

Stephens Avenue CORNERS

I have 2 of the very choicest corners for sale that are left on Stephens avenue, that beautiful 124-foot boulevard that is destined to be one of Missoula's most fashionable residence streets. These corners are close in to the built-up district and well adapted to immediate building, and a splendid investment. Price, only $750 for 60x130 corner, on terms of one-third cash, balance one and two years.

IN THE THEATERS

Henry B. Harris, sponsor for Rose Stahl in "The Chorus Lady," Robert Edson in "The Noble Spaniard," "The Traveling Salesman," "The Lion and the Mouse," "The Third Degree," and numerous other signal dramatic successes of the past and present seasons, is sending "The Third Degree" with an excellent cast to the Harnois theater tonight.

"The Third Degree" is from the pen of Charles Klein, the author of "The Lion and the Mouse." Its theme is one never before handled by dramatists, and yet it dates back to the dark ages, to the times of the Spanish inquisition. "The Third Degree" has to do with the questionable methods employed by the police to extort confessions from suspected criminals. It shows clearly that "mistakes will happen;" that a man, no matter how innocent, may be "railroaded" to the electric chair through confessions extracted by inquisitorial methods. Only through the love and moral courage of a young wife, whom the suspected, the scion of an old and respected wealthy family, has married from among the working classes, is he saved from an ignominious death.

Mr. Klein has drawn his characters true to life and it may be said without fear of contradiction that this, his latest work, will live and prosper so long as the drama endures.

The cast is of extraordinary strength which will be seen here, and includes Paul Everett, Malcolm Duncan, Irene Oshier, Fernand Elson, E. A. Eberle, Alfred Moore, A. H. Symmons, T. L. Coleman, Francis Bonn, H. H. Forseman and Ralph Ramsay.

At the Grand.

At the Grand theater last evening all who attended were more than well pleased with the acts presented. The bill was exceptionally clever and received a great deal of merited applause. Kenmore and the Swenson Sisters presented a novelty, doll act which was all to the good. The dolls were very realistic and the singing and dancing was well set off by a bit of comedy. The Rosell Trio of singing and dancing ability took well with the audiences, especially the work of the juvenile Rosell who in her baby way can sing and dance very well indeed. The illustrated song and the pictures are of the usual interesting character.

Your dollars will do double duty if spent at the Adjusters' sale of the J. H. Fitzgerald stock.

CHANGE IN BUSINESS IS ANNOUNCED

O. HOYT AND WILLIAM O. DICKINSON MAKE PUBLIC THEIR PARTNERSHIP.

The Hoyt-Dickinson Piano company is the latest business firm in Missoula. Yesterday announcement was made of the fact that O. Hoyt and William O. Dickinson had formed a partnership to continue the business of the Hoyt Music house, which was established a few months ago by Mr. Hoyt. The new company will retain the location of the firm it succeeds and the two partners are proud of their establishment, which is on East Main street and presents what is probably the finest appearance of any similar saleroom in western Montana. The new company will handle 10 makes of pianos, among them the Krutzmann and Cable and the Bush & Lane.

Mr. Hoyt came to Missoula from Fergus Falls, Minn., where he was in the music business for many years. He has had much experience and has already built up a good business in Missoula.

His partner, Mr. Dickinson, is so well known here that an introduction is hardly necessary. He was born in Missoula in 1883, coming to town almost simultaneously with the Northern Pacific. His father is W. H. Dickinson, a Missoula pioneer. He graduated with the class of 1905 from the University of Montana, where he was a member of the Sigma Chi fraternity and of the Silent Sentinels and took a prominent part in student affairs. He has been connected with the Orvis Music house as a piano salesman and has considerable experience to commend him for future success. Both he and Mr. Hoyt are young men of ability and ambition and their business prospects would seem to be brilliant.

AIR THAT KILLS GERMS

YOUR MONEY BACK IF HYOMEI DOESN'T CURE CATARRH, SAYS GEO. FREISHEIMER.

Don't be stubborn. Don't be prejudiced. There is not a particle of morphine, cocaine, or any injurious or habit-forming drug in Hyomei.

Give it a trial at Geo. Freisheimer's risk. It is made of eucalyptus and other grand antiseptics. It will chase away the misery of catarrh or any affliction of the nose and throat in five minutes.

No stomach dosing—just breathe Hyomei in, it gets at the catarrh germs and will them all.

Go to Geo. Freisheimer's today and ask him for a Hyomei (pronounced High-o-mee) outfit. It costs $1.00, and consists of a hard rubber pocket inhaler, which can be carried in vest pocket, a bottle of Hyomei, a medicine dropper, and simple directions for use.

Leading druggists everywhere sell Hyomei, which is guaranteed to cure catarrh, bronchitis, coughs, colds and sore throat, or money returned.

If you could go to the Eucalyptus forests of inland Australia you would quickly get rid of catarrh. Hyomei brings the identical air of these forests direct to your home. It is a most wonderful catarrh remedy.

WILLIAM H. CRANE.

Mr. Crane told us who were at the Harnois theater last night that he had never played in Missoula before; when you come to think of it, he was right; but he is an old friend of nearly every body who saw him in "Father and the Boys," with many of the friendship being of such long standing that it dates back to the old days of Robson & Crane in the Dramas and, later, in "The Honrietta." That was a long time ago and Mr. Crane has played many parts since then and all of them well, but not even in "David Harum," has he ever had such a character wrought into such a play for affording continuous amusement and thorough enjoyment as is the part he is playing this season. He delighted an audience last night that was not as large as it might have been, but that was thoroughly appreciative. However, Mr. Crane has been so long at the business that it is not applause that represents to him the summum bonum; in his rather charming curtain speech at the end of the third act last night he couldn't resist a reference to the fact that there were a good many empty seats in the house. But he won the hearty applause of men and women who have not applauded before in years. He thawed out a Missoula audience until it was as warm as a group of those who sit in theater seats in New York. Mr. Crane has a capable company and Mr. Adie's play gives every one of them a chance. Miss Margaret Dale, as the western girl, was as good as her character was overdrawn and that is saying a good deal. There was not a weak spot in the cast and the performance was thoroughly enjoyable and thoroughly enjoyed.

Rich Men's Gifts Are Poor

beside this: "I want to go on record as saying that I regard Electric Bitters as one of the greatest gifts that God has made to woman," writes Mrs. O. Rhinevault, of Vestal Center, N. Y. "I can never forget what it has done for me." This glorious medicine gives a woman buoyant spirits, vigor of body and brilliant health. It quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells; soon builds up the weak, ailing and sickly. Try them. 50c at Missoula Drug Co.

At the Missoulian office on next Friday, December 17, the young ladies of the Baptist church will give a bazaar. Besides pie and candy all kinds of neckwear, aprons, bags, dolls, etc., will be sold. Nothing will cost more than a dollar. Come with your friends and buy pretty Christmas gifts.
