FOREIGN FORESTERS VISITORS

PATRASCHEKS OF AUSTRIA COME HERE TO LOOK OVER AMERICAN NATIONAL FORESTS.

D. Karl Patraschek and Karl Patraschek, father and son, of Austria, are at the Florence hotel. They came here to see the forests of this portion of the United States. Early yesterday they called on District Forester Greeley and went over the maps with him. The elder gentleman does not speak English, but his son uses it fairly well and acts as interpreter.

"For 29 years," said young Patraschek, "my father has been in the harness, working at home and traveling abroad. It has been his desire for some time to visit America and see your immense forests. He has visited Germany, Norway, Sweden and other countries.

"We came to New York and then went to Washington, Minnesota and other places, and now we are here on our way to the Pacific coast. We will go to California and work our way back to New York through the southwest and south. We met Mr. Gifford Pinchot at his summer home at Millford, Pa., and he was very pleasant. We saw the Adirondacks. Great country! In Minnesota we saw large and pretty forests of Norway and white pine.

"Your woods are so extensive. But we note that you have made considerable effort. You have been doing good work, but you have much yet to do. Your country so vast, your population so scattering and you have much too few forest officers. Too much timber wasted! These conditions cannot be changed at once. It takes time. We save everything in Austria. The only way to stop your fires is to establish fire lines. You have some, but not enough. We are going to look over the burnt forests. We shall be here a week."

The Patrascheks wear breeches. No one would have any trouble picking them out in a crowd. Both are educated and cultured, and are enjoying their rambles in America.

"SIGNS" OF MISSOULA HOLD HAPPY REUNION

The Missoula alumni chapter of the Sigma Chi fraternity held its monthly dinner at the Savoy hotel last night in connection with the Beta Delta chapter of the state university. The dinner was well attended and served as a happy reunion. Plans for the coming year were discussed and made. After the banquet the entire gathering left in a body to attend the new student's reception at the university gymnasium.

GASPARD DESCHAMPS

160-Acre Relinquishment

15 miles from Missoula, 1 1/2 miles from railroad and shipping point. About 10 acres cleared and cultivated; 100 fine trees that will commence to bear next year. Fair stable, root house and chicken house. There is probably nearly 1,000,000 feet of timber on this claim suitable for wood, lugging, stulls and saw logs. With this place we offer the following personal property:

- 2 work mares with colts.
- 1 2-year-old gelding.
- 1 fine cow.
- 1 lumber wagon, 3-inch.
- 1 set double harness.
- 1 saddle.
- 1 plow.
- 1 double shovel plow.

We will trade this property for a little home in Missoula or for an Orchard Home, and pay any difference in cash. Our price for this for a few days is $1,550. This place has the making of a fine chicken and fruit ranch. The soil is very rich. There is enough timber on it to pay for it several times over.

HEAVY ENROLLMENT REPORTED

OPENING DAY AT STATE UNIVERSITY IS HAPPY ONE FOR ITS BOOSTERS.

All day yesterday a steady stream of applicants, old and new, filed through the doors of the main hall of the university into the office of Registrar Speer, through the office of the president and out again as officially matriculated students. Not for a moment all day did any of the people on the job have time to rest for it was a steady unceasing rush, such a one as the university has never seen before. The official figures on the total registration are not ready, as a good proportion of the students will not be here until today.

When the rush is over and President Duntway realized that the long fought for increase had come at last, he was immensely pleased. "There are on record tonight 57 new freshmen, an increase of nearly 50 per cent over the total freshman enrollment of last year, which was 39," he said. "Last year, too, 60 per cent of the freshmen class were girls, whereas this year out of 57, 38 are boys. This is a marked change and a sign that the legs of the state are taking more of an interest in college work."

The total figures will be announced today. At 3 o'clock yesterday, 120 students had registered and there are many who are sure to come that did not arrive during the day.

Classes will be resumed this morning and the work of the semester will be rushed ahead from the start. The standard of the state school is much better this year. The field of study has been broadened and new equipment has been installed so that the university is now in a position to offer as thorough an education as any school in the country.

The lack of assistants is another advantageous thing. Every first year class at the school is taught by the men of the broadest education and ability and all well fitted to teach in any school in the country.

This year bids fair to be the best in the history of the state university in every way. The scholarship end will be well taken care of and with the pre-eminence of boys the athletic end should profit.

The university handbook for new students was issued yesterday. It is an attractive little booklet of vest-pocket size, bound in tasty tan leather and containing every possible bit of information regarding the city and the school. The book was published by the Y. M. C. A., and is indeed a credit to that organization. The book gives explicit directions as to how and what to do at all times and should prove invaluable to the student who is unacquainted with the school or Missoula. The advertising in the book paid for its publication and the attention of the readers is directed toward the advertisers as being the most reliable business firms in the city.

J. C. STRAUGHN DIES ON A VISIT IN EAST

Word has reached Missoula of the sudden death at Newark, O., of J. C. Straughn, father of John S. Straughn of this city. Mr. Straughn had a considerable acquaintance in the Garden city, and numerous friends made during his two visits at the home of his daughter.

Mr. Straughn, although a non-resident, had great faith in Missoula's future, and made some investments in Missoula real estate. He was a civil engineer by profession, and was prominently identified with the building of several railroads in the middle west and south. He was surveyor general of Idaho during both administrations of Cleveland, and was a pioneer in reclamation work, which has since assumed such proportions. He leaves a widow and two children—Mrs. H. M. Gwin of Indianapolis, Ind., and John S. Straughn of Missoula.

NELSON AND DUFFY GET SIXTY PIECE IN JAIL

A Nelson and Frank Duffy, two of the men arrested a couple of nights ago charged with robbing their roommate, H. M. Nettles, of $11, were tried before Justice Small yesterday. The complaint was changed from robbery to petit larceny. After the evidence had all been introduced the court found the prisoners guilty and sentenced each to serve 60 days in the county jail.

It developed in the trial that the amount of money taken from Nettles' pocket was $13 and his watch. With this the thieves declared they were going to buy some whisky. They could not explain away the reason for taking the watch, however. The money counted out just $13 and must have been the hoodlums. The third man connected with the case was found to be unfortunates in the choice of his company but free from guilt.

A NEW BLOCK.

Yesterday morning carpenters commenced the erection of the scaffolding for the new Knowles' block on Third street in south Missoula. The new structure is to be of brick and will be similar in style to the adjoining building now occupied by a butcher shop and a grocery store on the ground floor.

Macaroni Always for Highest Food Value

When thinking of economy in planning your meals, always bear in mind macaroni. This is a thing that bears repeating, for there probably isn't an article of food that means more in the way of saving and energy value than macaroni. Your cookbook will show many attractive dishes that may be made from this rarely economical food product.

CHILDREN'S HAIR.
Keep It Clean and Free From Disease By Using Parisian Sage. If you want your children to grow up with strong, sturdy and vigorous hair, teach them to use Parisian Sage, the world-renowned hair tonic.

Parisian Sage is guaranteed by George Freisheimer to cure dandruff and stop falling hair in two weeks. It grows new hair quickly in all cases where the hair is "thinning out."

It is positively the most delightful and invigorating hair dressing on the market, and for that reason is a great favorite with women of refinement. It is not sticky or greasy, and will make the coarsest hair soft, lustrous and luxuriant. Get a 50 cent bottle from George Freisheimer and watch how rapid its action. If you do not live near a druggist who sells Parisian Sage, you can get it for 50 cents direct by express, all charges prepaid, from Gileux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y. The girl with the auburn hair is on every bottle.
