

SOCIETY

That the sharp atmosphere of the past week has had no chilling effect on the social atmosphere is shown by the diversity of entertainments that have been enjoyed.

Two weddings of interest, card parties, birthday celebrations, showers and Kensingtons are a few of the social events. From now on until Christmas the needlework parties or Kensingtons will be in much favor, and many dainty things, useful or useless, though, of course, ornamental, will be completed and laid away to wait for their tissue paper and scarlet ribbons, so suggestive of Christmas.

Happy Returns of the Day.

A birthday that was celebrated in right royal fashion was that of Mrs. Charles Crawshaw, that occurred last Tuesday. The celebration proper took place in the evening at the Crawshaw home on the north side. The neighbors and friends made the evening a merry one with cards and music, and many congratulations and happy returns of the day were heaped upon Mrs. Crawshaw. She was also presented with a handsome cut glass water set by her friends as a little remembrance of the day. Those who participated in this happy event were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Melaney, Mr. and Mrs. John Tracy, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilkins, Mr. and Mrs. George Fringie, Mr. and Mrs. George Pease, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Emerick, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Henry McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. William Tooley, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Kendall, Mr. and Mrs. Rube Lattimer, Mr. and Mrs. J. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. H. Reuter, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. G. Torrence, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hutchinson, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Owens, Mr. and Mrs. John Craney, Miss Eva Patterson and Mr. Bert Lash.

Popular Girl Married.

Miss Elsie Reinhard, who became the wife of Frederick Geiwicks Mowers last Wednesday evening, was one of the most popular and best beloved girls in Missoula, and it was with feelings of pleasure for her happiness and sadness at the knowledge that her home was to be no longer in Missoula that her friends witnessed the wedding ceremony. The Church of the Holy Spirit had been beautifully decorated by her friends for this occasion, and the service was a green being used, together with a profusion of white blossoms. The wedding music was played by Mrs. C. W. Lombard and Miss Helen Lombard, both of whom are warm friends of the bride. The ushers, Mr. Gilbert Reinhard and Mr. Sterrett Napton, led the bridal procession into the church; after the ushers came the matron of honor, Mrs. Ralph Adams, gowned in white satin and carrying white chrysanthemums; she was followed by the bridesmaid, Miss Hazel Mowers, in a dainty lingerie gown, also carrying white chrysanthemums; the bride, in her wedding gown of white satin, striped marquisette over silk, and wearing a gracefully draped wedding veil, followed with her father, Mr. Jacob Reinhard. The bride was met at the altar by the groom, who had as his best man his brother, Dr. S. W. Mowers of Tacoma. The impressive ceremony of the Episcopal church was performed by the Rev. Walter Kennel-Smith, after which the wedding party was driven to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Reinhard, where Mr. and Mrs. Mowers received a few of their close friends. Refreshments were served during the evening, and when the bride's cake was cut Miss Spencer was found to be the lucky possessor of the slice, while Miss Helen Lombard captured the ring. Sweet music was provided during the evening on the violin and piano by Mrs. Lombard, Miss Helen Lombard and Mrs. Paul Kennel-Smith, and Mrs. Mowers proved themselves cleverer by far than their friends, who had planned to escort them to the depot, for they entered the cab, ostensibly to meet the train, but somehow their friends lost sight of them for a moment, and that moment was the important one, for the driver, being in the secret, rapidly struck out for Bonner, and the friends were left waiting—not at the church, but at the depot. Mr. and Mrs. Mowers returned the next day with Bonner and spent the afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Reinhard, leaving on the evening train for Seattle, with their busy friends still in ignorance of their whereabouts. Those invited to the house after the ceremony were a few of the old and near friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Mowers, among them being Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Bagby, Rev. and Mrs. Walter Kennel-Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Kennel, Mr. and Mrs. Benson Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Galusha, the Misses James, Allan, Spencer, Owsley, Kennel, Sarah Kennel, Lombard, Napton, Woody, Flora Woody, Mittie Shoup, Mrs. James Reinhard, Mrs. Lucretia Worden, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sterling, Sterrett Napton, Paul Reinhard, Gilbert Reinhard, B. Holt and Lieutenant D. C. Anderson.

Wedding of Interest.

The wedding of Miss Mabel Stowe and Mr. Hugh Ferguson, which occurred last Wednesday evening at the Presbyterian church, contained much of interest to many Missoula people. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. L. Maclean in the presence of a large number of friends of both bride and groom. The pretty bride was charming in her wedding gown of white net over white silk, with a filmy bridal veil; her bouquet was of gorgeous white chrysanthemums. The groom, Miss Katherine Doherty, was also gowned in white and carried the same flowers as the bride. The groom was attended by Mr. Don Hoan in the capacity of best man. After the church ceremony was over the wedding party was driven to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Stowe, on Rose avenue, where a splendid supper was served. Many beautiful gifts were received by Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson, the cut glass pieces being particularly handsome. The happy couple has gone to house-keeping on Woodford avenue in a cozy little home prepared and furnished by Mr. Ferguson for the reception of his bride.

For Miss Flora Woody.

One of the prettiest parties of the week was that given yesterday afternoon by Miss Phyllis Gagnon, in honor of Miss Flora Woody, whose wedding occurs on Friday of this week. Five tables of whist were played, and the afternoon, during the greater part of the afternoon, was spent in playing the most delicious luncheon was served, after which Miss Woody was made the proud and proud possessor of a beautiful collection of cups and saucers. Each guest contributed to the "show-er." After the gifts had been duly admired and exclaimed over, after the fashion of women, the guests bade their hosts good-bye with the knowledge that a delightful afternoon had been spent and a charming compliment paid Miss Woody. Miss Gagnon's guests were Mesdames Benson Ford, John Lucy, Jr., Ralph Adams, H. Newton Kierulf, Dr. Witt, C. T. Grubbs, Frank Halstead, Frank Woody, H. G. Misses Lottie Greenough, Louise McInnis, Margaret Ryan, Fannie Robinson, Kathryn Gale, Mittie Shoup, Geneva Simons, Flora Woody, Alice Woody.

In Honor of Miss Howell.

Mrs. E. A. Freeze entertained the Kappa Kappa Gamma in true sorority style last Wednesday evening, a "spread" being the chief event; a hospitably large tablecloth was spread on the floor in the dining room, and the young ladies gathered around it and grouped themselves according to their choice. A beautiful candelabrum was placed in the center of the cloth, and with red candles and shades of the same vivid hue, made a brilliant and attractive centerpiece. The menu had been carefully selected and prepared to suit the tastes of sorority girls, and their appreciation of each course was shown by tumultuous applause. At the conclusion of the "spread," the guest of honor, Miss Rosy Howell, of Butte, was presented with a beautiful collection of handkerchiefs, which will form an item of the trousseau that is being prepared. Mrs. Freeze's guests were the Misses Nan Vivian, Carrie Whitton, Annabel Ross, Isabel Ronan, Edna Fox, Grace Rankin, Mary Elrod, Eva Coffee, Ethel Wilkinson, Marjorie Ross, Ethel Orvis, Ona Sloane, Lucy Whitaker, Margaret Lucy, Abbie Lucy, Maude McCullough, Florence Leech and Rosy Howell.

Park Addition Club.

This pleasant neighborhood club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Thomas Street, and it being "Longfellow Day" with the club, a very entertaining program was enjoyed. The numbers were "Longfellow, from a child's viewpoint," by Mrs. L. L. Wright; Mrs. James Veeder read, "A Relinquished City," "The Bridge," was sung by Mrs. F. M. Taylor, "A Fairy Day," was read by Mrs. R. M. Cobban, "The Arrow and the Song," was recited by Mrs. E. P. Wohlsehager; "Dan Dolphin," was read by Mrs. A. E. Pound; "The Day is Done," was read by Mrs. L. G. Roberts. At the conclusion of the program refreshments were served to the members present, who were Mesdames R. M. Cobban, S. H. Deering, George Duncan, H. C. Gray, Harvey Johnson, Charles Lucas, J. A. Moss, A. E. Pound, L. G. Roberts, F. M. Taylor, James Veeder, L. L. Wright, Eli Williams, E. P. Wohlsehager, with Mrs. C. Norris of Nebraska and Mrs. Craft, as guests.

Pleasant Dinner.

In honor of Newton Hyde, who leaves soon for California, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Grill entertained a few friends at dinner last Sunday. The table was extremely pretty with a large centerpiece of yellow chrysanthemums and dainty little place cards of flowers, done in water colors. An elaborate dinner of ten courses was served to the guests, who were Mr. and Mrs. Newton Hyde, Mrs. M. M. Paul Gerber, Mr. and Mrs. Fankhausen, Mrs. Kell of Portland, the Misses Sidler and Hyde.

G. A. R. Card Party.

One of the largest card parties ever given in a private house in Missoula was that given by the ladies of the G. A. R. Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. W. H. Hutchinson on West Spruce street, when guests to the number of eighty, played whist. Whist was played during the evening by the guests who had a thoroughly enjoyable and delightful time. Refreshments were served during the evening to the large number of guests, whose presence made the G. A. R. card party a notable event.

Twelfth Birthday Celebration.

Miss Gladys Peterson celebrated her twelfth birthday last Tuesday afternoon in a delightful way that gave much pleasure to her young friends as well as herself. Invitations had been issued for a luncheon for Miss Gladys, and the dining table was decorated in a most beautiful and pleasing manner with yellow and white chrysanthemums, this being Miss Gladys' birth flower. Sparkling crystal and silver combined to make the evening a beautiful picture, which was completed when the dainty young girls in their pretty frocks took their places. A menu, worthy of any "grown-up" affair, was served, and the day was a grand success, the memory of which will be treasured long by the young ladies who were fortunate enough to be included among Miss Gladys' guests. Those seated at the table were the Misses Ruth McHaffie, Dorothy Wilkinson, Evelyn McLeod, Doris Prescott, Margaret Beck, Ida Stoddard, Helen Stoddard, Edith Graham, Maude McAllister, Phoebe Ector, Marion Lombard, Gladys Peterson.

Sans Souci Club.

Mrs. J. U. Williams entertained the members of this small club in a very pleasant manner last Wednesday afternoon. As usual, needlework occupied the time, also the discussion of the thousand and one topics of interest to several women who are gathered together. Very delicious refreshments were served at five o'clock, after which adieux were made. Mrs. Williams' guests were Mesdames Asa Willard, W. Inch, F. McWhay, Alice Peterson, Nat Little, R. Craven and Roy Willard.

Delightful Dinner.

A dinner was given last Thursday evening that was an altogether delightful affair, the hostess being Miss Blanche Watts. The pretty dining-room was decorated with white chrysanthemums, the table being especially worthy of notice. An elaborate menu was served, and the guests privileged to enjoy it being Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Wiseman, Miss Ona Sloane, Miss Fay Culber, J. A. Chamberlain and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Watts.

Monday Afternoon Tea Club.

This miniature club, which has about six members, but is of several years standing, was entertained at the home of Mrs. Ralph Adams last Monday afternoon. The usual pleasant time was enjoyed by the members, who, though few in number, have evinced a thorough enjoyment of each other, and a loyalty to their day of meeting, that might prove an example to the larger and more pretentious clubs.

As-You-Like-It.

The As-You-Like-It club met last Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. C. Grant. It being current topics day, no papers were read, but short articles of interest touching on diversified subjects were read by a number of the members. Each article was made a subject of discussion, and a particularly interesting afternoon was the result.

Evening Card Party.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence R. Prescott was the scene of a delightful card party last Tuesday evening, when a number of their friends responded with pleasure to their invitation for that evening. Five tables were played, a delicious and substantial luncheon was served. At the conclusion of the playing prizes were given to the lucky ones who were Mrs. Davis Graham, winner of the ladies' wrist prize a handsome hand-painted plate; Mrs. F. M. McHaffie, a little brown bag, by way of consolation; Mr. William Anderson who won the gentlemen's first prize, was given a pretty cup and saucer, and Mr. L. N. Simons was handed a deck of cards, accompanied by some good advice.

The guests were, Mr. and Mrs. Davis Graham, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Simons, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kennedy, Dr. and Mrs. Riley, Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Curran, Mr. and Mrs. John Daily, Mr. and Mrs. F. Woody, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. McHaffie, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kohn, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Darbee, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. John Lucy, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. D. Arms, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mulrooney, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Peppard, Mrs. Sarah Crouch and Mrs. Mable Woolkey who delighted the company with several beautiful songs.

The Busy Idlers' Club Meets.

The Busy Idlers' club met on Friday afternoon with Mrs. John R. Daily at her handsome home on Sixth street. Whist was the preferred game for the afternoon, and as many skillful players were present the rivalry was keen and the interest strong. After about twenty hands had been played the card tables were converted into luncheon tables, on which delicious refreshments were served. The prizes were won and awarded as follows: Mrs. F. L. Darbee, the first prize, which was a handsome book; Mrs. Davis Graham, the consolation, a deck of cards; the guest prize was given to Mrs. Newton Hyde, being as equally an attractive volume as that given to Mrs. Darbee. The members of the club present were Mesdames C. A. Harnois, Clarence Prescott, F. L. Darbee, Ray Dadds, S. Crouch, Julius Grill, C. H. Kettievell, J. Rhoades, F. J. Erfert, William Anderson, Davis Graham; the ladies who were the guests of Mrs. Daily were Mrs. J. Lyons, Mrs. W. D. Hollenbeck, Newton Hyde, John Dreffbach and Miss Daisy Champlain.

"500" Club Meets.

The "500" Club met last Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Ralph Herick, and enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon. Twenty hands of whist were played and pretty prizes were awarded to the lucky ones; Mrs. J. Lyons won the first prize, which was a handsome hand-painted plate; the hostess' prize went of course to Mrs. Herick, and was also a handsome plate; Mrs. C. J. Lenley was consoling for her low score with a beautiful calendar for 1910. At the conclusion of the playing, refreshments were served to those present who numbered about 20.

A Sunday Dinner.

Miss Louise and T. M. Stephenson entertained at dinner at their home in south Missoula last Sunday. The table was unusually attractive, a beautiful cutglass vase holding chrysanthemums and smilax being used for decorations. An elaborate menu of eight courses was served. Those present were: Miss Genevieve Reid, Miss Louise Stephenson, Jack Helfrich, J. McCormick, J. P. Conlon and T. M. Stephenson.

Class is Entertained.

The members of the Sunday school class of J. E. Patterson were entertained Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson on South Fifth street. The evening was pleasantly spent in the sewing bee in which work was done for the Methodist Deacons' hospital of Great Falls, or doing justice to the delicious refreshments and in listening to music by Miss Cox and Mrs. Abby Senier. Forty-six were present.

Laughing, Lazy Fat Folks Made Slim Without Drugs.

During the cold weather fat people stay at home and do not care much about removing fat. They eat heartily and dress warmly. This time of year is the one above all others in which flesh should be removed. The winter has a peculiar action on the blood. We all know how our skin contains pimples and boils break out in the spring owing to the stagnation and sluggishness of the winter blood supply. In the fat this condition is especially appalling. If you will go to your nearest druggist and buy a case of Marmola tablets you will stop making fat at once and you may eat when and what you will and the fat will leave you at the rate of from 12 to 15 ounces a day and more. That if you will not be left with large, flabby rolls of skin and deep wrinkles.

These tablets are made after the famous Marmola Prescription and were so made to supply a great demand for a handy fat reducer that everyone could carry in a purse or vest pocket so that after any meal they could be taken and evil consequences from such a meal thus avoided. If you can not secure Marmola tablets from your druggist or should you so prefer, send 75 cts. the price of a large case, to The Marmola Company, Dept. 527, Detroit, Mich., and they will send Marmola tablets to you in a plain sealed package postage prepaid.

Will Move.

Dr. Robinson has closed his dental office until about December 7, when he will reopen in rooms 11 and 12 Masonic Temple block.

Xmas Art Things

The early advent of the holiday season brings into prominence those goods which appeal strongly to lovers of art and those people who desire "something different" for that "Best Friend."

Our Art Department suggests timely gifts for tasty people. Our large assortment of fine pictures is entirely different from anything you will see elsewhere. The selection and buying of pictures is in itself a fine art and reaches its height in the fine collections of our great American capitalists. We do not pretend to have mastered the "art," but we do insist that our line as we have selected it is superior to anything that could be bought from "ready-made picture" concerns, who turn them out in carload lots. And at the same time they are so priced as to be in reach of all. We respectfully invite your attention.

Among other things, we desire to call your attention to our large line of sheet pictures. These, taken in conjunction with our line of picture mouldings and frames, gives the particular person a chance to put individuality into his choice of a present—whether it be for Xmas or wedding gift. Also, we have on display a large collection of the celebrated

Copley Prints

Those desiring any of these goods will do well to call early, as our frame department is running "full up," and we like to give lots of time in the making up of these goods.

BRASS CRAFTS—Outfits and Stamped Goods. This is one of the latest and most fascinating arts. We have a good selection of these goods.

Pyrography Goods are more popular than ever. See our large line of outfits and stamped articles.

STENCILS—For art stamping. Now is the time to get these goods. Just the thing for fancy work, linens, curtains, rugs. Learn to decorate these goods yourself. They will be more artistic and much cheaper than those you buy ready made.

Danderine

Grows Hair and we can PROVE IT!

The Great DANDERINE Never Fails to Produce the Desired Results.

It cleanses and invigorates the hair glands and tissues of the scalp, resulting in a continuous and increasing growth of the hair.

Letters of praise are continually coming in from nearly every part of the country stating that Danderine has renewed the growth of hair in cases that were considered absolutely hopeless.

A lady from Brooklyn writes: "After a short trial my hair stopped falling, and I now have a lovely head of hair, very thick and over one and a quarter yards long."

Danderine stimulates the scalp, makes it healthy and keeps it so. It is the greatest scalp invigorator known. It is a wholesome medicine for both the hair and scalp. Even a small bottle of it will put more genuine life in your hair than a gallon of any other hair tonic ever made. It shows results from the very start.
