85.

ger at it, but doesn't quite make the team, but takes his medicine lick a well. Professor Reynolds told of the pride he felt in the team's record and of how much the school appreciated the football heroes and their work.

Dr. Elrod told something of early football in the state school when his turn came. It was in the days when the university was housed in what was up to years ago the county high school building and the football eleven practiced near the present site of the Puget Sound's yards. The games, Dr. Elrod said, were played about where the road's freight house now stands. "Dan Heyfron was the captain of the first team we ever had, I think," he continued, "and I wish he were here tonight. We had the same foes as now in those days, the school of mines and the agricultural college, and for a long time our noses were pretty well rubbed into the dirt. One time I was on the road and I picked up a paper at Billings and, behold, I saw a score of 79 to 0 against the Aggies. From that time to this we have had rather the better of it and I hope that in the years to come we will continue to hold the big end."

Dean is Clever.

After F. S. Lusk, one of the university's most loyal friends, had commented briefly on the "team work" feature, Miss Mary Stewart, dean of women, gave a toast. Hers was, perhaps, the cleverest of the evening. She championed the cause of the "scrubs," the people who go the rough things to let the other fellow make the grandstand play. She told of the man who "makes a good stag-

A CROWN OF GLORY.

As Well as a Mark of Beauty is Luxurious Hair.

It has been truly said that the crowning glory of our race is a luxurious head of hair. It used to be thought that this was one of the blessings which the gods bestowed capriciously, and it is only recently that scientists have discovered that its beauty is dependent upon the absence of a minute germ which flourishes in the hair follicles, where it destroys the life of the hair.

To restore this life and kill the germs which cause the mischief is the mission of Newbro's Herpicide. Herpicide surely kills the germs, and is the best hair dressing on the market.

It contains no grease or oil, neither will it stain or dye. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00, Missoula Drug Co., special agents.

Many school children suffer from constipation, which is often the cause of seeming stupidity at lessons. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are an ideal medicine to give a child, for they are mild and gentle in their effect, and will cure even chronic constipation. Sold by all dealers.
