Chest Protector Weather Is Here

If you have weak lungs you surely need the protection that a good chest protector will afford. Chilling the chest is serious business with some people. It may mean an entire winter of suffering or a serious case of pneumonia. Don't take the chance when protection may be had at a slight cost. We can sell you a well made chest protector for as low as 50 cents and up to $2.00.
We also have the chamomile vest, the best made at $2.50 and $3.00.

There is no getting away from the fact that the holiday season has arrived. The thermometer showed it last night; the displays in the store windows gave the fact away; the toy-sale openings were infallible reminders of the advent; the air of expectancy which enveloped the youngsters was another sign—these were enough but there were more if they had been required to convince. The smooth ice at the new skating rink caused many to forget the cold and the wind which whistled down the canyon at intervals was unheeded by those who glided over the perfect surface of the rink. There was no snow and it was not very cold; the fact that we have been having Indian summer until now made it seem a bit chilly; there was a scurrying for coal and for overcoats; but it was just fine winter weather and the Saturday night crowd that made the stores lively until late indicated that it was without discomfort. When the reports from other places are read this morning, Missoula people will wonder that they even thought it was cold here.

IT IS HERE

Never in Missoula was there such a beautiful collection of holiday roses shown as was on display yesterday at the Missoula Nursery company in the Higgins block. Magnificent American Beauties were there and, dividing honors with these favorite flowers were specimens of the new rose, the Killarney. This new blossom is a delicate pink, as large and as finely formed as the American Beauty, but excelling it, in the estimation of many by reason of its dainty hue. This splendid showing of holiday flowers elicited much comment and people paused in the bustle of the wind to admire the display. Sales Manager Scully was kept busy answering questions regarding the beautiful blossoms and both he and Charles Dallman were required to name many times the new rose to those who saw it for the first time. This brave showing of roses at the opening of the season is a forerunner of the beauties that may be expected before Christmas comes.

WINTER ROSES

Bright and early yesterday morning the trackmen of the electric railway were at work on the new line; before the sun rose the dirt was flying on Higgins avenue and East Front street—but it was not flying in the nice soft style that had characterized its earlier movement in the construction work; it was raining in chunks, whose size depended upon the strength of the man with the pick who had pried it loose. It was hard digging, but Roadmaster McCulloch kept his men on the job and there was a good deal of work done during the day. The frozen chunks do not tamp very well, but they will soften in a day or two when the weather man gets back from his vacation. Meanwhile the track department is doing the best it can, which is all anybody can do.

DIGGING IS HARD

The first taste of winter has suggested a good winter notion to W. W. Bradley of Locust street. Mr. Bradley has exchanged from the city record the old ordinance which requires all owners of property to keep the sidewalks in front of their premises clear of snow all winter. This ordinance is an ancient law but it has been a dead letter so long that many citizens had forgotten all about it; most of the city walks have been free from snow all through August but there have been some upon which the January drifts have been so deep that it has been close to August before they were cleared. Then the sunshine had to do it. But Mr. Bradley's good scheme, contained in an announcement which he made yesterday, includes the operation of a snow plow and a shovel gang all winter when there is snow, with the outfit he will keep all walks clean whose owners pay him the modest sum he asks. It's not bad—not bad, indeed.

A GOOD SCHEME

Judge Reeves is in the city, recovering from the effects of a serious fall which he sustained in Hamilton last week and which resulted in severe injury to his knee. During his stay in Missoula the judge is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. A. W. McKeown, on the south side. Yesterday the judge sent word to The Missoulian that he is recovering in good shape and that he expects to be able to go back to Hamilton in time to appear in the cases of his clients which are set for trial at this time of the district court. Judge Reeves asks particularly that his Hamilton friends do not worry; he will be on hand.

A NEW ATTORNEY.

Attorney William F. Wayne of St. Paul has located in Missoula and has opened an office in room 2, Masonic temple. Mr. Wayne is a graduate of the law department of Colorado State university in the class of 1899 and was a member of its faculty the year following. During the past nine years he has been engaged in legal editorial work on the staff of the West Publishing company of St. Paul, assisting in the preparation and compilation of their legal works, the Century and Decennial Digests and the National Reporter System.

MOVING INTO WET COUNTY.

Wulfage, Idaho, Dec. 4 (Special).—As a result of Kootenai county voting "dry" the entire town of Ferrell is preparing to move across the St. Mary's river to the opposite bank, which is in Shoshone county, still a "wet" territory. Ferrell is a logging center.

COURT FINDS PENNY GUILTY

SMALL HOLDS THAT MOVING-PICTURE MAN VIOLATED SUNDAY CLOSING LAW.

Justice of the Peace Small yesterday decided that T. C. Penny, proprietor of the Bijou moving picture show, was guilty of keeping his place of business open on Sunday, and sentenced him to pay a fine of $15 and costs, the fine being made small because of the fact that this is a test case to try out the state law, enacted in 1885. Marshall & Logan, attorneys for the defendant, immediately filed notice of an appeal to the district court, this acting as a stay of judgment. The case will be taken before Judge Webster as soon as possible, and County Attorney Mulrooney has stated that he will then be satisfied. The case is an important one and has attracted much interest, as the people of the city are awaiting the outcome, upon which depends whether or not the moving picture houses will be permitted to run on Sunday.

AT THE GRAND.

At the Grand theater Monday evening the bill to be presented will be comprised of three acts which are reputed to be exceptionally clever. Alton brothers' refined singing and entertaining act is said to embody perfection itself. Florette in spectacular novelty dancing has proved herself to be a very capable person and has won a great deal of applause for her efforts. The act of Woodward, tambourine spinner and novelty juggler, departs somewhat from the cut-and-dried form of juggling and it is so much the better for the fact. The motion pictures will be as interesting as in the past and of new and interesting subjects.

MAIL IT EARLY.

It is suggested by a member of the staff of the local postoffice that all outgoing mail should be in the office before 5 o'clock each evening, as if it is not, its going will be delayed until 7 o'clock the next morning. Since the Northern Pacific took off Nov. 2 and Missoula has no night mail service.

PATENT TENSION SHEARS

PRACTICALLY GIVEN AWAY TO OUR CUSTOMERS.

These shears are manufactured of the very highest grade steel, perfectly tempered and heavily nickel-plated on a highly polished surface. The patent tension spring takes up all the wear on the rivet, so that the cutting edges will never be dull. A simple turn of the little thumb screw will adjust the blades to cut anything from the thinnest and most delicate fabric to the heaviest material. Every woman who has had the exasperating experience of attempting to cut with a dull pair of shears should try this new invention.

READ THE GUARANTEE—We guarantee the quality of the material and workmanship in these shears to be first-class in every respect. That the tension spring doubles the usefulness of the shears and does away with necessity of re-sharpening. A printed guarantee certificate accompanies every pair, and contains the following: "If this pair of shears breaks or becomes defective in any way within five years from date delivered, it will be replaced with a new pair free." 7-inch, 8-inch and 9-inch only. THEY ARE WELL WORTH $1.00.
