WOMAN IS CALLED BY DEATH

MRS. ALEX MACGREGOR DIES SUDDENLY AT THE ST. PATRICK'S HOSPITAL.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Alex MacGregor died at St. Patrick's hospital of heart disease. Mrs. MacGregor has been ill for a month and yesterday morning was reported much better and on the road to convalescence. Late in the afternoon the shock came and within a few minutes after the attack Mrs. MacGregor was dead. Mrs. MacGregor was 28 years old and leaves two children, a little girl 16 months old and a boy one month. She has also two brothers-in-law residing in Missoula, William M. MacGregor of the Missoula Mercantile company and A. C. MacGregor. Her husband has been employed as a bookkeeper in the First National bank. The dead woman came from England to Missoula only two years ago. Since that time, however, she has made scores of friends in the city and the regret at the news of her death will be general. No definite funeral arrangements have been made as yet but it is expected that interment will be on Tuesday.

BUGS.

Deputies Farrell and Larson were called to Clinton late last night by a report sent in to the effect that a crazy man was tearing up the country in general and creating all manner of disturbance. Up to a late hour nothing had been heard from the officers.

DR. ELROD IS NAMED AS LECTURER ALL YOUR STOMACH TROUBLE GOES

WILL SPEAK BEFORE THE COMING MONTANA FARMERS' INSTITUTE SCHOOL.

Dr. M. J. Elrod of the state university will lecture at the Montana Farmers' institute school for fruit-growers which is to be given in Hamilton and Stevensville from January 10 to 15, inclusive. Dr. Elrod will speak on "The Glacier National Park." He will illustrate his lecture with stereopticon slides made by him on the spot and his personal knowledge of every inch of ground within the great park will make his talk more than interesting.

The other evening lectures will be by James M. Hamilton of the agricultural college; Dr. Henry R. Fancher of the Montana college; G. R. Young, superintendent of the Butte public schools and Mrs. Theresa Bandmann of Missoula. Mrs. Bandmann's lecture will be the last of the series and will be in the form of a Shakespearean recital. This recital will be supported by musical numbers and should be interesting as well as instructive.

The different subjects which will be discussed at the school have already been announced and the instruction will be conducted by the following experts: Professor O. B. Whipple, horticulturist at the agricultural college; M. L. Dean, inspector-at-large for the Montana board of horticulture; Professor R. W. Fisher, horticulturist for the Bitter Root Irrigation company; Professor A. Atkinson of the agricultural college; Professor F. B. Linfield, director of the Montana experiment station; Professor R. A. Cooley of the agricultural college and Professor D. B. Swingle of the agricultural college.

ANOTHER RIOT.

Early yesterday morning several of the strikebreakers shipped out here as guards by the Northern Pacific inspected off the right-of-way and got a little more booze than was good for them. They created a bad disturbance in Olson & Johnson's saloon and went out on Railroad avenue to the Montana bar. Here they started a free-for-all fight which finally wound up in several black eyes, a badly mugged up deputy sheriff and forcibly inaugurated peace. No arrests were made but the men were all forced to return to the yards.

ANOTHER PRODIGAL HEARTILY WELCOMED

Antone Novack, a young carpenter of foreign descent who has absented himself from the city for a year or so for personal reasons, received a hearty welcome yesterday when he blew into Missoula again. The reception committee consisted largely of a deputy sheriff and a warrant but the welcome was none the less hearty and so glad was the committee to see the stranger that the county's hospitality was forced upon him. Novack left town last summer when a warrant was sworn out against him accusing him of having stolen a chest of tools. He disappeared but thinking, perhaps, that the trouble had blown over, came back yesterday and was picked up.

THE THIRD PARTY

The mossback to the braker, an will these words say in rhyme, "Cut out this striking business, his net the proper time; a year we've toiled and sweated without a cent of pay, depending to be treated to a meal on Christmas day.

"And if a grouchy switchman, who has saved up quite a stake, tuning up with songs and tin can starts in a railroad for to break, let him do it in the spring-time when we're busy in the fields, when we've gathered in the last dime, when we've earned in our back when the roads are good and muddy, and the horses are not shod, when we've stored up in the caddy grub enough to fill the hod, when Old Harry could not drag us from our farms to visit town, when we care not ding-dong, cuss-cuss should you get J. P. Morgan down; but interfering with our 'Santa' makes us cuss and seize a rail, and you bet your royal ante we'll be back Uncle Sammy with his mail; but you cut out all this striking and try to help us with your votes, then we'll help to down old Jimmy, if we have to give our notes.

"Jimmy owns now all the railroads, and he heurly owns us too; he will make us pay for railroads twice the price he used to do, and we're getting every tried of the water in his stock, in the mud of which we're mired while he makes of us a mook."

ST. YVES WINS.

Seattle, Dec. 26.—Henri St. Yves, Marathon champion of the world, defeated John Marsh, Canadian champion, by a yard in a 15 mile match race here this afternoon. St. Yves' time was 1:38:47 4-5. During the last mile the runners were never more than three feet apart.

CONDITION IS WORSE.

Rome, Dec. 25.—Cardinal Francis Fatelli's condition is growing constantly worse and at intervals today he became delirious. The pope frequently sends his private secretary to inquire into the condition of the prelate.

INDIGESTION, STOMACH GAS, HEARTBURN OR DYSPEPSIA ENDED IN FIVE MINUTES.

Every year regularly more than a million stomach sufferers in the United States, England and Canada take Pape's Diapepsin and realize not only immediate but lasting relief.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion. Get from your pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of dyspepsia, indigestion or any other stomach disorder.

LOGAN WANTS TO SEE HILL-CLIMBING RACE

In suggesting that he would like to see a hill-climbing contest arranged by Missoula automobilists F. J. Logan stated yesterday that he had climbed to the summit of reservoir hill in his Ford machine without any great difficulty and that he considered the climb a good test.

"It was pretty steep work," he said, in describing his trip. "After you leave the road near the reservoir the way lies over the open fields. Just beyond the reservoir is found the steepest part. It was all that I could do to get over this rise, but the rest of the way was comparatively easy. I would like to see a hill-climbing contest arranged with that very climb as the course. It is a perfect hill, with the exception of the fact that at times the car is forced to run on a side-way slant."

CLOUD COMES BACK.

San Francisco, Dec. 26.—Frederick D. Cloud, formerly a United States consul at Mukden, Manchuria, but who has been recalled by the state department, arrived from the Orient today en route to Washington. Cloud said that he did not know why he had been recalled, but believed that he was to be attached to the state department at Washington.

BURNED TO DEATH.
