

FRAUD IS ALLEGED MONEY COMES EASY BY BUYER SO DOES JAIL

WOMAN WANTS HER MONEY BACK AND SUES FOR ITS RESTITUTION.

STEVENSVILLE IS VICTIMIZED BY A CLEVER MANIPULATOR OF WORTHLESS CHECKS.

Hamilton, Aug. 9.—(Special)—Margaret J. Waxland has begun action in the district court against Sarah S. Teale and others for an injunction restraining the defendants from selling or assigning a note or mortgage given to them by the plaintiff, also to secure release from all contracts and agreements entered into with the defendants, and praying for the return of $2,150 which she paid to the defendants, and for damages amounting to $1,000.

The instrument is a voluminous one and alleges as follows: The plaintiff bought on March 19, 1910, what was claimed to be 40 acres of land that was part of the estate of the late Thomas Holt of Grantsdale, the plaintiff alleging that the purchase was made on the suggestion of Sarah C. Teale, who represented that the land in question was as good fruit and apple land as there was in the valley, that it was worth $300 an acre and had yielded 100 bushels of oats to the acre. It is further alleged that the defendant knew that the plaintiff was in possession of $2,000 insurance money on the life of her husband and unduly influenced her in the purchase of the land. The plaintiff agreed to take one-half of the land, paying one-half of the purchase price, but that the defendant was finally persuaded into taking a two-thirds share. The complaint alleges that the land contains but 25 acres, is nothing but a sand bar and not worth more than $3 an acre and that it would not raise five bushels of oats to an acre. The plaintiff alleges the payment of $2,150 cash and the giving of a note for $2,000, which was secured by a mortgage on the land, but that now it is learned that less than $2,000 was paid to the estate.

Hamilton, Aug. 9.—(Special)—Another man with a willing pen was rounded up at Stevensville on Sunday and now is a prisoner at the county jail awaiting the filing of a direct information in the district court charging him with forgery. The man, John Patterson by name, did his pen stunt at Stevensville and was a busy and pretentious new-comer until he was tripped. After being in that town for three or four days he pretended that he had about closed a deal for the purchase of a ranch near Stevensville, and that he was paying $16,000 cash. He went to the First National bank and tried to borrow $800 that he needed to make up the amount, but the money was not forthcoming, as the deal did not look good to the bank people. On Saturday he had J. Alweis, a merchant at Stevensville, write a check to a fictitious person, on the First State bank for $25, and he then signed it himself. He then endorsed the check and had it cashed at the Stevensville Mercantile company store. That worked so well that he repeated with another check for $100 which was cashed in the same manner as the first. During the meantime Mr. Brazeal was harassing him with a bill for automobile hire which Patterson finally settled. Things began to look queer to Mr. Alweis so he visited the bank and learned that Patterson had no account there. He then visited the Stevensville mercantile store and told them to look out for Patterson and his checks. The bookkeeper looked for Patterson at the hotel but he had scented trouble and was hounded in the direction of old Fort Owen. Search was given and he was soon captured. Sheriff Ward and County Attorney McCulloch went to Stevensville Sunday and brought the check writer to Hamilton. As soon as Judge H. L. Myers returns from Sanders county direct information will be filed against him in the district court. Patterson is a young man about 25 years of age.

WENDLING MAY GO FREE FROM PRISON

Joseph Wendling, Mrs. Muena, the widow who was the unconscious betrayer of the criminal, and Thomas J. Rowe, the prosecuting attorney at Louisville.

St. Louis, Aug. 9.—Habeas corpus proceedings, instituted today on behalf of Joseph Wendling, wanted at Louisville, Ky., in connection with the death of Alma Kellner, will be taken in Judge Hitchcock's court tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. The hearing was originally set for August 17, but Thomas J. Rowe, Jr., attorney for Chief of Detectives Carney of Louisville, who is in charge of Wendling, prevailed upon Judge Hitchcock to change to tomorrow, on the ground that Carney would be put to great inconvenience if obliged to remain here or to return on August 17.

If the habeas corpus is denied, it is announced Wendling will be started for Louisville tomorrow night. J. R. Clements, the prisoner's Louisville attorney, arrived in St. Louis today and will participate in the argument tomorrow afternoon. Immediately after filing the petition for habeas corpus, Wendling's attorneys for the first time conferred with him in jail. They expressed confidence tonight that the prisoner would be released.

Joseph G. Williams, Wendling's local counsel, said he expected, however, that Wendling would be rearrested under the Missouri fugitive law. He explained that the habeas corpus proceedings were instituted on the theory that Wendling was being illegally detained by the St. Louis police at the request of the Louisville authorities for the purpose of obtaining a confession.

Six witnesses from Louisville are here to testify for Wendling. Constable Bode of St. Louis county tonight declared positively that Wendling is not George Frey, wanted for the death of Nellie Nienaber in St. Louis county in 1908.

J. R. Clements, Wendling's attorney, tonight telegraphed Governor Wilson of Kentucky asking that Wendling be taken from the custody of Detective Chief Carney. He urged the governor to have the sheriff at Louisville to come to St. Louis to take charge of the prisoner on the ground that the latter is being mistreated.

PURE FOOD INSPECTOR MAKES TWO SEIZURES

Wallace, Aug. 9.—Packages of patent medicines were seized at a Burke drug store by State Pure Food Inspector Watts today. These medicines may not be sold in Idaho, owing to the amount of opium and chloroform they contain. Three barrels of vinegar were taken from one grocery store because the barrels did not have stenciled on them the name of the manufacturer and the ingredients. At a meat shop in Burke chickens that had been "drawn" were seized.

NOVEL POINT RAISED.

Quebec, Aug. 9.—A novel point in favor of Dr. H. H. Crippen and Ethel Levee was raised today by a local newspaper. On the authority of a Montreal criminal lawyer, it is contended their arrest was illegal because made by Quebec provincial police in federal territory. The government authorities are not alarmed by the contention.

'Time's Flight Turned Backward' SAGE AND SULPHUR Made Her Look Twenty Years Younger

READ MRS. HERRICK'S SWORN STATEMENT

STATE OF NEW YORK } ss
COUNTY OF MONROE }
ROCHESTER, N. Y.

Nancy A. Herrick, being duly sworn, deposes and says: When I was a girl, I had a head of heavy, long, dark brown hair which was the envy of my schoolmates, and which attracted the attention and remarks of strangers. As I grew older, my hair commenced to come out, just a little at first, but gradually more and more, and then began to turn gray. I was induced by the many good reports I had heard of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy to try a bottle. My hair was quite thin and gray when I began using Sage and Sulphur, and you can imagine my satisfaction when I found that it was fast coming back to its natural condition, being thicker, darker and more glossy than it had been for a long time. I continued to use Sage and Sulphur, and my hair is now as heavy, dark and smooth as when I was a girl of sixteen. It is now four years since I commenced using Sage and Sulphur, and my hair is still in splendid condition.

Sworn to before me this 10th day of July, 1910.
