

DEMON BLACK MAN DOWNS BARRY

SAM LANGFORD PUTS CRUSHER TO CHICAGO HEAVYWEIGHT'S JAW IN SIXTEENTH.

Los Angeles, April 14.—In a battle which demonstrated the ability of Sam Langford of Boston as a human fighting machine and added to the reputation of Jim Barry of Chicago only a tribute to gameness and ability to withstand punishment, the "Boston Demon" sent his white antagonist to the mat for the final count in the 16th round at the Vernon arena today. It was a vicious go from start to finish, with the negro well in the lead after the first half dozen rounds. From the 10th, in which Barry had been twice knocked down for the count of nine, until the 15th, when a straight left to the chin ended the combat. It was wholly one-sided. Langford landed upon his man almost at will, and victory for him by the knockout route appeared to be only a matter of time.

Barry Shows Strength.
Barry surprised the ringside crowd with the strength he displayed, despite the terrible bombardment, and a rally in the 15th inspired his backers with the hope that he would yet outlast the ultimate winner. While the men did not weigh in before entering the ring, it was said that a difference in the weight of 30 pounds favored the white fighter. Barry's weight was given at 196 and that of Langford as 166. In the clinches the white man showed far the stronger of the two, being cautioned by the referee several times for nearly throwing Langford to the floor.

The two gladiators went at one another viciously at the sound of the gong for the first round. There was slambang fighting at close range in the second and both men were bleeding at the mouth when they went to their corners. In a clinch near the end of the third round, Barry almost threw Langford through the ropes. From then until the eighth the milling was a mixture of terrific slugging rallies and infighting. Barry throwing the negro around roughly in the clinches and undergoing severe punishment whenever they fought at long range. Several times during the eighth and succeeding rounds the white man was hooted for wrestling. Langford showed the utmost good nature.

"Stop your tickling," he admonished during one of the clinches. "You can't win that way."

Negro Executes Coup.
Langford cut loose after the eighth round and was constantly trying for a knockout. Barry fought back gamely and at times rushed his lighter opponent to the ropes. In the 10th the negro executed a coup in ring tactics. Getting Barry near the ropes, he suddenly exerted all his strength and threw the white man against them and then catching him on the rebound, landed a terrific swing flush on the jaw. Barry dropped for the count of nine.

After that it was only a question of how long Barry could endure the punishment. His left eye was cut open, his cheeks were puffed and blood flowed in a stream from his nose and mouth. The last four rounds were marked by a succession of slugging matches. It was during one of these hard rallies in the 16th round that the Bostonian caught his almost exhausted opponent with a straight left to the chin that ended the combat.

He was wild at the start and was hit often and hard from the fifth inning on. Crawford was the star, driving in four runs. A new attendance for inaugural day was set.

The contest was witnessed by an assemblage so large that spectators crowded on the playing field. Wood held the locals at his mercy. His work, however, was not as good as Vaughn's. The New York left-hander never faltered in the early innings and gained strength as the game proceeded. He was not scored on after the fifth, and struck out seven men. Lord and Hemphill led in stick work. Chase played a wonderful game at first for New York.

Washington, April 14.—The opening of the American league season in Washington today, between the local and Philadelphia clubs was a most auspicious one. For the first time on record a president of the United States tossed out the first ball and sat throughout the entire nine innings, and seemed to enjoy the contest. The attendance broke all records. The game was stubbornly contested, Walter Johnson being the particular star. He held the visitors down to one home hit and the locals were never in danger. Plank, on the other hand, was hit hard, 13 hits for a total of 19 bases being the Washington's batting record. The fielding was exceptionally clean and sensational. The big crowd entirely surrounded the playing field and a two-base hit rule had to be adopted.

JEFF GINGERS UP IN HIS WORK

BOILERMAKER SHOWS SPEED IN THREE-ROUND BOUT WITH BIG BOB ARMSTRONG.

Ben Lomond, Cal., April 14.—Refreshed by his relaxation and diversion of yesterday afternoon, James J. Jeffries returned to the training grind this afternoon with more ginger in his work. With less than 30 visitors watching him go through his paces, the gymnasium held its largest crowd since Jeffries began his training. The first stunt on the program was three rounds of boxing with Bob Armstrong, the colored heavyweight. Commencing with defensive tactics in the first round with a view of improving his speed and footwork, Jeffries, who is not much given to backing away, was soon chasing the big negro all over the ring. Armstrong was glad when it was over. Jeffries' speed was a trifle better than last Monday, but it was evident that he still needs a lot of boxing practice to be anything like his former self. Bag punching and handball followed and when the stunts were finished perspiration fairly rolled off of him.

Fast as Jeffries appeared, Manager Sam Berger thought the undefeated champion was a bit off in his work. "He's worried," said Berger, "and I know his heart wasn't in anything he did this afternoon. It may have seemed to the casual onlooker that he showed plenty of ginger and life, but I know him too well." Jeffries is much worried over the impending operation on his wife. Mrs. Jeffries, accompanied by Dick Adams, left tonight for Oakland, where she is to go under the surgeon's knife Saturday morning. Her illness and departure has cast a gloom over him and puts an end to plans for a party tomorrow night in honor of Jeffries' birthday. He will be 35 tomorrow, at least that is his age given by Berger.

BANTAMS CAN'T AGREE.

Los Angeles, April 14.—The proposed 45-round bout here on April 30 between Frankie Conley and Danny Webster for the bantamweight championship has been declared off by Promoter McCarey, the fighters not being able to agree on the number of rounds. Webster wanted 25 rounds after having agreed to 45, according to Conley, while the latter declared it would be 45 or nothing.
