DR. J. J. MAHONEY WILL BE COUNTY PHYSICIAN

Commissioners Award Contract for Care of Sick and Indigent Poor for Next Year.

Dr. J. J. Mahoney will attend to the sick and indigent poor of Missoula county for the year beginning January 1, 1910. Such was the action taken yesterday by the board of county commissioners, who considered his bid of $995 the best submitted. In addition to the proper care of the county's sick, the doctor will be required to furnish the necessary medicines. He is to furnish a bond of $1,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. In addition to the above business, the board granted the petition of Herman Gerber to renew a saloon license at Lolo Hot Springs. The same action was taken in the matter of J. J. Clifford, who will conduct a saloon at Lolo. James Sweeney was granted a license to conduct a saloon at Six Mile.

LAST RITES ATTENDED BY LOVING FRIENDS

The funeral of Mrs. Alexander MacGregor, one of the well-known young married women of Missoula, was held yesterday afternoon. Services were conducted at the Congregational church by Rev. Dwight S. Bayley, pastor of the church, who dwelt, in his sermon, on the life and deeds of the deceased. Resting upon the bier were profuse offerings of floral pieces sent by loving and sympathizing friends and neighbors. Interment was in the Missoula cemetery.

GEORGE COHAN HITS STOMACH DISTRESS SPOKANE RIGHT OR DYSPEPSIA

COMEDIAN AND COMPANY WIN APPLAUSE IN INLAND EMPIRE CAPITAL. OUT-OF-ORDER STOMACHS FEEL FINE FIVE MINUTES AFTER TAKING DIAPEPSIN.

In view of the fact that George M. Cohan is coming to the Harbors theater tonight and that he is coming from Spokane, the criticism of "The Yankee Prince," printed in the Spokesman-Review is of interest. Let us now consider the case of George M. Cohan, not of Providence, Rhode Island. This young man has made a fortune in his theatrical ventures, his method being not only giving the public what it wants, but making it want what he has to sell. He is the apostle of Americanism, the high priest of hip-hip hurrah and the Roosevelt of ragtime. He has an abundant supply of a typically American commodity, nerve, and his greatness lies in his inability to take himself or any one else seriously, another American trait which would save from oblivion a less capable person than this same Mr. Cohan.

Before the "Yankee Prince" was many minutes old these present didn't care if they stayed all night, and when the encores were cut short it was because the players were tired, and not because the hearers wanted to get home.

The Center. Of course, Mr. Cohan was the center of attraction, although he did not by any means monopolize that hallowed spot, the center of the stage. When he dances, Mr. Cohan avoids the center of the stage, instead, he uses the member stage. Nobody ever danced with Mr. Cohan a few lively steps to show he is not so old, after all. The place of Miss Josephine is taken by Lila Rhodes, a wisp of a girl who dances like a puff of thistle-down and works nearly as hard as the star. Arriving at the comedy department of "The Yankee Prince," we are confronted by "Tom Lewis," who makes everyone laugh, but himself, not the action that fat men are always funny does not account for all of Tom Lewis' ability to tickle the funny bone. His wide expanse of smileless countenance helps, but his real laugh-producing ability springs from his possessing the true clowning spirit, with which farness doesn't count.

Elder Cohan in Show. Two others of the Cohan family are in the show—the elder members. They both were heartily welcomed last night and at the final curtain the elder Mr. Cohan danced a few lively steps to show he is not so old, after all. The place of Miss Josephine is taken by Lila Rhodes, a wisp of a girl who dances like a puff of thistle-down and works nearly as hard as the star. Arriving at the comedy department of "The Yankee Prince," we are confronted by "Tom Lewis," who makes everyone laugh, but himself, not the action that fat men are always funny does not account for all of Tom Lewis' ability to tickle the funny bone. His wide expanse of smileless countenance helps, but his real laugh-producing ability springs from his possessing the true clowning spirit, with which farness doesn't count.

Largest of the Season. Mr. Cohan has brought the largest company that a musical comedy organization has offered here this season. And nearly half of his chorus is masculine, which is a relief, especially as it results in a snappy, dashing military drill that is one of the best things in the show. Another pretty effect is in the "I'm to Marry a Nobleman" song, which shows coronets and pocketbooks illuminated on a dark stage. Most of the songs have reached here ahead of the show itself, but all were given hearty encores last night. "Yellains in the Play," "I'm Awfully Strong for You," "Money" and "There's Nothing New Beneath the Sun" were the best. People, as a rule, either like George M. Cohan very much indeed or have no use for him at all. The latter were in the minority last night, and probably will be still fewer tonight and tomorrow night, which will be the extent of Mr. Cohan's engagement.

JUDGE MYERS HEARS CASE IN MISSOULA

Beginning at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, the time of the district court was devoted to hearing the case of A. O. Robinson against Samuel Dinmore and others. Attorneys Marshall & Stiff and L. S. Bolton represented the plaintiff, while the defendant's side was looked after by Elmer E. Hershey. Judge H. L. Myers of Hamilton acted in place of Judge Webster, who was disqualified. The suit is brought to quiet title to a piece of property in the orchard Homes district, which the plaintiff alleges he bought on a contract, and which is denied by the defendants, who charge that the plaintiff did not make the stipulated payments. The case will be continued today.

PASSED BAD CHECK AND ADMITS GUILT

Reed S. Hood pleaded guilty yesterday before Justice of the Peace Dyson to obtaining money by false pretenses. He is charged with having, on December 1, passed a check on the firm of Shields & Mason at Alberton which afterward proved to be worthless. The check was drawn on the First State bank of St. Joe, Idaho, for the sum of $10 and was signed by Hood, who, according to the complaint, knew that it was fraudulent and that he had no funds in the bank on which it was drawn. He will be sentenced today.

Call for City of Missoula Sidewalk and Curb Warrants. On presentation at my office in the city hall of the city of Missoula, I will pay sidewalk and curb warrants as follows: All warrants up to and including warrant No. 11. Interest ceases to accrue January 1st.

STOMACH DISTRESS OR DYSPEPSIA

As there is often someone in your family who suffers an attack of indigestion or some form of stomach trouble, why don't you keep some Diapepsin in the house handy? This harmless blessing will digest anything you can eat without the slightest discomfort, and overcome a sour, gassy stomach five minutes after. Tell your pharmacist to let you read the formula plainly printed on each 50-cent case of Paper's Diapepsin, then you will readily see why it makes indigestion, sour stomach, heartburn and other distress go in five minutes and relieves at once such miseries as belching of gas, eructations of sour, undigested food, nausea, headaches, dizziness, constipation and other stomach disorders.

Some folks have tried so long to find relief from indigestion and dyspepsia or an out-of-order stomach with the common every-day cures advertised that they have about made up their minds that they have something else wrong, or believe theirs is a case of stomach or cancer. This, no doubt, is a serious mistake. Your real trouble is what you eat does not digest; instead, it ferments and sours, turns to acid, gas and stomach poison, which putrefy in the digestive tract and intestines, and, besides, poison the breath with nauseous odors. A hearty appetite, with thorough digestion, and without the slightest discomfort or misery of the stomach, is waiting for you as soon as you decide to try Paper's Diapepsin.
