

APPLE SHOW GROWS DAILY

PROSPECTS ARE VERY ENCOURAGING FOR THE BEST SHOW EVER HELD.

Just one month from today the Western Montana Apple show opens, and from present prospects there is no doubt that it will eclipse its predecessor in every particular. It is certain that every department will be crowded with displays, caused by the many extra inducements offered by the management this year. For instance, as an incentive to secure a generous supply of absolutely the very best bright red apples possible the directors of the apple show decided at a recent conference to make a special offer of $50 in cash for the best five boxes of McIntosh Reds. It is to be understood, however, that all apples entered for this prize will become the property of the Western Montana Apple show, which will in turn ship the entire display to be entered at the National Apple show at Spokane in the general district display, where the prize is a specially designated gold medal banner. These same apples will then be taken to Chicago as part of the National Apple show and exhibited in the Armory for a week's period. A representative from Missoula will accompany this exhibit both to Spokane and Chicago, and keep the apples in first-class condition, distribute literature of Missoula and the adjoining valleys and answer all questions asked.

In addition to the cash prize of $50 for first premium, there will be a second prize of one case of Hills Brothers' highest quality steel-cut coffee, a grade that retails in the local stores at 45 cents a pound, this being donated by the manufacturers, who also donated another case to be used as the management thinks best.

For third prize a handsome and valuable set of Clauss de Luxe razors in neat leather cases will be given. There are four razors in this set and Reinhard Brothers are the donors.

Without doubt many entries for these prizes will be made, as it will be quite an honor to the grower to have his products go to the National Apple show and then to Chicago. And it will be necessary to have the very best apples obtainable, as all the fruit-raising valleys in the west will be represented. Hood River and Wenatchee will have large displays, also Klickitat, Spokane, Medford, La Grande and other communities.

Secretary Breitenstein has been fortunate in securing so many entries among the commercial clubs, which will strive for the generous $250 offers made by the Puget Sound and Northern Pacific railways. Hamilton has contracted for space and will bring down a representative exhibit from the great Ravalli County fair, which it held a week before the apple show. Plans has a bunch of live wires bundling together some of Sanders county's best stuff, and even far-off Lewistown promises a dandy display of the famous Judith basin grain. Deer Lodge is expected to be on hand, and the large irrigation companies of the Bitter Root valley will have some creditable exhibits.

EXPPELLING THE JEWS.

Kiev, Russia, Sept. 10.—A canvass of the city to round up and finally send away to the restricted district set apart for them, all of those Jews who still remain in the city, and are unable to establish a legal right of residence, will be made soon. From August 28 to September 5, 25 persons were summarily expelled or given notice to depart within a stated period. In the same time 150 persons were expelled from the suburbs.

MANY AMERICANS RETURNING.

London, Sept. 10.—The several steamers which left English ports for the United States today carried between 60,000 and 70,000 passengers. The rush was so great that many well-to-do Americans were obliged to content themselves with third-class or even steerage berths, and gladly paid emigrants handsome premiums to surrender their accommodations.

LAND SEEKERS DO NOT ANSWER

ONLY EIGHTEEN SELECT FLAT-HEAD LAND FROM THE FIRST 300 NAMES CALLED.

Every 15 minutes yesterday between the hours of 9 a. m. and 4 p. m. four names from the list of those holding numbers were called by some of the land office officials at the Masonic temple. The first hour five names were called to make the even 100 for the day. Receiver W. H. Houston called some hours, then Register Josiah Shull would take a turn. Even Special Clerk Crutchfield took a chance at the business once in a while—it being a chance, because, after three days of this kind of procedure it has become a little dangerous for any one to step out into the deserted halls and bellow forth the lists of names.

"John Doe."
"Jennie Roe."
Thus called Receiver Houston down the hall.
Echo answered.
"Jennie Roe."
"John Doe?"
So called Register Shull down the same deserted halls.
Echo answered first and then just as he (Register Shull) turned to re-enter the land office there came a waste basket flying down the hall from some office door, which swished past the gentleman's coat-tails.

For three days this week this same farcical procedure has been carried on at the land office, as only a very few have answered to their names. Every day splendid opportunities of securing lands in the Flathead district have been lost. While the choice selections of the land were made during the first filing period early this year, there still remains much land of a character that homesteaders are not allowing to lie unoccupied in any other part of the country.

"The word seems to have gone out," said a land office official, "that there was no land worth having left after the 3,000 eligibles were given a chance last spring. The inactivity in the selecting and filing on lands here the last few days would seem to indicate that this is the sentiment of the people who might now come in and secure homesteads. I am not personally acquainted with all of the reservation sections, but in the face of conditions it seems to me that there must be left a vast area of valuable land. Why, there is marked right down in the schedule about 1,400 farm units—tracts of land picked out to be put under the reclamation projects and which some day will be watered. If this land and these farm units were not worth the expense of conducting the water to them it strikes me that they would not have been listed as farm units, but left in the general classification as second, third or fourth-class sections.

"If this kind of filing record is maintained throughout this period there will remain a fine open chance for regular homesteaders after the first of November, when all of the remaining lands will be thrown open under the usual homestead laws."

During the last three days there has been 300 names called of the list of 3,000, which will be given a chance to file. Of this 300 there were only 18 to make selections. Eight selected the first day, and the interest has dropped rather than increased.

The following have made selections since the last list was published yesterday:
No. 3,166—C. G. Lindahl, Nebraska City, Neb. Unit C, southeast quarter of northwest quarter, northeast quarter of southwest quarter, in section 14, township 20 north, range 21 west.
No. 3,195—Frank A. Cook, Falls City, Neb. Unit B, south half of the northeast quarter of section 17, township 19 north, range 20 west.
No. 3,245—Bridget Agnes Donogh, Seattle. East half of the southeast quarter of section 9; west half of the southwest quarter in section 10, township 21 north, range 23 west.

No. 3,261—Andrew Johnson, Larson, Idaho. Unit L, southwest quarter of the southeast quarter in section 1; township 21 north, range 24 west.
No. 3,272—John C. McKee, Lolo. Lot 1 and the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section 5, township 19 north, range 22 west.

No. 3,280—John Molinak, Anaconda. Northwest quarter of the northeast quarter and the east half of the northwest quarter and lot 2 of section 30, township 21 north, range 22 west.

Monday there will be a respite in the calling of the names. None will be called from Saturday until Tuesday morning.

SAN JOSE FIRE CHIEF MEETS A TRAGIC END

San Francisco, Sept. 10.—Richard Brown, chief of the San Jose fire department, was killed early today by the overturning of an automobile near the Tanforan race track. He was returning home from this city in company with a friend, Ivan Treadwell, who escaped injury.

The car was going at high speed when it skidded on a sharp curve in the road and was upset. Chief Brown being buried under the wreck.

1910 Fall Suits

The forerunners of what will be most popular among the smartly-dressed women this fall are here seeking your inspection. The very fact that you see them in the Donohue store is proof of their correctness.

The materials are of serge, broadcloth, homespuns, worsteds and zibelines; coats cut in lengths from 32 to 55 inches, though the shorter styles seem to gain preference. Hip plaited and hobble skirts are the features in skirts, while trimming on either garment is conspicuous by its absence. Simplicity is the keynote, and are priced accordingly, from $22.50 up.

1910 Fall Coats

Some beautiful new fall models in smart dress coats have just arrived. Though we have by no means secured our complete lines as yet, patrons would do well to keep an eye on the daily arrivals and secure immediately whatever strikes their fancy.

These first arrivals are mostly of golfing cloth, distinguished by the reversible plaid shawl collar, worn high or low, as weather may demand. Each model shown is full length and full lined with Skinner satin.

Also a few broadcloths and other materials will claim your attention because of their new style. $22.50 up.

Arrives the First New Millinery

An entirely new and most becoming model is noticed in the close-fitting Hindu turban, which will surely be a favorite with chic dressers. Then there are draped turbans, mushroom shapes, new models in the Charlotte Corday idea and Cloche hats. Gainsboro effects also are prominent—but why say more? You must surely see them—let every woman come, and just look; you will not be asked to buy.

This is a millinery store distinguished from all the rest, in that no expense is spared to serve you best. Our trimmers and buyers have just returned from the eastern marts, where they have had every opportunity to view every style, kind and quality—hence, surely must have had you in mind when they made their selections.
