FEMALE PRISONERS SEGREGATED

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS INSIST THAT THE LAW MUST BE STRICTLY OBSERVED.
It having been reported to the county commissioners that the instructions of the board to the sheriff were being ignored, relative to the imprisonment of women in the men's quarters of the jail, the board yesterday forenoon visited the jail to ascertain the facts. The commissioners found that two women were confined in the quarters of the male prisoners and instructions were at once given that these women be removed and placed in the portion of the jail allotted to females.

RETURNS FROM TRIP.
Russell G. Pond, deputy supervisor of the Missoula national forest, has returned from a 10-day trip to Lincoln, at the headwaters of the Big Blackfoot river, where he examined three townships, with a view to recommending changes in the boundaries with respect to the national forest. Mr. Pond states that it is very cold in that country and that much snow is falling.

"ARKANSAS SLIM" COMES BACK TO TOWN

George Collins, much better known as "Arkansas Slim," blew into Missoula early yesterday on his annual round of the restaurants of northwest-ern cities. "Slim" has taken on enough weight to endanger his pseudonym and announces that he will stay, if properly approached by any restaur-anteur needing expert assistance. "Slim" won immortal fame in Missoula last summer, when he bore a flaming coffee urn from the Vienna cafe and deposited it in the street, where it dissolved itself in a most successful explosion.

"ALL FLIED."
Once upon a time the Regular Customer was forced to take a trip. He reached a town not so many miles from Missoula after several hours of travel and immediately made inquiry as to where he could find something to eat. An obliging waiter referred him to a Chinese restaurant, saying that there was no other. The Regular Customer entered with trepidation. "Perhaps," thought he, "as I am now in what is to be considered the rural districts, I can obtain fresh eggs, even if the strike of the hens is causing, almost as much trouble as another I might mention."

A SUN-JAY WEDDING.
Charles F. Davis and Miss Emil Jane Stone were married by Rev. J. N. Maclean at the home of the bride's brother, at 1125 Vine street, Sunday afternoon. The wedding was a quiet one, only the immediate relatives and intimate friends of the couple being present. Mr. and Mrs. Davis will go to housekeeping at once.

GETS LONG SENTENCE FOR FLOURISHING GUN

M. J. Dunn, an ex-soldier and "dope fiend," was the man who felt the heavy hand of the law yesterday. Dunn is a man, who, according to the officers, was dishonorably discharged from the United States army, and early Sunday morning, in a rooming house on Railroad avenue, felt impelled to resume a warlike standing. He was in a room with two other unfortunate devotees of the drug habit, and suddenly produced a revolver which, so the complaint reads, he "flourished in a rude, boisterous and threatening manner." He pleaded guilty and according to the pronouncement of Justice of the Peace Small will spend the next four months as the guest of Sheriff Graham.

STEALS ONE DOLLAR GETS FOUR MONTHS

Four months in the county jail is the sentence that Ed Murphy, arrested Sunday night, received yesterday from Justice of the Peace Small for stealing $1 from a drunken man. The victim of the robbery was Willis Clark, but he didn't know that he had been robbed, although the testimony of two eye-witnesses showed very convincingly that he had been "touched" as he dozes in a chair. So many similar offenses have been reported recently that the court did not feel in a lenient mood when Murphy was ready for sentence.

MISSOULA'S WAITERS GIVE ANNUAL DANCE

The annual ball of Waiters and Waitresses' union No. 138 was given last night in Elite hall. The attendance, despite the rather cold weather, was more than good and all present enjoyed the dance until a late hour. The music was furnished by the Missoula club orchestra. Besides Jack Beck, the business agent of the union, R. S. Britton, Pauline Fried, Floyd Castle and Anna Koch assisted to make the affair as successful as it was.
