FLATHEAD CHOICES ALL MADE

THREE THOUSAND HOLDERS OF LUCKY NUMBERS HAVE HAD CHANCE TO SELECT.

It is all over. The last selection of a Flathead farm has been made. An untroubled air of quietness and lassitude permeates the Missoula land of 33e.

Yesterday morning at 9 o'clock number 2361 was called, but Thomas O'Hara of Spokane, the holder of that number did not respond. Then the calling continued until 11 o'clock, when William R. McIntyre of Boise, Idaho, holder of number 2369 and George A. Ellinghouse of Sheridan, Mont., who was number 2366, were called. Neither answered, and the calling was at an end.

During the two hours of the forenoon four persons appeared in answer to their numbers and made selections. They were:

- 65.—Caroline E. Rich, Monticello, Minn.
- 66.—William H. Beacom, Missoula.
- 67.—Mike Mogus, Anaconda, Mont.
- 68.—Edward C. Danzel, Swift Falls, Minn.

The lands chosen by these people are as follows:

- 65.—Unit C, lot 11, section 3, township 19, range 20.
- 66.—Unit E, west half of north-west quarter, section 14, township 17, range 20.
- 67.—Southeast quarter, section 2, township 19, range 21.
- 68.—Lots 3 and 4 and east half of southwest quarter, section 31, township 20, range 22.

The only summary of results possible now is that which is immediately apparent from the above figures, viz: That out of 3,000 names called, 468 have answered and made selections. How many of these 468 are to be counted as permanent filers cannot be known until after the expiration of the 10-day period allowed those who selected yesterday to examine their lands.

M'DONALD-WATTS.

CLASS-DAY STUNTS TAKE WELL

PROGRAM PRESENTED BY THE UNIVERSITY SENIORS PROVES TO BE A GOOD ONE.

The graduating class of the University of Montana celebrated class day yesterday morning when its members rendered a program of speeches and papers in university hall. A good crowd turned out for the exercises and the hall was comfortably filled when they began. Yesterday marked the last public appearance of the seniors as undergraduates, for this morning they will receive their diplomas and join the ranks of the alumni.

A. E. Leech, as president of the class, was first on the program. Mr. Leech's speech was by far the best number on the program. He covered his subject—the gratitude of his class for what the university has done for it—thoroughly. He began by showing the advantages of which had been offered the class and ended as follows:

The Address.

"We sincerely appreciate all that has been done for us. The faculty has worked with us, has tried to better our condition, and to make men and women of us. At times we have been found unworthy and unappreciative, but as we have advanced more and more we have become better able to realize what has been done for us. However unappreciative we may have been or may have seemed to be we now express our thanks and appreciation for all the many favors and courtesies that have been shown us. And as the years go by we will feel more and more thankful to those who gave us what we have received in the University of Montana.

"It is my privilege to assure you that whatever the class of 1910 may be able to do in the world for the cause of education, or more especially for the University of Montana, we will gladly and willingly do. To the extent that our work hereafter will make us better prepared to serve humanity, to that extent we will labor to advance our university and the cause of higher education in general with a pride and a pleasure which a man or a woman feels for no other institution than his or her alma mater."

Mr. Leech was followed by Homer Deuel, who rendered a clarinet solo. Mr. Deuel played very well and was heartily applauded.

The class history was read by Miss Olive Lovett. Miss Lovett handled her subject very well. She had covered the ground very thoroughly and her history was full of interesting bits of history.

The Poem.

Miss Edna Fox played a piano solo. Following Miss Fox, Miss May Graham read the class poem. The poem went well and was full of clever hits. The last verses are typical:

"Now we part, perhaps forever,
Let each take the other's hand,
Press it in a kindly spirit,
Joined by friendship's loving band
"One last look we take around us,
At our campus green and fair;
To it and our alma mater
Firmest loyalty we swear."

The class prophecy was read by Miss Frances Foster. Miss Foster covered herself with glory with her prophecy and the many clever forecasts and the remarkable futures which she predicted took well with the audience.

Miss Nell Whitaker gave a vocal solo, "Ain't Weiderseh'n," which was well received. Will Tait closed the program with the class will. The will was very good and the audience nearly lifted the roof when at its close Mr. Tait presented Professor Aber with a book of baseball rules on behalf of the class.

The orchestra furnished music at the opening and the close of the exercises.

PICNIC IS PLANNED FOR BIBLE CLASS

All members of the adult bible class of the Sunday school of the Christian church are invited to go on a trolley ride to Bonner Friday afternoon. The car will leave Potomac and Cedar streets corner at 3 p. m. Those whose employment will detain them later than this hour can come out on the 6 or 7 p. m. car, as the party will not return before 9:30. This invitation includes all teachers and officers of the school and members of the C. W. B. M. and any others who may wish to go. It is planned to visit the mill and the power dam during the afternoon and to partake of a picnic lunch at about 1:30 p. m. at the dam. Each person going will bring some article or act for the lunch. Come prepared to have a good time. Should the weather be unpropitious, the trip will be postponed to a later date.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT.

The case of Stella Anderson against the Northern Pacific railroad was dismissed yesterday on motion of the plaintiff. This action was taken on account of some technical error in the papers, and after this has been corrected the case will be re-entered. In the case of Fayette Harrington against Samuel Dinsmore, judgment by default was given by order of the court in favor of the plaintiff for $1,575.64 with added costs of $8.80.

GRADUATES TO HEAR DR. CARVER

NOTED ECONOMIST OF HARVARD TO DELIVER COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS.

At 10:30 this morning will occur the fifteenth annual commencement of the University of Montana. The address of the day is to be given by Professor Thomas Nixon Carver, of Harvard University, on the subject, "The Productive Life." Dr. Carver is one of the most prominent of the younger economists of today. His rise has been rapid. Not only is he a great economist, he is also a great teacher and an accomplished speaker. His presence at the exercise of the morning affords the people of Missoula an unusual opportunity.

"Twenty-four young people will this morning have degrees conferred upon them. The occasion is one of solemnity and of gladness. It is one of much significance to all the residents of Missoula and to the citizens of Montana. The university authorities should not be disappointed in their expectation of a very large audience. University hall is the place; 10:30 is the hour. Following is the program: Music—March from "Tannhauser," Wagner—University orchestra. Invocation—Rev. J. W. Tait. Music—"Gondolier's Song," Reginald de Koven—Mrs. Dwight S. Bayley. Address—"The Productive Life," Professor Thomas Nixon Carver of Harvard University. Music—Andante from Concerto, Mendelssohn—Piano, Miss Edith Graham, and University orchestra.

Conferring of degrees upon the graduates by the president of the university. Music—Violin, "Serenade," Schubert-Remenyi—Miss Hops Whitaker. Benediction—Rev. Dwight S. Bayley. Music—University orchestra.
