

SEEK TO SECURE CONFESSION

AUTHORITIES WANT TO FORCE ACCUSED MURDERER TO TELL HIS STORY.

Aberdeen, Wash., April 6.—William Gohl, former agent of the Sailors' union, is kept in solitary confinement in his cell in the county jail at Montesano today, as is J. Klingenberg, Gohl's alleged accomplice in the murders of John Hoffman, former lumber dealer, and Charles Haddberg, a sailor, who were killed by Gohl and Klingenberg, according to Klingenberg's confession to the police yesterday. The authorities hope now to obtain a confession from Gohl. His wife was not allowed to see him today. Gohl has been put in the sweet-box, but so far no information has been wrung from him. He is a man of iron nerve. It has always been thought he would have confessed on the night of his arrest had it not been for encouraging words spoken to him in his cell by his wife. A search for the body of Hoffman continues today in the Chehalis river, near the Michigan mill at a point about opposite the Northern Pacific depot, which is being dragged.

While Gohl is known to possess a fortune something like $10,000, no great amount of money so far has been produced for his defense. His trial was originally set for March 5. Had it been held at that time it would probably have been concluded before this time and before the return of Klingenberg. He has expected the Sailors' union to come to his aid, but so far his expectations have not materialized.

MILITARY SPIRIT ATTACKED

KALISPPELL PASTOR DELIVERS NOTABLE SERMON ON THE SUBJECT.

Kalispell, April 6.—(Special.)—Senator Joseph M. Dixon's position on the question of national defense as outlined in a letter to the Rev. T. A. Stanciliffe was commented upon favorably and the letter quoted in full in a sermon which the latter preached against the encouragement of a military spirit in America. The senator, in the letter, stated his position to the attempted increase of the American navy to an equality with that of other nations. "In my judgment," he says, "the completion of the Panama canal four years from now will enable us to transfer the fleet from the Atlantic to the Pacific with much greater ease than heretofore, and should, to a large extent, avoid the necessity of maintaining a large fleet on each coast."

Commenting Senator Dixon for his letter and characterizing it as a frank opinion, Mr. Stanciliffe attacked the system inaugurated under the Dick bill as tending to militarism, which must finally become tyranny; arraigned the promotion of "the jingo spirit" by the organizing of companies in various cities; criticized the generals and others for their continual alarm of a possible war with Japan, and finally dealt a body blow at the modern custom of celebrating the Fourth of July in these words:

"In seven prominent battles of the Revolution we lost in killed 1,119 men, while in the past seven years of celebrations of the 'glorious Fourth' we have lost in killed and wounded 34,693 persons. Think of it! Arms blown off, eyes blown out, fingers torn off, children dying with lockjaw—and we call it the 'glorious Fourth!'"

SOME GLASSY SHOOTING IS DONE IN HAMILTON

Hamilton, April 4.—A large crowd gathered at the grounds of the local gun club yesterday to witness the shoot between W. P. O'Brien and George Whitcomb, the challengers, and F. H. Bailey and H. M. Sloan, the challengers. The shoot came as the result of a deft from the first two gentlemen, which was printed in the Ravalli Republican and which was accepted by the latter named gentlemen.

The two teams were very evenly matched as teams, but so far as the individuals were concerned, O'Brien proved that he was in a class by himself. In spite of the high wind and the hoots of the gathered crowds, he smashed 11 birds out of 25. Bailey was a close second with 10 dead ones. Sloan had hard work to shatter three, while Whitcomb killed but two. When the match of 25 had been shot they were tied so it was decided to shoot one more shot apiece. All missed but O'Brien, who again demonstrated his class by knocking a chip off the posterior side of the first bird out of the trap.

The match was for a case of Schlitz beer which was disposed of on the grounds at the close of the shoot, the losers paying for the same. In this event Dr. Buchen made the best score.

VACCINATION AND DANDRUFF.

There is as Sure Prevention of Baldness as There is of Smallpox.

It is now accepted that vaccination renders the vaccinated person exempt from smallpox; or at worst, he never has anything but the lightest kind of a case. Now as sure a preventive and cure for dandruff, which causes falling hair and baldness, has been discovered—Newbro's Herpicide. It kills the dandruff germ. C. H. Reed, Victor, Idaho, says: "Myself and wife have been troubled with dandruff and falling hair for several years. We tried remedies without effect until we used Newbro's Herpicide, two bottles of which cured us." Hundreds of similar testimonials. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. One dollar bottles guaranteed. Missoula Drug Co., special agents.

HAMILTON RECITAL PROVES INTERESTING

Hamilton, April 6.—The recital given last evening at the Lucas opera house by Miss Imojean Earl, reader, and Miss Eula Anson, pianist, was largely attended and proved to be an entertainment of unusual merit. The following program was rendered: "A Few Bars in the Key of G," Imojean Earl. Piano—"Sparks," (Moszkowski) Eula Anson. "The Ninety and Nine," (Richard Harding Davis), Imojean Earl. Piano—"Rustle of Spring," (Sinding) Eula Anson. (a) "College Revisited," (b) "She Likes Him Real Well," (c) "O' I Dunno," Imojean Earl. "The Lost Word," (Henry Van Dyke), Imojean Earl.

Dependable Proprietary Medicines. It must be admitted by every fair-minded, intelligent person, that a medicine could not live and grow in popularity for thirty years and today hold a record for thousands upon thousands of actual cures, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, without possessing great virtue and actual worth. Such medicines must be looked upon and termed both standard and dependable by every thinking person.

IMPORTANT ISSUE COMING UP

TREATY PROVISIONS WITH ENGLAND TO BE ARGUED AT THE HAGUE.

Washington, April 6.—An array of counsel greater in number and more illustrious in reputation than ever before assembled at The Hague to engage in the trial of a special case has been retained to represent America and Great Britain in what is undoubtedly the most important issue ever presented to The Hague.

Technically, this is the determination of differences which have arisen between the two governments as to the true intent of the provisions of article 1 of the treaty of 1818, defining the fishing rights of Americans and Canadians in their respective waters. The issue of greatest import is the determination of the right of a colony or province, such as Canada or New Foundland, by local legislation to deprive persons of rights conferred by the treaty between the principals. On June 1 next the arbitration tribunal is to meet at The Hague to hear the oral arguments.

The arbitration court will consist of Dr. Heinrich Lammasch of the Austrian empire, umpire, who will act as president; Louis M. Raglio, Argentine republic; Judge George Gray of Delaware and Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, chief justice of the supreme court of Canada.

The agent of Great Britain in this arbitration is the Hon. B. Aylesworth, minister of justice of Canada. The counsel on the part of Great Britain are the Right Hon. Sir William Robertson, K. C., attorney general of England; the Right Hon. Sir Robert Finlay, K. C., former attorney general of England; Sir H. Earl Richards, K. C., and on the part of Canada, John S. Ewart, K. C.; George Shepley, K. C.; W. N. Tiller, and on the part of New Foundland, the Hon. Sir Jarvintor, K. C., former attorney general of New Foundland; D. C. Morrison, K. C., attorney general of New Foundland, and the solicitors, Messrs. Blake and Redden.

The United States counsel are Elihu Root, George Turner and Samuel J. Elder and the associate counsel are James Brown Scott, solicitor for the department of state; Charles B. Warren and Robert Lansing.

HAMILTON SMALL BOYS RAISE CAIN IN SCHOOL

Hamilton, April 5.—When the janitor at the Washington school opened the building on Monday morning he was surprised to find that some one had been in the building. Books and papers were littered about the floor, the organ was minus its keys, the bellows cut and the case marred, windows were smashed, clocks mutilated, desks overturned and minus their legs, a mimeograph destroyed, and other wreckage was strewn about the rooms.

Henry Schwarm, city superintendent of schools, and the members of the board were notified, when search was begun for the culprits. It was soon ascertained that the damage had been done by three small boys, each of whom is less than 10 years of age. Punishment was meted out to them by Superintendent Schwarm, but owing to their youth, no legal action was taken. Estimates by the school officers place the damage done in the neighborhood of $400. It was necessary to dismiss school at the Washington school yesterday.

TO GIVE CONCERT.

Hamilton, April 6.—The Hallowell Concert company will give a concert and dance at Burns' hall Monday evening, April 11. The seven-piece orchestra will be assisted in the concert by Beuna Crowell Atkinson, a vocalist of considerable note.

Trimmed Hats of Unmistakable Style and Beauty

So wonderfully lovely and artistic are all the hats in the Millinery section of the Salon de Luxe that one could almost pick out blindfolded a hat certain to be becoming. Yet some of the hats are for tall women and others for short women; some for the fair and some for the dark; some best suited for the stately type, others for the dashing type that wears extreme modes; still others for the piquant face, and others yet for the demure and conservative woman who wants something "just too sweet and pretty."

In this garden of beautiful millinery all you need do is to choose out of the hundreds the particular hat that suits you best. We know it is here.

COMMISSIONERS BUY NEW ROAD GRADER

Hamilton, April 5.—After being in session all of yesterday the board of county commissioners completed their business this morning and adjourned. This was one of their monthly meetings which is held the first of every month to receive the reports of the several road supervisors. The reports of the supervisors were examined by the board and approved and warrants drawn for the proper payments of the district court.

The report of the viewers appointed for the road petitioned by Thomas Tillman and others, was accepted, but the petition was rejected. In regard to the road petitioned for by C. R. Wagner and others the matter was laid over until a later meeting. The petition of George Hudson and others for the changing of a road in Hamilton Heights was granted and it was ordered that the present road be discontinued.

The board decided to sell the north 80 acres of the poor farm and it was decided to advertise for bids at once. No bid for less than $100 an acre will be considered, and it will be sold to the highest cash bidder.

J. E. Sharp, principal of the Stevensville schools, was appointed as a member of the county educational examining board in place of Professor C. C. Williamson, the outgoing member.

NEW SIDEWALKS.

Hamilton, April 6.—Sidewalk construction for the year of 1910 in Hamilton has begun with a rush. The walk of Second street along the side of the building occupied by the Valley Clothing company, has been torn up and will be replaced at once by a cement walk. Workmen started this morning to tear out the plank walk in front of the hardware store of Waddell & Grover, who will construct a cement walk in its place. The walk in front of the Wheeler market will be replaced with cement at the same time.
